WILLIAM V. BIDWILL

OWNER

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's South Side and continues today as owner.

A native of Chicago, Bill Bidwill presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise. Founded in 1898, the Cardinals join the Chicago Bears as the only two remaining charter members of the National Football League (1920). As his involvement with the team enters its eighth different decade, few achievements in that time compare with the team's most recent run of success. The Cardinals have captured back-to-back divisions crowns in 2008 and '09, won their their first NFC title and advanced to the Super Bowl for the first time in team history following the '08 season.

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since Bill's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. Charles' wife, Violet, then guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons Bill and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). Bill became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, Bill Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill continues to have a daily presence at the Cardinals training facility and is a popular fixture at team events, charity function and football activities. This past December he received an honorary doctorate from Northern Arizona University.

Bidwill was credited with bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona on January of 1996 and the region again hosted the title game when Super Bowl XLVII was played at University of Phoenix Stadium in February of 2008.

An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinals Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

He also serves on the Player Dire Need Fun committee as well as the Hall of Fame Committee. In August of 2007 he was named to the Board of Trustees for the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the governing body of the Canton-based organization.

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in September of 2010. They are the parents of five children and have nine grandchildren.

RECOGNITION FOR MR. B

While he is well-known for his understated nature and a preference for staying out of the spotlight, Bill Bidwill has in recent years received quite a bit of attention for his many contributions and accomplishments as Cardinals owner.

DR. B: At its December 2010 commencement exercises at Northern Arizona University, Bidwill was awarded an honorary doctor of humane letters degree for "his contributions to the university, his community and his profession."

TANK YOUNGER AWARD: At the 2010 annual NFL Combine in Indianapolis, Bidwill was honored with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award from Fritz Pollard Alliance, whose purpose is to promote diversity and equality of job opportunity in the NFL. The Paul "Tank" Younger Award has been presented annually since '03 for extraordinary contributions towards NFL diversity and previous winners include Tony Dungy, Dan Rooney and Bill Walsh. "When you look back over the years, Mr. Bidwill has a long history of hiring minorities to administrative and authoritative positions," said FPA Chairman John Wooten. "He has really helped level the playing field and that is what this award is all about."

SPORTS FAITH HALL OF FAME: Also in February of 2010, Bidwill was inducted into the Sports Faith Hall of Fame in Lake Forest, IL. "(He) was honored as a long-time contributor to the NFL and for his contributions to charity, which he has conducted in a very quiet, very generous manner," said Patrick McCaskey, chairman of the group's advisory board and grandson of Chicago Bears legendary head coach George Halas. Bidwill joined Brian Piccolo, the former Bears running back, Tom Monaghan, founder of Domino's Pizza and former owner of the Detroit Tigers, and John Gagliardi, head coach at St. John's (MN) University and college football's all-time wins leader.

FLAGSTAFF SPORTS HALL OF FAME: In August of '09, Bidwill was inducted into the Flagstaff Sports Foundation's Hall of Fame in recognition of what he and the team have done for that community. Said NAU President John Haeger, "(The Cardinals) bolster the economy of the northern Arizona region—something for which businesses and workers are very appreciative." He added that the Cardinals have been directly responsible for bringing millions of dollars of economic activity over the last two decades.

MICHAEL BIDWILL

PRESIDENT

After practicing law for six years as a federal prosecutor, Michael Bidwill joined the Cardinals organization in 1996 as Vice President/General Counsel and today serves as team President.

In that time, his influence over the club and his role in shaping its success has been undeniable. That was certainly evident this past summer when the Cardinals were one of the most aggressive and proactive NFL teams following the ratification of a new labor agreement. In the first week, they acquired more than 50 new players including new QB Kevin Kolb and before the month was out had signed all-pro WR Larry Fitzgerald to a new eight-year contract.

In addition to guiding the Cardinals, Bidwill has also taken on an ever-increasing role in the National Football League and the greater Phoenix business community as well. In 2007, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell appointed Michael to the league's Business Ventures Committee, one of the NFL's most prominent.

From 2008-10, Bidwill served back-to-back terms as Chair of the influential Greater Phoenix Economic Council (GPEC). He is also a member of Greater Phoenix Leadership (GPL), an organization composed of the region's top business and civic leaders. In July of 2011, Bidwill and 16 business leaders in the state were appointed by Governor Jan Brewer to the Arizona Commerce Authority Board of Directors.

In 2010, Bidwill was selected by the Phoenix Business Journal as one of its 25 "Most Admired CEO's." The previous year, he also received the Leader for Tomorrow award from the Boy Scouts of America.

In October of '08, Bidwill was also honored by Midwestern University and local community leaders with the COMET (Community Outreach: Motivating Excellence for Tomorrow) Award at the annual "Bright Lights, Shining Stars" Gala.

Within the NFL, Michael chairs the league's Security Advisory Committee, a group of eight club executives that oversees and develops best security practices for NFL facilities and is also on the board of NFL Charities. He additionally serves on Arizona's Super Bowl Host Committee which successfully staged Super Bowl XLII at University of Phoenix Stadium and will seek to bring the game back to the state. Bidwill is also a member of the board for the Pat Tillman Foundation.

Among his most significant accomplishments with the Cardinals was spearheading the efforts that ultimately led to the construction of University of Phoenix Stadium. The venue has been a major factor in the transformation of the Cardinals and a catalyst for the team's success. It immediately received worldwide acclaim for its distinctive architecture and cutting-edge design and even before it opened was selected by BusinessWeek as one of the 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world and has received numerous honors since.

Strong community involvement has also been a hallmark of Bidwill's tenure with the Cardinals and a particular emphasis has been placed on the value of youth sports. That awareness was recognized in 2005 when the Cardinals were selected as the NFC recipient of the "Pop Warner NFL Team of the Year" for their commitment to the development of youth football in the Arizona area. Two years earlier, that same organization presented Michael with the Glenn S. "Pop" Warner Award, presented annually by the national youth football organization to an individual who has achieved excellence in athletics, scholarship, and life's endeavors with integrity and humanity.

From 1990–96, Bidwill was an Assistant U.S. Attorney with the Department of Justice in Phoenix where he specialized in homicide and other violent crime cases.

Bidwill earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from St. Louis University in 1987 and in 1990 earned a law degree from Catholic University in Washington, D.C. A licensed pilot and flying enthusiast, Bidwill also donates his time and resources as a volunteer for "Flying Samaritans," a group of volunteers including doctors and other medical personnel who offer free medical clinics in Mexico.

BIDWILL NAMED TO ARIZONA COMMERCE AUTHORITY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

In July of 2011, Arizona Governor Jan Brewer named Michael Bidwill and 16 business leaders in the state to serve as members of the Arizona Commerce Authority (ACA) Board of Directors. The Commerce Authority plays a critical role in the state's recruitment and retention of quality employers and jobs. Board members come from across the state and virtually every key sector of the economy, including real estate, finance, manufacturing, technology, energy and resource development."

"Arizona needed to bring together a team of its brightest economic minds to help make the state a magnet for business expansion, relocation, capital formation and investment," said Governor Brewer. "With top business leaders committed to advancing our State's economy, we're sending a message to the world that Arizona is a premier place in which to locate, expand and grow."

RON MINEGAR

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Ron Minegar is beginning his 11th season with the Cardinals after joining the organization from Disney Sports in 2000.

In his current position, the 51-year old Minegar is responsible for developing the clubs strategic plan and overseeing all aspects of the Cardinals business operations. He serves as the team's primary negotiator on all broadcast agreements, training camp agreements, concessionaire contracts, ticketing agreements and retail merchandise contracts. Additionally, Minegar was a part of the project team during the design and construction of University of Phoenix Stadium and works closely with the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority and the stadium's facility management firm on business and operational issues.

Minegar also serves as Chief Operating Officer of Rojo Hospitality Group LLC which was awarded the food and beverage contract at University of Phoenix Stadium. Additionally, he serves in the same capacity for Rojo Event Management LLC. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Arizona Chamber of Commerce and Industry. He was recently appointed to the role of Vice Chairman of Marketing for the Board's Executive Committee, serves on the Finance Council and is past Chairman of the Energy Committee.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Minegar served as Vice President, Sales and Marketing for Anaheim Sports, Inc., a division of the Walt Disney Corporation. Originally hired to direct marketing and sales for the Anaheim Angels, Minegar ultimately assumed the additional responsibility of overseeing the marketing and sales efforts for the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim.

Minegar began his sports career with the La Crosse, WI franchise of the Continental Basketball Association serving as team President and representing the club's ownership on all league issues from 1985 to 1990. He was a two-time "Executive of the Year" recipient in the CBA as a result of the team achieving league attendance records and a CBA championship. From 1991-1995, he served as the Director of Corporate Sales for the Minnesota Timberwolves and the Target Center. Minegar left the Timberwolves to assist in the start up of the Minnesota Moose, an expansion franchise in the International Hockey League. In his role as Vice President of Business Operations, he developed the organization's overall business and operational plan and oversaw the launch of the wildly popular Moose logo that resulted in record league merchandise and promotional sales. Upon the announcement of the NHL's return to the Twin Cities in 1997, Minegar assisted in the relocation of the IHL franchise to Winnipeg, Manitoba, then became CEO of Diamond Sports Group and was involved in acquisition projects within minor league baseball, basketball and hockey.

He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse in 1981 and in 1984 earned a master's degree in Business Administration from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota.

Born in Pittsburgh, PA, Minegar resides in Phoenix. He and his wife, Margaret, have two children: daughter, Jenna and son, Craig.

ARIZONA AND DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

Every year people across the country turn their clocks ahead in the spring and back in the fall, except in Arizona.

Although Arizona stays on standard time throughout the year, never changing their clocks forward or setting them back, the time change, or lack thereof, does affect the Cardinals' local kickoff times during the season.

In 2011, daylight saving time was observed on the second Sunday in March (March 13) and ends on the first Sunday in November (November 6). When daylight saving time is in effect, Arizona is three hours behind the east coast making a 4 p.m. kickoff in New York a 1:00 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

However, when daylight saving time ends, Arizona is only two hours behind the east coast, making a 4:00 p.m. kickoff in New York a 2:00 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

In 1967 the Uniform Time Act was instituted, putting the entire country on daylight saving time. After one year, states could opt out if they wanted and Arizona went back to standard time and stayed there. Residents and lawmakers of Arizona knew there was an abundance of sunshine and did not see the need to move their clocks ahead in order to save any. The only other state that does not observe Daylight Saving Time is Hawaii.

ROD GRAVES

GENERAL MANAGER

NOTE CARDS

- Joined the Cardinals in 1997 and has overseen the team's personnel department since 2003.
- Is one of the longest-tenured football decision makers in the NFL and is one of five African American general managers in the league.
- In February of 2011, he received the Paul "Tank" Younger Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance to honor an individual who displays outstanding work, on and off the field, in leveling the playing field for minorities in the NFL.
- Represents the Cardinals on a number of NFL committees including the College Relations Subcommittee, the General Managers Advisory Committee, and the CEC Executive Working Group.
- A Houston native, Rod began his career in 1982 as a regional scout for the USFL's Philadelphia Stars and joined the NFL in '84 as a regional scout for the Chicago Bears; was promoted to Bears director of college scouting in '93 and director of player personnel in '94.
- Graduated from Texas Tech University and is the son of the late Jackie Graves, former player personnel executive of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Rod Graves is entering his 15th season with the Cardinals organization after joining the team in 1997 as the Assistant to the President. He was promoted to Vice President, Football Operations in 2003 and was named General Manager in 2007. In February of 2010, he was rewarded for his role in shaping the team into back-to-back division champions when he received a contract extension through 2013.

This past summer, Graves and the Cardinals received acclaim for being one of the most aggressive and proactive NFL teams following the new labor agreement. In the first week, they acquired more than 50 new players including new QB Kevin Kolb via trade and before the month was out had signed all-pro WR Larry Fitzgerald to a new eight-year contract.

Graves, 52, is responsible for all facets of the Cardinals' football operations. He has provided leadership in hiring, planning, budgeting, player acquisitions, negotiations, and scouting. Graves has represented the Cardinals on a number of NFL committees and currently serves on the board of directors of National Football Scouting, Inc. and National Invitational Camp, Inc. (Indy Combine). In June of '08, Graves was named to the NFL's new General Managers Advisory Committee, an 11-member group that provides recommendations and other feedback to the league's Football Operations Department.

As Cardinals G.M., Rod has been particularly successful building the team through the NFL Draft and free agency. Of the 22 Cardinals starters at the end of the 2010 season, 12 were draft choices of the team during Graves' tenure while one other starter joined the team as an undrafted rookie free agent.

One of the league's longest-tenured personnel decision makers, Graves is also one of five African American general managers in the NFL, joining Baltimore's Ozzie Newsome, Houston's Rick Smith, Detroit's Martin Mayhew and the Giants Jerry Reese.

In February of 2011, Graves received the Paul "Tank" Younger Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance. The annual honor is given to an individual who displays outstanding work, on and off the field, in leveling the playing field for minorities in the NFL. Graves was the second Cardinals executive to win the award in the last two years as owner Bill Bidwill was honored in 2010.

Consistent with the Cardinals efforts to become champions in the community, Rod and his wife Dreama, devote their time and resources to supporting Cardinals Charities, The United Way, and The American Diabetes Association.

A native of Houston, TX, Rod began his career in professional football in 1982 as a regional scout for the Philadelphia Stars of the United States Football League. He joined the National Football League in 1984 as a regional scout for the Chicago Bears, a position he held until promoted to director of college scouting in 1993. He was promoted in 1994 to director of player personnel.

Rod is a graduate of Texas Tech University. He is also the son of the late Jackie Graves, former player personnel executive of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Rod and Dreama reside in Phoenix with their three children: daughters, Brittany & Taylor, and son, Joshua.

HEAD COACH

NOTE CARDS

- Became an NFL head coach for the first time when hired by Arizona on January 14, 2007. He came to the Cardinals with 10 years of experience as an NFL assistant coach and also played nine seasons in the league as a tight end/H-Back.
- With 36 victories in four seasons, ranks third among the franchise's all-time coaches (Jim Hanifan 39, Don Coryell 42). His 4-2 career postseason record is among the league leaders in winning percentage.
- Was rewarded with an extension on February 25, 2010 that keeps him under contract with the Cardinals through 2013 with a team option for 2014.
- Became the first coach in franchise history with a .500 record or better in each of his first three seasons (8-8 in 2007; 9-7 in 2008; 10-6 in 2009).
- Led the Cardinals to NFC West titles in 2008 and '09, the team's first back-to-back division crowns since 1974-75; also guided Arizona to its first NFC Championship and Super Bowl appearance.
- Under Whisenhunt, the Cards have an overall home record of 23-12, including a 3-0 postseason mark. In his four seasons as Cardinals head coach (2007-10), his teams have averaged 25.8 points per home game and scored 30+ points in 18 of 35 total home games.
- Arizona's 8-8 record in Whisenhunt's first season (2007) was its best since going 9-7 in 1998.
- The memorable 2008 season saw Arizona secure the franchise's first postseason appearance since '98 with a 9-7 mark, first division crown since '75 thanks to a 6-0 record within the NFC West, and first home playoff game since 1947. It ended with the franchise's first-ever conference title and Super Bowl appearance. Arizona's 12 total wins in '08 were the most in team history and the Cardinals won more postseason contests that January (3) than they had in their entire history (2).
- After their '08 Super Bowl season, the '09 Cardinals won 10 regular season games for the first time since 1976 with six of those wins coming on the road, the most since 1963. They also became just the 3rd NFL team since 1999 to return to the postseason after finishing as the Super Bowl runner-up the previous season.
- In 2007, Arizona set a franchise record for passing TDs in a season (32) and the team's point total of 404 was the second-highest in team history. In '08, the Cards offense was again explosive and scored a franchise record 427 total points. They added 188 more points in the postseason, the third-highest total in NFL postseason history. The 2009 AZ offense led the NFL in red zone scoring (70.4%) as well as red zone TD efficiency (65.1).
- Before coming to AZ, Whisenhunt spent the previous six seasons with the Steelers. For the first three he was tight ends coach and then was offensive coordinator for three, helping the team earn a victory in Super Bowl XL.
- Previously coached at the pro level with the Jets (2000), Browns (1999) and Ravens (1997-98); began his coaching career in the collegiate ranks with Vanderbilt (1995-96).
- Was selected in the 12th round of the 1985 NFL Draft by Atlanta; went on to play nine NFL seasons with the Falcons (1985-88), Redskins (1989-90), and Jets (1991-93).
- Entered Georgia Tech as a walk-on and finished career ranked second on the school's all-time receiving yardage list and fourth in career receptions; earned degree in civil engineering.

Whisenhunt was named Arizona's head coach on January 14, 2007 when he signed a four-year contract with a team option for a fifth. He enters 2011 with 36 total victories to rank third among the franchise's all-time head coaches (Jim Hanifan 39, Don Coryell 42) and has established himself as one of the top coaches in the National Football League. His 4-2 career postseason record is among the league leaders in winning percentage. Whisenhunt was rewarded with an extension on February 25, 2010 that keeps him under contract through 2013 with a team option for 2014.

Whisenhunt became the first coach in franchise history with a .500 record or better in each of his first three seasons (8-8 in 2007; 9-7 in 2008; 10-6 in 2009). In his first two years as head coach, the Cardinals posted a 12-4 regular season record at University of Phoenix Stadium (14-4 including postseason). Overall under Whisenhunt, the Cards have a home record of 23-12, including a 3-0 postseason mark; they have averaged 25.8 points per home game and scored 30+ points in 18 of 35 total home games. In 2009, they went 6-2 on the road, giving them their most road wins in a single season since 1963 (6); they opened the year with five straight road wins for the first time since 1948.

2010 SEASON: In a challenging season, the Cardinals suffered their first sub-.500 campaign since Whisenhunt took over as head coach and finished 5-11.

At season's end, his 36 total victories as head coach (including postseason) moved him into third place among the franchise's all-time coaches in career victories, trailing only Jim Hanifan (39) and Don Coryell (42).

With a 4-4 record at University of Phoenix Stadium in 2010, he joined Coryell (1974-77) as the franchise's only coaches to ever post four consecutive seasons with a home record of .500 or better. Under Whisenhunt, the Cards have an overall home record of 23-12, including a 3-0 postseason mark. In his four seasons as Cardinals head coach (2007-10), Whisenhunt's teams have averaged 25.8 points per home game and scored 30+ points in 18 of 35 total home games.

WHISENHUNT VISITS TROOPS OVERSEAS FOR NFL-USO TOUR

Head coach Ken Whisenhunt joined Texans head coach Gary Kubiak and former NFL head coaches Jim E. Mora (Saints, Colts) and Jim L. Mora (Falcons, Seahawks) for an NFL-USO tour to the Persian Gulf this summer. The NFL and USO have been sending players and coaches overseas to visit troops for 45 years.

Among the places Whisenhunt visited on the tour were Kuwait, Tikrit and Baghdad, where he spent time meeting with the troops, talking about football and about the soldier's experiences serving in the Gulf. During the trip, the coaches participated in a Fourth of July barbecue with the service men and women stationed in Iraq and an aerial tour of Baghdad in a Blackhawk helicopter. They also met with a group of special forces soldiers and experienced a mock combat landing in a C-130 airplane.

Whisenhunt has strong ties to the military. His father, brother and father-in-law all served in the Air Force, and during the trip Whisenhunt blogged about what is meant for him to be have the opportunity to meet with the troops. "Words can't express what soldiers go through or what their lives are like," Whisenhunt wrote while on the trip. "I certainly have a greater appreciation for the sacrifices they make to do their jobs and how they do them and what they are up against. If they get enjoyment out of seeing us, and they have expressed that, it means a lot to me. I do believe being a part of the NFL, this USO tour, making our servicemen and women happy, well, I am honored to be considered part of that."

Whisenhunt's visit to the Gulf marked the second time in the last three years that a member of the Cardinals organization participated in an NFL-USO tour. All-Pro WR Larry Fitzgerald was among a group of players who participated in a week-long trip to military bases throughout Iraq and Kuwait in 2009.

WHIS TO A TEE

As a native of Augusta, it is no surprise that Whisenhunt is also an avid golfer. Like many Augusta residents, he worked the Masters tournament as a teenager, handling the manual scoreboard on the 18th hole. He's had the opportunity to play the course on several occasions; the last time was in May of 2008 when he shot an even par 72 that included an eagle on the par four 11th hole. At one point he considered playing the sport professionally. After concluding his nine-year NFL playing career in 1993, Whisenhunt took a year off during which he played a lot, including an appearance at the 1994 U.S. Mid-Amateur at Hazeltine. His career-best score is a 65 and he has made two holes in one over the years. (That doesn't include another that came after his first ball went out of play, resulting in a three on the scorecard).

2009 SEASON: Led Arizona to 10-6 regular season record and second straight NFC West title, giving the Cards back-to-back division titles for the first time since 1974-75. It was the team's best regular season record since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978. It marked the first 10-win season for the franchise since 1976 and its sixth all-time.

The Cardinals avoided back-to-back losses in '09 marking the first time they've done that since 1975; they were also the only team to accomplish that in '09. The team posted a 6-2 road record in '09, their most since 1963 (6).With a win at St. Louis in week 11, the Cards rattled off five straight road wins in a season for the first time since 1948.

With a thrilling Wild Card win vs. Green Bay, the Cards improved to 4-0 all-time at home in postseason play and gave them back-to-back home playoff wins for the first time in franchise history.

2008 SEASON: After a solid inaugural campaign as head coach, Whisenhunt's second one resulted in the most successful season in team history. The Cardinals secured the franchise's first postseason appearance since 1998 with a 9-7 mark, first division crown since '75 thanks to a 6-0 record within the NFC West, and first home playoff game since 1947. That of course led to Arizona's first-ever conference title and Super Bowl appearance.

Arizona's 12 total wins in '08 were the most in team history and the Cardinals won more postseason contests in January (3) than they had in their entire history (2).

2007 SEASON: In his first year as an NFL head coach, Whisenhunt led Arizona to its best record in 10 years (8-8) and the team recorded a 6-2 mark at home, its best since 1976. Year one had its share of excitement and last-second finishes. Seven of the season's first eight games were decided by 7 points or fewer and in all, the Cardinals played an NFL-leading 12 games decided by eight or fewer (six by a field goal or less). Arizona's three-win improvement in '07 was the largest of any of the NFL's five teams with first-year head coaches that year.

In 2007, the Cardinals set a franchise record for passing TDs (32) and recorded the second-highest season point total in team history with 404 (423 in 1984).

COACHING CAREER:

Whisenhunt came to the Cardinals with 10 years of experience as an NFL assistant coach and also played nine seasons in the league as a tight end and H-Back.

Immediately before coming to Arizona, Whisenhunt served six seasons as an assistant on Bill Cowher's staff with the Pittsburgh Steelers. After three years as tight ends coach, he spent the 2005-07 seasons as Pittsburgh's offensive coordinator and helped the team to a victory over Seattle in Super Bowl XL.

In his first year as coordinator, the Steelers rushing attack improved from 31st to 2nd and the overall offense ranked 16th behind rookie QB Ben Roethlisberger. His second year ended with an NFL title after the Steelers offense averaged 26.8 points per game in the playoffs. Pittsburgh's 2006 offense ranked 7th overall (9th passing and 10th rushing).

Whisenhunt took over as Pittsburgh's offensive coordinator in 2004 when Mike Mularkey became head coach of the Bills. That was the same year the team drafted Roethlisberger and the rookie QB went on to set an NFL record with wins in his first 13 career starts en route to Offensive Rookie of the Year honors. The next season he became the youngest QB in NFL history to win a Super Bowl and finished third in the league in passer rating (98.6).

Whisenhunt joined the Steelers in January of 2001 as tight ends coach when Mularkey was elevated from that position to offensive coordinator. He previously coached at the pro level with the New York Jets (tight ends, 2000), Cleveland Browns (special teams, 1999) and Baltimore Ravens (tight ends, 1997-98). He began his coaching career in the collegiate ranks with Vanderbilt for two seasons (1995-96)

PLAYING CAREER:

Whisenhunt was drafted in the 12th round of the 1985 NFL Draft by Atlanta out of Georgia Tech. He went on to play nine NFL seasons with the Falcons (1985-88), Redskins (1989-90), and Jets (1991-93). In 74 career games (37 starts), he caught 62 passes for 601 yards and six touchdowns.

After going to Georgia Tech as a walk-on, he finished his college playing career ranked second on the Yellow Jackets' receiving yardage list (1,264 yards) and fourth in career receptions (82). He was a consensus All-ACC and honorable mention All-America selection as a senior in 1984 when he averaged 19.1 yards-per-catch.

PERSONAL:

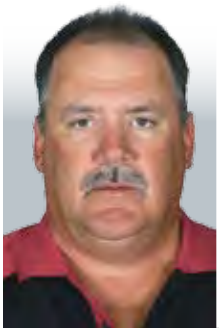

Born February 28, 1962 in Atlanta, GA, Whisenhunt was raised in Augusta and is a graduate of Richmond Academy. He earned a degree in Civil Engineering from Georgia Tech. Ken and his wife, Alice, have two children – son, Kenneth, Jr. and daughter Mary Ashley.

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE

NOTE CARDS

- Joined the Cardinals on 1/23/07 when he became the team's assistant head coach/offensive line.
- Selected to the seven-member Class of 2010 for the Pro Football Hall of Fame on 2/6/10. Was among the 15 finalists for the Hall of Fame in 2010 after being a finalist for the previous four years (2006-09).
- In 2008, his five offensive linemen started all 20 games during the season including Super Bowl XLIII.
- In 2007, Arizona's offensive line ranked sixth in the NFL by allowing only 24 sacks, the lowest total for the team since 1978 (22).
- Spent 20 seasons with the Washington Redskins, the first 11 as an all-pro lineman (1981-91) and then as an assistant coach for nine seasons (1992-2000)
- In his career, his teams have earned four Super Bowl victories. Three as a player (XVII, XXII and XXVI) and one as a coach (XL).
- Earned four consecutive Pro Bowl selections (1983-86) and was a first-team selection to the NFL's 1980's all-decade team.

Hall of Fame guard Russ Grimm begins his fifth season with the Cardinals as the assistant head coach/offensive line after joining the team on 1/23/07. Grimm spent his first two seasons as assistant head coach/offensive line and was given the additional title of run game coordinator the past two seasons. Previously with the Pittsburgh Steelers in the same capacity, Grimm is beginning his 20th season as an NFL assistant after playing 11 years at guard for the Washington Redskins. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August of 2010 after having been a finalist the previous four years (2006-09).

Grimm, 52, spent six seasons with the Steelers coaching with Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt before coming to Arizona. He joined the Steelers staff in 2001 as only the second offensive line coach in Bill Cowher's tenure and made an instant impact in developing Pittsburgh's offensive line. Grimm's value to the coaching staff was recognized by Cowher, who promoted Grimm to assistant head coach prior to the 2004 season, the only coach to hold that title under Cowher.

In 2009, the Cardinals finished with 16 rushing touchdowns, the highest team total since recording 18 in 1998. Rookie running back Beanie Wells rushed for 793 yards, the second most in the NFL among rookies and his seven touchdowns in 2009 were tied (Denver-Knowshon Moreno) for tops among rookie running backs. In 2008, Grimm's five offensive linemen started all 20 games during the regular season and postseason including Super Bowl XLIII. The offense finished with a top five ranking (4th overall) for the second consecutive season and rookie running back Tim Hightower set a franchise rookie mark with 10 rushing touchdowns.

Grimm made an immediate impact in his first season with Arizona in 2007. His offensive line allowed only 24 sacks, sixth best in the NFL and the fewest given up by the Cardinals since 1978 (22). Grimm's offensive line also paved the way for running back Edgerrin James to rush for 1,222 yards, the fifth best total in team history.

The 2006 Steelers offensive line helped pave the way for running back Willie Parker to gain 1,494 yards and 13 touchdowns on 337 carries (4.4 yard avg.) and earn his first Pro Bowl selection. Pittsburgh's offense finished the 2006 season with the 10th best rushing attack in the NFL, helping to give the Steelers the seventh ranked total offense in the league. Parker finished the season with the second and third top rushing performances of the year in the NFL with 223 rushing yards (32 att., TD) against Cleveland (12/7) and 213 yards (22 att., 2 TDs) vs. New Orleans (11/12).

Under Grimm's guidance in 2005, the Super Bowl champion Steelers averaged nearly 140 yards rushing per game during the regular season to rank fifth in the NFL while also grinding out 181 rushing yards in their Super Bowl XL victory over the Seattle Seahawks.

While in Pittsburgh, Grimm molded a formidable and tough offensive front anchored by All-Pro guard Alan Faneca, who earned his sixth trip to the Pro Bowl and his fifth consecutive start in 2007, and center Jeff Hartings, who made his second Pro Bowl appearance in 2006 and developed into one of the best centers in the NFL in just six seasons.

A native of Scottdale, PA, Grimm began his NFL coaching career as Washington's tight ends coach (1992-96) before moving to coach the Redskins offensive line for four seasons (1997-2000). He is credited with the development of Washington tackles Jon Jansen and five-time Pro Bowler Chris Samuels, who each earned starting spots as rookies on the Redskins' offensive line.

Grimm started 11 seasons at guard for the Redskins (1981-91) and helped lead the team to four Super Bowl appearances and three victories. He was voted to four consecutive Pro Bowls (1983-86), was a first-team selection to the 1980s all-decade team, and an original member of Washington's renowned "Hogs" offensive line. During his playing days with the Redskins, Grimm was a teammate of Whisenhunt (1989-90).

He was among the 17 finalists for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame for three consecutive years (2007-09) and among the 10 finalists in 2006.

An All-American center at Pitt who helped his team to a 22-2 record over his junior and senior seasons, Grimm was selected by the Redskins in the third round (69th overall) of the 1981 NFL Draft. His younger brother, Donn, was a starting linebacker on Notre Dame's 1988 national championship team and signed with the Cardinals as a rookie free agent in 1991.

Grimm punted, played quarterback and linebacker at Southmoreland High School while earning nine varsity letters and starring on the basketball team. He was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He has four children, Chad, an offensive assistant with the Cardinals, Cody, who was drafted by the Buccaneers in the seventh round of the 2010 NFL Draft and fraternal twins Devin and Dylan.

SUPER BOWL SUCCESS

Grimm has appeared in six Super Bowls in his 30 years in the NFL as a player and coach, including four championships.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NOTE CARDS

- Hired as defensive coordinator on 2/9/11 after working the past seven seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2004-10).
- 17-year NFL assistant who has also coached with the Detroit Lions, Cincinnati Bengals and Washington Redskins during his career.
- Helped Pittsburgh's defense rank in the top 10 in the NFL in total defense each of the past seven seasons, including finishing in the top five six times and as the league leader on three different occasions.
- Part of Pittsburgh staffs that made three Super Bowl trips in the last six seasons, including Super Bowl XLV. Owns two Super Bowl rings as a coach (Super Bowl XL, Super Bowl XLIII) and one more as a player (Super Bowl XXVII).
- Helped tutor 2010 AP Defensive Player of the Year and perennial All-Pro safety Troy Polamalu, who has been selected to six consecutive Pro Bowls.
- Played defensive back in the NFL for 10 seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals (1983-88) and Dallas Cowboys (1989-92).

Ray Horton enters his first season with the Cardinals as defensive coordinator after being hired on 2/9/11. Beginning his 18th year as an NFL assistant, Horton comes to Arizona after spending the past seven seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers, including the previous four years as the team's defensive backs coach.

Horton began his Steelers coaching tenure in 2004 as an assistant defensive backs coach and was promoted to defensive backs coach in 2007 after Mike Tomlin was hired. During his time in Pittsburgh, Horton served on staffs that made three Super Bowl trips over the past six seasons (Super Bowl XL, Super Bowl XLIII), including Super Bowl XLV last season.

Since Horton arrived in Pittsburgh in 2004, the Steelers ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in total defense each season, including finishing in the top five six times and as the league leader on three different occasions (2004, '07-08). He was instrumental in the development of 2010 AP Defensive Player of the Year and perennial All-Pro safety Troy Polamalu, who has been selected to six consecutive Pro Bowls (2005-10) and also was named a first-team All-Pro three different times (2005, 2008, 2010). Horton also helped develop cornerback Ike Taylor into a Pro Bowl type player as he had two interceptions to go along with 72 tackles and 11 passes defensed this past season as the team's number one cornerback.

While in Pittsburgh the past seven seasons, Horton coached under legendary defensive coordinator and Hall of Famer Dick LeBeau. His connection with LeBeau takes him back to when he entered the league as a player in 1983, as the Cincinnati Bengals and LeBeau drafted him out of the University of Washington. Horton played under LeBeau in Cincinnati for six seasons and also coached with LeBeau on the Bengals staff for five seasons before later reuniting with him with the Steelers in 2004.

Following a 10-year NFL career as a defensive back, Horton began his coaching career as a defensive assistant with the Washington Redskins in 1994. He was promoted to assistant defensive backs coach in 1995 where he coached for two seasons and worked with Hall of Famer Darrell Green.

He was hired to coach the Bengals defensive backs in 1997 where he remained for five seasons (1997-2001) until he was hired to coach the Detroit Lions secondary for two seasons (2002-03).

Horton was selected by the Bengals in the second round (53rd overall) of the 1983 NFL Draft out of Washington and spent six seasons there as a player. He signed with the Cowboys as a free agent in 1989 and spent four seasons in Dallas. He appeared in 147 career games (99 starts) and had 19 interceptions, five touchdowns, 11 fumble recoveries and five forced fumbles. He also appeared in two Super Bowls, playing in Super Bowl XXIII with Cincinnati and winning Super Bowl XXVII with Dallas in his final game as a player.

A native of Tacoma, WA, Horton earned All-America and All-Pac 10 honors at the University of Washington where he was a three-year starter (1980-82) and played in two Rose Bowls. He was an All-American at Mount Tacoma High School (Tacoma, WA). Horton has a daughter, Taylor and a son, Jarren.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NOTE CARDS

- Promoted to offensive coordinator on 2/16/11 after spending the past two seasons as the Cardinals passing game coordinator.
- Joined the Cardinals coaching staff in 2007 as an offensive assistant and was promoted to receivers coach that same season, before being promoted to passing game coordinator in 2009.
- Miller's top pupil, WR Larry Fitzgerald, has earned four consecutive Pro Bowl appearances (2007-10) and has twice led the NFC in receptions (2007-08) and receiving yards (2007-08) and also led the NFL in TD receptions in both 2008 and 2009.
- In 2008, three of Miller's players went over 1,000 receiving yards (Fitzgerald-1,431, Anquan Boldin-1,038, Steve Breaston-1,006) for the first time in team history and only the fifth time in NFL history.

Twelve-year NFL assistant Mike Miller begins his fifth season with the Cardinals and first as offensive coordinator after being promoted on 2/16/11. He spent the previous two seasons as passing game coordinator after working his first two years (2007-08) as the team's wide receivers coach. Miller joined the Cardinals on 2/6/07 as an offensive assistant and was promoted to receivers coach on 3/21/07. He came to Arizona after splitting 2006 between the Berlin Thunder (quarterbacks/receivers) of NFL Europe in the spring and Robert Morris University (defensive line) in the fall. The Cardinals are the third NFL franchise Miller has worked for as an assistant after previous jobs with the Buffalo Bills and Pittsburgh Steelers.

In Miller's two seasons as passing game coordinator, Larry Fitzgerald was selected to consecutive Pro Bowl appearances and went over 1,000 receiving yards each season. Last season, Fitzgerald had 90 catches for 1,137 yards and became the first player in NFL history to record 90+ receptions five times in their first seven seasons while also becoming one of just five NFL players in league history to record 90+ receptions in at least four consecutive seasons. In 2009, Miller helped guide quarterback Kurt Warner to 3,753 passing yards and 26 touchdown passes. Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin both eclipsed 1,000 receiving yards as Fitzgerald also tied for the league lead with 13 TD receptions, becoming the first player in franchise history to record 10+ touchdown receptions in three consecutive seasons (2007-09).

During his two seasons as wide receivers coach (2007-08), Boldin (160 receptions for 1,891 yards and 20 TDs) and Fitzgerald (196 receptions for 2,840 yards and 22 TDs) combined for 356 receptions and 4,731 yards to go along with 42 touchdowns. The duo also combined for three Pro Bowl appearances (Fitzgerald 2007-08, Boldin 2008). Fitzgerald led the NFC for two consecutive seasons in both receptions and receiving yards (96 receptions for 1,431 yards in 2008, 100 receptions for 1,409 yards in 2008) while also leading the NFL with 12 touchdowns in 2008. Even though Boldin missed four games due to various injuries in 2008, he still caught 89 passes for 1,038 yards and a career-high 11 touchdowns. Receiver Steve Breaston had career-highs with 77 receptions for 1,006 yards, giving the Cardinals three 1,000-yard receivers for the first time in team history and only the fifth time in NFL history. Arizona finished the season with NFL rankings of fourth in total offense and second in passing offense as quarterback Kurt Warner threw a franchise record 30 touchdown passes. In both of Miller's first two seasons with the Cardinals, the passing offense finished with a top five ranking in the NFL (5th in 2007).

Miller joined the Thunder in the spring of 2006 from the Buffalo Bills where he was quality control/tights ends coach in 2004 and tight ends coach in 2005. He previously served as an offensive assistant for four years with current Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt and assistant head coach/offensive line Russ Grimm with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1999-2003).

The Pittsburgh, PA native got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant coaching running backs at Robert Morris University (PA) for two seasons (1997-1998). He also worked as a public relations and operations intern with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1994-95) and Indianapolis Colts (1996). After attending Plum (PA) Senior High School, Miller received his bachelor's degree in Communications from Clarion University (PA) and his masters in Education from Robert Morris.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Veteran college assistant coach Ron Aiken enters his fifth season with the Cardinals after being hired to coach the defensive line on 2/14/07. Aiken joined the Cardinals after spending the previous eight seasons at the University of Iowa coaching the same position.

During his tenure with the Cardinals, Aiken has helped tutor defensive tackle Darnell Dockett to three Pro Bowl selections (2007, 2009-10) including the past two seasons. Dockett led all NFL defensive tackles with seven sacks in 2009 after previously leading the Cardinals and all NFL interior defensive linemen with nine sacks in 2007 when he tied the franchise record for sacks in a season by a defensive tackle (Mark Smith). Aiken has also helped in the development of third-year defensive end Calais Campbell who led the Cardinals in 2010 with six sacks and tied for the team lead with Dockett with seven sacks in 2009.

Named the 2002 American Football Coaches Association Division I Assistant Coach of the Year with the Hawkeyes, Aiken joined Iowa's staff in 1999 and helped lead the Hawkeyes to six straight bowl appearances (2001-06). His defensive line finished the 2005 season ranking 29th nationally in rush defense (126 yards per game) and 22nd in scoring defense (20 points per game), finishing third in the Big Ten in both categories and fourth in total defense.

Future pros he coached while at Iowa include current Cards defensive end Kenny Iwebema, two-time Pro Bowl selection (2006-07) Aaron Kampman (Jacksonville), defensive end Derreck Robinson (Cleveland), nose tackle Colin Cole (Seattle), defensive end Matt Roth (Cleveland), and defensive tackle Jonathan Babineaux (Atlanta).

Iowa led the Big Ten in rushing defense in 2004 and the Hawkeyes were fifth nationally in rushing defense, sixth in turnover margin and 11th in total defense. Their rushing defense ranked second in the Big Ten for three straight years before leading the league in 2004. The Hawkeyes were fifth in the nation against the run (81.9) in 2002, seventh in 2003 (92.7) and fifth again in 2004 (92.5).

Prior to joining the Hawkeyes, Aiken spent the 1998 season coaching linebackers at San Diego State where all three of his linebackers earned all-conference honors. He was at the University of Texas coaching defensive tackles in 1997, worked with the defensive line at Vanderbilt from 1995-96 and was at New Mexico coaching linebackers and defensive ends from 1991-94.

Aiken was the head coach at Langston (OK) from 1986-90 where his teams led the nation (NAIA) in total defense in two of his four seasons. He was a special teams coordinator at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 1985, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Tarkio College from 1982-84 and he coached the offensive line and special teams at Bethany College from 1980-81. Aiken began his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Boiling Springs (SC) High School and in 1979 became head coach at Greensville County (VA) High School.

A graduate of North Carolina A&T, Aiken earned all-conference honors while playing guard and center for the Aggies (1973-76) and was a team captain in 1976.

He earned his bachelor's degree in History from North Carolina A&T in 1977 and a masters degree in Secondary Education from The Citadel in 1982. He and his wife, Sheryl, have three sons, Matthew, Stephen and Joshua.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Sigismondo "Louie" Cioffi (CHO-fee) is entering his 17th season as an NFL assistant and first with the Cardinals after being hired to coach defensive backs on 2/14/11. Cioffi comes to the Cardinals after spending the last 14 seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals, including the last eight as an assistant defensive backs coach.

Cioffi spent the past eight seasons working mostly with the Bengals safeties, including the 2009 season when the Cincinnati defense ranked fourth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (301.4 per game), sixth in fewest passing yards allowed (203.1) and sixth in fewest average points allowed (18.2). The pass defense ranking was Cincinnati's highest since 1993.

During Cioffi's tenure with the defensive backs in Cincinnati (2003-10), the Bengals collected 150 interceptions, the fifth-highest total in the NFL during that span (Baltimore, Green Bay, New England, Chicago) and 125 of them were by defensive backs.

Cioffi spent his first six seasons with the Bengals as a defensive assistant after joining the staff in 1997 when he was hired by head coach Bruce Coslet. Coaching at the age of 23, Cioffi was the youngest full-time assistant coach in the NFL at that time. From 1997-2001 in Cincinnati, Cioffi worked alongside current Cardinals defensive coordinator Ray Horton and current Steelers defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau.

While in Cincinnati, Cioffi became very proficient in computer work, and in addition to his on-field duties with players, he handled much of the preparation work for the entire defense on the team's upcoming opponent.

He began his coaching career in 1993 as a staff assistant with the New York Jets as a 20-year old under Coslet, with duties that included assembling playbooks and running video printers on game days. Following two seasons (1993-94) with the Jets, Cioffi coached wide receivers for two seasons (1995-96) at C.W. Post University in Brookville, NY. The 1996 team won the ECAC Division II Championship.

Cioffi was born in Queens, N.Y. and attended college at SUNY-Stony Brook. Along with his wife, Cindy, and the couple has two daughters, Cecilia Elle and Corrine, and a son, Sigismondo Connor.

Chad Grimm enters his third season with the Cardinals as an offensive quality control coach after joining the team on 3/2/09.

Born in Fairfax, VA, Grimm played four seasons (2003-06) at Virginia Tech as a backup linebacker and special teams performer where he appeared in 16 career games. After playing in eight games as a freshman on special teams, Grimm appeared in one as a sophomore, four as a junior and three as a senior.

Grimm lettered for three seasons as an outside linebacker and long snapper at Oakton High School (Vienna, VA). He collected over 100 tackles and 5.5 sacks during his senior season including notching 10 tackles, a sack, and a blocked punt that was returned for a touchdown in the regional championship game. He was also an all-district player and state champion in lacrosse at Oakton.

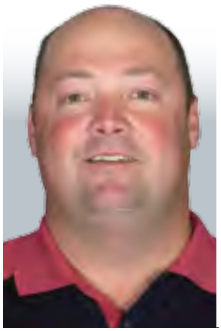

Grimm's father, Russ, is an assistant coach with the Cardinals and Hall of Fame offensive lineman who played 11 seasons with the Washington Redskins (1981-91). His brother Cody is a safety for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and was selected in the seventh round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

TIGHT ENDS

Tight ends coach Freddie Kitchens enters his fifth season on the Cardinals coaching staff and sixth in the NFL after he was hired by Arizona on 2/6/07. He began his NFL coaching career in 2006 with the Dallas Cowboys after seven years of collegiate coaching experience following a successful stint as a quarterback at the University of Alabama. In 10 years as a player and coach at the college level, Kitchens was a part of teams that captured three conference titles and played in seven bowl games.

Kitchens' tight ends in 2007 (Leonard Pope, Ben Patrick, Troy Bienemann) helped the Cardinals finish with the fifth best passing offense in the NFL as well as helping to record 32 passing touchdowns, a franchise record. As a group, the eight touchdowns caught by the tight ends were the most since 1988 and the trio also recorded six red zone touchdowns, helping the Cardinals to the second-best red zone scoring offense in the NFL (94.0%).

With Dallas in 2006, Kitchens helped tutor Pro Bowl tight end Jason Witten to his third consecutive trip to Hawaii. Witten finished the season with 64 receptions for 754 yards (11.8 yard avg.) and one touchdown while starting in all 16 games.

Kitchens came to Dallas after a two-year stint at Mississippi State University where he coached running backs (2005) and tight ends (2004). In 2005, he guided Jerious Norwood, a 2006 third-round NFL Draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons, to a 1,180-yard season, becoming just the second runner to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in school history. Norwood finished his Bulldogs career with a school-record 3,222 career rushing yards. In his first season on the Bulldogs staff in 2004, Kitchens helped implement the West Coast offense that gained tight end Eric Butler All-SEC freshman recognition while setting a Mississippi State single-season record with four touchdown receptions from his tight end position.

He served as the running backs coach at the University of North Texas from 2001-03 and contributed to Mean Green clubs that won three straight Sun Belt Conference titles. In 2003, running back Patrick Cobbs rushed for 1,680 yards and scored 19 touchdowns, earning the Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year award while also leading the nation with a 152.7 yards per game average. During his previous two seasons, Kitchens developed Kevin Galbreath into the first back in school history to rush for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. The 2,372 yards gained on the ground in 2002 were the most at North Texas since 1959.

Kitchens joined the North Texas staff after one season as a graduate assistant at LSU (2000) where he served on Nick Saban's first Tiger staff, managing the offensive scout team and helping with special teams. That team went 9-4, including a 28-14 win over Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. After a one-year stint playing professionally in Italy in the spring of 1999, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Glenville State College that fall, coaching both running backs and tight ends.

A three-year starter at quarterback for the University of Alabama (1995-97), Kitchens finished his playing career with 4,668 yards and 30 touchdown passes for the Crimson Tide. Upon his departure, he ranked third in Alabama history in career attempts, fourth in career passing yards and fifth in career completions. Alabama went 22-13 during those three seasons and went to the 1993 Gator Bowl, 1994 Citrus Bowl, and the 1996 Outback Bowl.

A native of Gadsden, AL, Kitchens earned high school All-America honors and was named Mr. Football in the state of Alabama his senior season. He and his wife, Ginger, have two daughters: Bennett and Camden.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

John Lott, a 15-year NFL assistant, enters his fifth season as the Cardinals strength and conditioning coach after being hired on 1/19/07. Previously with the Cleveland Browns (2005-06) prior to joining Arizona, Lott served in the same capacity with the New York Jets for eight years (1997-2004) where he worked with current Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt in 2000.

A native of Denton, TX, Lott has earned a reputation as one of the NFL's most demanding strength and conditioning coaches, consistently challenging the players with off-the-field preparation both during the season and off-season. A fixture at the NFL scouting combine each year in Indianapolis, Lott was recognized in February of 2009 at the combine as the Cybex Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society. He was also honored as the 2001 Powermag All-NFL Team Top Strength Coach by Power Magazine.

During his first season in Arizona, Lott was responsible for overseeing the redesign of the team's weight room. The weight room was completely made over during a six-week span at the cost of several hundred thousand dollars to update equipment and the overall look.

Lott's programs stress Olympic movements, as well as strength and speed development, and he has also devised strict individual in-season programs to help the players increase their overall stamina and endurance.

He originally joined the Jets in 1997 after serving as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Houston for six years (1991-96) where he supervised the strength and conditioning program for all 14 varsity sports with a primary focus on football, men's basketball, men's and women's track and field and the nationally ranked men's golf team. During his tenure at Houston, Lott designed and oversaw the construction of a state-of-the-art 17,000-square foot weight room (the largest in the country at the time of its completion).

Prior to his work at Houston, Lott served two years (1989-90) in the same capacity at his alma mater, the University of North Texas, overseeing all 11 varsity sports programs as the school's first strength coach. Lott has a strong track background, having worked as the strength and conditioning coach of the Santa Monica Track Club and trained Olympic gold medalists Carl Lewis, Leroy Burrell and Mike Marsh. Lott also worked with the 1992 and 1996 Indonesian National track teams, as well as with select members of the Japanese National track team in preparation for the Olympics in 1992 and 1996. Overall, the athletes he tutored garnered six world records and 12 Olympic medals.

He played for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1987 under head coach Chuck Noll and went to training camp with the New York Jets in 1988. Lott was a standout offensive lineman at North Texas where he earned four varsity letters and was named All-Conference twice and All-America his senior year. He was twice voted "Most Dedicated" and was twice voted a team captain by his teammates and graduated as the strongest man in school history.

Lott earned his bachelor's degree in Corporate Fitness in 1988 with minors in Biology and Kinesiology and later earned his master's degree in Physical Education from Crescent City Christian College in 1990. He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Texas in 1988. He also appeared in a minor role in the film Necessary Roughness, which was shot on the North Texas campus. Lott and his wife Kim have a son, Jasper Ryan, and a daughter, Kaitlyn Grace.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Ninth-year NFL assistant John McNulty begins his third season with the Cardinals as wide receivers coach after being hired on 2/18/09. McNulty came to Arizona after working the previous five seasons at Rutgers, coaching the last three seasons as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks after originally joining the staff as the wide receivers coach in 2004. McNulty has previously worked in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars (1998-2002) and Dallas Cowboys (2003).

McNulty's top pupil, Larry Fitzgerald, had another standout season in 2010 as he collected 90 receptions for 1,137 yards and was selected to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl. He became the franchise all-time receptions leader and has 613 for his career. Fitzgerald also became the first player in NFL history to record 90+ receptions five times in their first seven seasons last year. Under McNulty's guidance, Fitzgerald had an NFL-high 13 receiving touchdowns in 2009 and became the first receiver in franchise history with four consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons (2007-10) in addition to becoming the first player in Cardinals history with three straight seasons of 10+ touchdown receptions (2007-09).

McNulty began his tenure at Rutgers in 2004 as the wide receivers coach before taking on the duties of assistant offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2006. That same season, McNulty took over the play calling duties and the Scarlet Knights finished the season ranked 12th in the country with an 11-2 record. The following season, McNulty was promoted to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks and Rutgers set school records for total offense (5,841 yards), points scored (421) and first downs (295). They also became the first team in NCAA history to have a 3,000-yard passer (Mike Teal-3,147 yards), a 2,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice-2,069 yards), and two 1,000-yard receivers (Kenny Britt-1,232, Tiquan Underwood-1,100 yards). During McNulty's five seasons at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights posted a record of 38-24 and won three consecutive bowl games while he was in charge of play calling.

Prior to joining Rutgers, McNulty spent six seasons in the NFL, the first five in Jacksonville as an offensive quality control coach (1998-2000) and wide receivers coach (2000-02). In Jacksonville, McNulty worked with one of the NFL's top receiving tandems in Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell. During the 2000-01 seasons, the pair combined for 390 receptions and 4,903 yards, while Smith earned All-Pro honors both years. In 2002, Smith had 80 receptions for 1,027 yards, his seventh consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season. McNulty helped Jacksonville to playoff appearances in 1998 (11-5 record) and in 1999 (14-2 record).

McNulty then spent the 2003 season with the Dallas Cowboys as the wide receivers coach as the Cowboys went 10-6 and earned a playoff berth.

Before making the jump to the NFL, McNulty spent three seasons (1995-97) at Connecticut working with wide receivers and special teams. At UConn, McNulty helped wide receiver Carl Bond earn Division I-AA All-America honors in 1997.

McNulty was a safety at Penn State (1988-90) and was a member of two Nittany Lion bowl teams. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the wide receivers at the University of Michigan in 1991. Michigan won two Big Ten titles and appeared in four bowl games including two Rose Bowl appearances during his time in Ann Arbor. In 1994, McNulty worked with standout wide receivers and future NFL players Amani Toomer and Mercury Hayes.

After attending Abington Heights High School (Clarks Summit, PA), McNulty received his bachelor's degree in Business Management from Penn State in 1990. McNulty and wife Kim reside in Phoenix with daughters: Abigail, Allison, Megan, and Kaitlyn.

QUARTERBACKS

Former NFL quarterback Chris Miller begins his third season with the Cardinals as quarterbacks coach after being hired on 2/18/09. A veteran player of 10 years in the league with three different teams (Atlanta Falcons 1987-93, St. Louis Rams 1994-95, Denver Broncos 1999), Miller is a former first-round draft choice (13th overall) by the Atlanta Falcons in the 1987 NFL Draft out of the University of Oregon.

In Miller's first season with the Cardinals in 2009, he worked with quarterback Kurt Warner who finished that season with 3,753 passing yards and 26 TD passes, becoming the first quarterback in team history to throw for 20+ touchdown passes and +3,000 passing yards in three consecutive years.

Miller spent seven seasons as a player with the Falcons before signing with the Rams as an unrestricted free agent in 1994. He sat out of football for three years due to medical advice following concussions, but returned in 1999 with the Broncos for one season before finishing his career. A former teammate of Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt while in Atlanta, Miller was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 1991 season when he threw for 3,103 yards and 26 TDs for Atlanta. He also played in two postseason games for the Falcons in 1991 and threw for 469 yards and three touchdowns.

He finished his NFL career with 1,580 completions on 2,892 attempts for 19,320 yards and 123 touchdowns in 98 games played (92 starts). He also threw for nine 300-yard games in his career.

Following his playing days, Miller served as an assistant coach at Sheldon High School, Churchill High School and Marist High School before being named the head coach of South Eugene High School (Eugene, OR) in 2002. Miller led South Eugene to four straight playoff appearances after the school had 11 consecutive losing seasons prior to his arrival. He coached there for five years (2002-06) until getting out of football and serving as the executive director of Kidsports, a youth sports organization which provides athletic opportunities in soccer, football, volleyball, basketball, baseball, and softball for children from preschool through high school.

During that time, Miller gained NFL coaching experience with the Cardinals as a coaching intern under Whisenhunt during Arizona's training camp in the summer of 2007.

At Oregon, Miller broke 13 school records held by NFL greats Dan Fouts, Bob Berry, and Norm Van Brocklin. As a senior, Miller set school marks for passing yards (2,503), completions (216), completion percentage (60.7), and total offense (2,549). He became the first Pac-10 quarterback to earn back-to-back first-team all conference honors (1985-86) since Jim Plunkett at Stanford (1969-70) accomplished the feat. Miller finished his career with 6,681 passing yards, 42 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns. He was named the MVP of the Hula Bowl and was the Offensive Player of the Game in the 1987 Senior Bowl prior to being drafted.

An All-State prep player in football, basketball and baseball at Sheldon High School (Eugene, OR), Miller led the Irish to an 8-1 record and trip to the AAA playoffs as a senior. A former Punt, Pass, and Kick finalist at age eight, Miller was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays in 1983 and the Seattle Mariners in 1985. He played shortstop for Bellingham of the Northwest League in 1986 and batted .556. Miller was inducted into the University of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1999, the state of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 2004 and Sheldon High School's Hall of Honor in 2008.

Miller and his wife Lori have six children, daughters Jessie and McKayla, and sons Dillon, Mitchell, Matthew, and Michael.

CARDINALS "HELP FEED THE HUNGRY"

Last November, Arizona Cardinals players and their wives, front office personnel, and family members once again served Thanksgiving dinner at the Phoenix Rescue Mission to "Help Feed the Hungry" to celebrate the Thanksgiving holiday.

Owner Bill Bidwill, team President Michael Bidwill, a group of 10 Cardinal players, Dreama (Rod) Graves, Alice (Ken) Whisenhunt and other wives from the Arizona Cardinals Women's Club joined Cardinals Cheerleaders, team mascot Big Red and team employees to serve dinner at the Phoenix Rescue Mission. The group also signed autographs, posed for pictures and handed out Cardinals gear.

"We are all so blessed, anyone in the NFL," kicker Jay Feely said. "The fact there people that are hungry in our country on a daily basis, it hits home when you can just give them a meal."

It benefits both sides, Michael Bidwill said.

"It's important we give back every year," Bidwill said. "It's a humbling experience. You see people on the edges of society right now, having tough economic times and probably the most painful thing is seeing the young families, young kids. It's nice to be able to give back and hope we made their day, their holiday a little brighter."

Matt Raich enters his fifth season with the Cardinals and third as linebackers coach after being promoted on 2/18/09. He joined the Cardinals on 2/6/07 and served his first two seasons as a defensive assistant, helping with the linebackers prior to his promotion. Previously an offensive assistant under current Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt with the Pittsburgh Steelers for three seasons (2004-06), Raich switched to the defensive side of the ball with the Cardinals, helping to coach the position he played in college.

In 2010, Raich guided inside linebacker Paris Lenon to a career season as the ninth-year NFL veteran had a team-high 127 tackles, two interceptions, two sacks, and 12 tackles for loss. Raich was also instrumental in the development of second-round choice Daryl Washington and fourth-round selection O'Brien Schofield, who combined to start 12 games as rookies.

Raich joined the Steelers coaching staff prior to the 2004 season after spending two years as an intern in the Pittsburgh player personnel department.

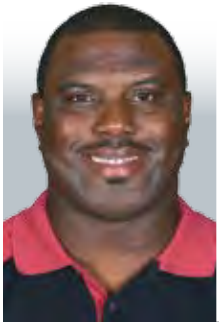

Prior to joining the Steelers scouting department in 2002, Raich served three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Robert Morris (2000-02). He also held assistant coaching positions at Glenville State (1999), Robert Morris (1996-98) and Westminster (1993-94). In addition, he served as the defensive coordinator for the Hildesheim Invaders Football Club in the German Federal League in the spring of 1999.

A Monaca, PA native, Raich was a standout middle linebacker at Westminster College (PA) from 1989-1992 and a member of Titans 1989 NAIA National Championship team. He was a three-time NAIA All-American and ended his career as the school's all-time leading tackler. Raich graduated from Westminster in 1994 with a bachelor's in Education and was inducted into the Titans Sports Hall of Fame in 2002.

Raich and his wife, Amanda, reside in Ahwatukee.

RUNNING BACKS

Veteran collegiate assistant Tommie Robinson enters his second season with the Cardinals and fifth in the NFL after being hired as running backs coach on 2/5/10. A 16-year collegiate assistant who coached in eight bowl games, Robinson joined the Cardinals last year after working the previous three seasons as running backs coach for the University of Miami (FL).

Robinson joined the Hurricanes after working in 2006 as the running backs coach for the University of Memphis. Prior to joining Memphis, Robinson coached four seasons at Georgia Tech where he worked as an assistant under current Buffalo Bills head coach Chan Gailey, for whom he played for at Troy State. At Georgia Tech, Robinson coached wide receivers for one season (2002) before tutoring tight ends for the next three seasons (2003-05). During the 2002 season, he worked with standout wide receivers Kerry Watkins and Will Glover, who both finished their careers among the top-five receivers in Georgia Tech history. He also helped tutor future NFL tight ends John Paul Foschi and Darius Williams. He spent the 2001 season as running backs coach at Oklahoma State where he worked with future NFL running back Tatum Bell.

Prior to coaching at Oklahoma State, Robinson spent three seasons in the NFL as an offensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys coaching under Gailey. With the Cowboys, Robinson worked with the team's wide receivers as well as helping out with special teams. While in Dallas, he worked with future Hall of Famers Michael Irvin, Emmitt Smith, and Troy Aikman. Before joining the Cowboys, Robinson spent time working with the running backs at UNLV (1998), four seasons coaching wide receivers at TCU (1994-97) and two years at Utah State (1992-93) coaching running backs.

Following his collegiate playing days, Robinson coached at Woodham High School (Pensacola, FL) in 1986-87 and at his alma mater Central High School (Phenix City, AL) from 1987-90 before taking his first college job as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1991.

Throughout his various college stops, Robinson received plenty of experience in the NFL as he served four different minority coaching internships with the New Orleans Saints, St. Louis Rams, Dallas Cowboys, and Miami Dolphins.

A native of Phenix City, AL, Robinson played for Gailey at Troy State where he was part of the 1984 Division II National Championship team. He was a three-year starter at strong safety for the Trojans and served as team captain.

Robinson earned his bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from Troy State in 1985. He and his wife, Lartonyar, have three children, sons Dantrell and Trey and daughter, Tawanda.

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Ryan Slowik enters his third season with the Cardinals as defensive quality control coach assisting with the team's linebackers after joining the organization on 3/2/09. The seventh-year NFL assistant came to the Cardinals in 2009 after working four seasons with the Denver Broncos. Slowik joined the Broncos in 2005 as a defensive assistant and worked two seasons in that capacity before working as a special teams assistant in 2007 and as the assistant defensive backs coach in 2008.

In 2007, Slowik assisted veteran NFL special teams coach Scott O'Brien in the instruction of Denver's special teams. Broncos kicker Jason Elam became the first kicker since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to convert four walk-off, game winning field goals in the same season with two in regulation and two in overtime. In 2005-06, Slowik worked closely with the Broncos defensive backs as cornerback Champ Bailey was the runner-up for NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2006 after tying for the NFL lead with 10 interceptions and leading the league with 11 takeaways.

In 2005, Denver's secondary totaled 20 interceptions, the most by the team in four years. Bailey was named first-team All-Pro and joined safety John Lynch in being selected to the Pro Bowl.

A former strong safety in college at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh (2002-03), Slowik began his playing career at Youngstown State before transferring to UW-Oshkosh.

Slowik worked as an assistant secondary coach for UW-Oshkosh in 2004. His secondary played a key role in the Titans posting the ninth best turnover margin in Division III that season.

Slowik's father, Bob, is a 19-year NFL assistant who currently is the defensive backs coach for the Washington Redskins.

Slowik was born in Gainesville, FL and attended Adlai Stevenson (Lincolnshire, IL) High School. He and his wife, Valerie, have a son, Tye and a daughter, Averie.

SPECIAL TEAMS

NFL coaching veteran Kevin Spencer begins his fifth season with the Cardinals and 21st year in the league after being hired to coach special teams on 1/19/07. Previously with the Pittsburgh Steelers for five seasons (2002-06), Spencer was selected as the 2003 NFL "Special Teams Coach of the Year" by the league's special teams coaches.

Last season, kicker Jay Feely had his third consecutive 100-point season (107) and totaled 25 points (TD, 5 FGs, 4 PATs) in the week 14 game against Denver, the second highest point total by a kicker in NFL history (Rob Bironas-26). Kick returner LaRod Stephens-Howling returned two kickoffs for touchdowns (102, 96 yards) and led the NFL with 1,542 KOR yards while his 27.2 yard average was the fourth best in the league.

In 2009, punter Ben Graham tied the NFL record with 42 punts inside the 20-yard line and kicker Neil Rackers made an NFL best 94.7 percent of his field goal attempts. Graham and special teams captain Sean Morey were both named Pro Bowl first alternates and rookie Stephens-Howling led the team with 23 special teams tackles in addition to returning a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown.

In 2008, Morey was selected to his first Pro Bowl after leading the unit with 22 tackles. One of the Cardinals more memorable highlights of the 2008 season came via Morey as he blocked a Mat McBriar punt in overtime against the Dallas Cowboys which was returned three yards by Monty Beisel for the victory. Rackers completed his franchise record fourth consecutive season of over 100 points as he collected 119 for the season which was good for second in team history behind only his 140 he had in 2005.

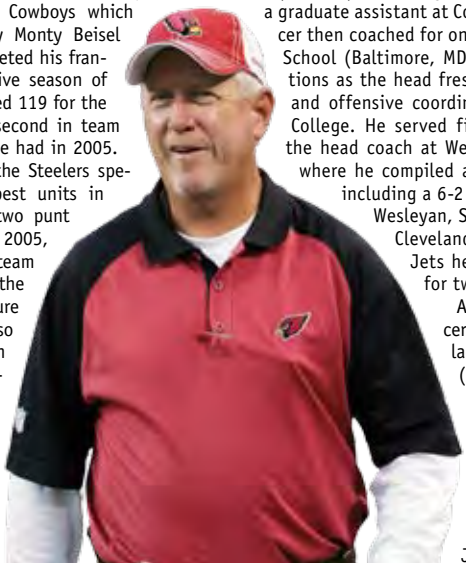

In 2005, Spencer guided the Steelers special teams to one of the best units in the NFL. Pittsburgh posted two punt returns for touchdowns in 2005, marking the second time the team accomplished the feat over the course of his five-year tenure with the Steelers. The unit also ranked as one of the best in net punting average, allowing a 34.5 average for 4th in the AFC.

Steelers punt returner Antwaan Randle El set a team record with four punt returns for touchdowns during his time with the Steelers (2002-05) while kicker Jeff Reed's 80.0% (112 of 140) career field goal percentage under Spencer was good for second in team history (Norm Johnson, 82.7%). Reed kicked five game winning field goals during his time with Spencer.

Prior to joining the Steelers in 2002, Spencer spent four seasons in the same capacity with the Indianapolis Colts (1998-2001). While at Indianapolis, Spencer worked with Colts kicker Mike Vanderjagt, regarded as one of the premiere kickers in the NFL. In 2001, Vanderjagt ranked 1st in the AFC in scoring (125 points) and 2nd in the NFL (127, Jeff Wilkins, St. Louis). During the 2000 season, Vanderjagt connected on 25-of-27 field goals to rank 2nd in the AFC in scoring and tied for 5th in the NFL with 121 points. Under Spencer's guidance, Vanderjagt was the first player in Colts history to post four straight 100+ point seasons.

Spencer also served three seasons with the Oakland Raiders as the special teams and quality control coach (1995), assistant linebackers coach (1996) and a defensive assistant (1997). He started his NFL coaching career in 1991 as a coaching assistant with the Cleveland Browns.

The Queens, NY native began his coaching career in 1975 as a graduate assistant at the State University of New York where he coached wrestling and lacrosse. He coached at Detroit Country Day High School (1976-79) in Birmingham, MI, before becoming a graduate assistant at Cornell (1979-80). Spencer then coached for one season at the Gilman School (Baltimore, MD) before holding positions as the head freshman coach (1981-85) and offensive coordinator (1986) at Ithaca College. He served five years (1987-91) as the head coach at Wesleyan (CT) University where he compiled a 14-26 overall record, including a 6-2 mark in 1990. While at Wesleyan, Spencer coached former Cleveland Browns and New York Jets head coach Eric Mangini for two seasons (1989-90).

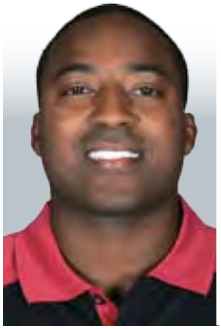

As a collegian, Spencer played football and lacrosse at Springfield (MA) College from 1972-75 and earned a master's degree from SUNY-Cortland in 1976.

Spencer and his wife, Rosemarie, have two sons: Timothy and Jack.

Former NFL cornerback Deshea Townsend begins his coaching career with the Cardinals as assistant defensive backs coach after being hired on 2/10/11. A 13-year NFL veteran who played with the Indianapolis Colts (2010) and Pittsburgh Steelers (1998-2009) during his career, Townsend will assist defensive backs coach Louie Cioffi and work with the team's cornerbacks and nickel backs.

During his playing career, Townsend appeared in 191 career games (80 starts) and collected 428 tackles (359 solos), 21 interceptions, 15.5 sacks, three touchdowns, five fumble recoveries and four forced fumbles. He also played in 14 postseason games (seven starts) with Pittsburgh and had 42 tackles, two interceptions, one sack and one forced fumble.

Townsend played in eight games last season for the Colts and had nine tackles on defense and two special teams stops. He won two Super Bowl rings as a player with the Steelers at Super Bowl XL and at Super Bowl XLIII as his position coach at the time was current Cardinals defensive coordinator Ray Horton. Townsend had his best season with Pittsburgh in 2004 when he started 15 games and had 59 tackles, four interceptions and four sacks.

He was a four-year starter (1994-97) at Alabama and earned first-team All-SEC honors following his junior season in 1996. He entered the NFL with the Steelers as a fourth-round pick (117th overall) in the 1998 NFL Draft.

Born in Batesville, MS, Townsend played both offense and defense at South Panola High School (Batesville, MS) and accounted for 1,800 yards of offense and 18 touchdowns as a senior while leading the school to the 5A state championship game in 1992.

HOMETOWN

SCOUT

Kyle Johnson begins his second season with the Cardinals after joining the team's scouting department in May, 2010. He began his scouting career with Arizona after a six-year NFL playing career as a fullback with the Denver Broncos (2002-07) where he appeared in 45 regular season games (24 starts) and two postseason contests. His primary area of responsibility is scouting the northeast region of the country while also serving as the Cardinals representative with the National Football Scouting service.

Johnson was drafted by the Carolina Panthers in the fifth-round (145th overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft out of Syracuse. He was released by Carolina and appeared with the practice squads of the New York Giants and Detroit Lions in his rookie season before signing with the Broncos. During his tenure with the Broncos, Johnson helped block for three different 1,000-yard rushers as a three-year starter and ranked second in the NFL in 2005 among running backs with five receiving touchdowns. He also served at the Broncos representative with the NFL Players Association from 2005-07.

He finished his NFL career with nine carries for 39 yards and one touchdown, 33 receptions for 323 yards and eight touchdowns, and 16 special teams tackles.

Johnson was a two-time captain (2000-01) and a three-time All-Big East Conference Academic selection while at Syracuse and finished his career with 101 carries for 466 yards (4.6 yard avg.) with eight touchdowns and 13 receptions for 116 yards (8.9 yard avg.) and two touchdowns. He was a nine-time member of the Athletic Director's Honor Roll at Syracuse and was named the Big East Scholar Athlete of the Year in 2001-02. He also served as the President of the Student Athletic Council from 1998-2001.

Johnson graduated from Syracuse with a bachelor's degree in communications in 2000 and then received a Master's of Business Administration from Syracuse in 2008.

SCOUT

Luke Palko begins his third season with Arizona and fifth in the NFL after being hired by the team's scouting department in June, 2009. Brother of current Kansas City Chiefs and former Cardinals quarterback Tyler Palko, Luke joined the Cardinals after interning with the Pittsburgh Steelers player personnel department for two seasons (2007-08). With the Cardinals, Palko's primary area of responsibility is scouting the central and southeast regions of the country.

An Imperial, PA native, Palko was a wide receiver for Saint Francis (Pa.) where he finished his collegiate career as the second leading receiver in school and conference history with 225 receptions for 2,020 yards and 18 touchdowns. He set the school's single-season record with 85 receptions for 812 yards and seven touchdowns as a junior in 2005. He also served as the team's punter as a junior and senior.

The West Allegheny High School graduate became only the third-student athlete in school history to earn ESPN the Magazine First-Team Academic All-American honors in 2005. He was also named the Northeast Conference's Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2006 and earned a spot on the Division I-AA Athletics Director's Association Academic All-Star Team and the conference academic honor roll twice. In addition, Palko was one of 17 collegiate football players selected as a 2006 National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame National Scholar-Athlete. As part of the honor, Palko was awarded an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship and was also a finalist for the William V. Campbell trophy.

Palko's father, Bob, has coached high school and college for the past 29 years. Now at West Allegheny, he has complied over 150 wins, five W.P.I.A.L championships and a class AAA state title in 2001.

Palko graduated from Saint Francis with a bachelor's degree in Accounting in 2007 and resides in Dallas, TX.

Jim "The Machine" Shearer enters his 38th year with the Cardinals, assisting in all aspects of the training and medical areas. Shearer has been on the field for 745 NFL games, including preseason and postseason since joining the Cardinals in 1974.

This past February, Shearer was honored as the inaugural recipient of the "Tim Davey Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year" award from the Pro Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS). The award was presented at the NFL Scouting Combine in Indianapolis, IN and named after former NFL executive Tim Davey.

Shearer, along with fellow assistant Jeff Herndon, and former head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a bachelor's degree in Physical Education, Shearer worked in Gillette, WY as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer at Gillette High School before returning to Wyoming as a graduate assistant trainer in 1973–74.

Born in Worland, WY, Shearer and his wife, Nelma, have a son, Christopher, and a daughter, Sarah. The family resides in Tempe, AZ.

JIM SHEARER NAMED NFC ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER OF THE YEAR

Cardinals assistant athletic trainer Jim "Machine" Shearer was selected as the inaugural recipient of the "Tim Davey Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year" award from the Pro Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS). The award was presented last February at the NFL Scouting Combine in Indianapolis, IN.

"Every organization has people behind the scenes that quietly do their jobs with excellence day after day, year after year," said Cardinals owner Bill Bidwill. "Machine is a perfect example of that type of individual and it's wonderful to see his work is not only recognized here at the Cardinals but by his peers across the National Football League as well."

PFATS created the annual award to recognize one assistant athletic trainer from both the NFC and AFC. The award is named after former NFL executive Tim Davey, who worked for the New York Jets and the league office for 33 years prior to his sudden passing in 2010.

Davey worked with the Jets organization from 1974-88 as an athletic trainer and joined the league's game operations department in 1991.

Shearer completed his 37th season on the Cardinals training staff in 2010. A Worland, WY native, Shearer is a graduate of the University of Wyoming who has been on the field for 745 games for the Cardinals since joining the organization in 1974.

A MATTER OF FAITH

The rigors of life in the NFL—training camp two-a-days, the endless hours of practice and workouts, film study and games—are hard on any athlete as they try to maintain a spot on the roster year after year. For Cardinals S Hamza Abdullah, a Muslim who is now entering his seventh NFL season, the holy month of Ramadan is the ultimate test, a month of fasting from sun-up to sundown that often occurs during the NFL season.

Ramadan, the Muslim holy month observed in reverence to a month that followers of the faith believe the Prophet Mohammed received the Quran, demands a fast of all food and drink during daylight. Last season, Abdullah had to fight through training camp, the toughest month of any NFL player's season, without eating or drinking anything during long days of practices, meetings and workouts.

Abdullah has been observing Ramadan since the age of seven, and despite having to endure endless hours of practices and games in the summer heat throughout his high school, college and NFL career, he has followed a strict routine that allows him to honor his faith while competing against some of the most well-conditioned athletes in the world. His brother, Husain, a safety for the Minnesota Vikings, joins Hamza as the only players in the NFL who fast in observance of Ramadan.

Despite the obvious disadvantages fasting poses to an athlete at the NFL level, Abdullah views it as a test of the discipline and endurance that his faith, and career in the NFL, requires. "When you're fasting, it's just a peaceful time," Abdullah told the Arizona Republic last year. "You're not eating, you're not drinking. You're trying to get that nourishment from God."

led the secondary with eight tackles vs. Ten (11/19) ... registered a forced fumble, fumble recovery, pass defensed and led the secondary with seven solo tackles @ Chi (11/25).

2006: Played in 11 games during his second season with Denver, finishing fifth on the team with eight special teams tackles ... saw action at safety in four games and recorded four tackles ... helped set up a TD by forcing an Antonio Cromartie fumble on a kickoff return @ SD (12/10).

2005: Spent the first eight weeks of the season on Tampa Bay's practice squad ... signed to Denver's active roster on 11/1 ... saw action in one game, recording a special teams tackle @ KC (12/4).

COLLEGE:

Started 11 of 39 career games at Washington State (2001-04), totaling 104 tackles, one sack, one INT, nine pass breakups and four forced fumbles ... as a senior, started all 11 games at FS, registering a career-high 70 tackles, 44 solo tackles, one sack, four forced fumbles and one INT ... awarded Defensive Player of the Game three times as a senior ... earned a degree in Business Management.

PERSONAL:

Born in Los Angeles, CA ... earned two varsity letters as a safety at Pomona (CA) High School ... as a senior, was an all-league selection after he recorded 115 tackles, nine forced fumbles, and three INTs ... named to the All-Inland Empire team ... one of 12 children ... brother, Husain, also played safety at Washington State and currently plays for the Minnesota Vikings ... along with wife, Alexa, they have a daughter, Layla Sa'eeda Abdullah and a son, Aqil Hamza Abdullah.

ARIZONA NAMED ONE OF TWO FINALISTS FOR 2015 SUPER BOWL

Last April, the Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee was informed by the NFL that Arizona was selected as one of two finalists for the 2015 Super Bowl. Expressions of interest from Arizona and other venues were previously submitted, which led to the narrowing down to two finalists. The other finalist was Tampa Bay, Florida.

Mike Kennedy, Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee Chairman said, "We are delighted to receive the terrific news that Arizona is one of two finalists for the 2015 Super Bowl. As I have always said, we are in the Super Bowl business and believe we have the best facilities and most hospitable venue in the country."

The league decision will take place in October. "We are excited to get this opportunity from the NFL and look forward to showing them once again Arizona is Super Ready to host this premiere international event in 2015," said Kennedy.

Arizona previously hosted two Super Bowls, Super Bowl XXX in 1996 at Sun Devil Stadium and Super Bowl XLII in 2008 at University of Phoenix Stadium. The last Super Bowl played in Tampa was in 2009, when the Arizona Cardinals made their first ever Super Bowl appearance against the Pittsburgh Steelers.

A FIRST FOR LEVI

When LT Levi Brown scooped up a Max Hall fumble in the second quarter against the Saints in week five of '10 and took it two yards for a TD, it marked Brown's first career TD. It was the first TD Brown had ever scored, including high school and college play.

With the recovery and TD, Brown became the first Cardinals offensive lineman to score a TD since Reggie Wells recovered an Edgerrin James fumble in the endzone at St. Louis on 10/7/07.

With Brown's TD against the Saints, he joined Wells as the only two linemen to score TDs for the Cardinals dating back to 10/21/90 at NY Giants when T Luis Sharpe caught a one-yard pass from Timm Rosenbach.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Tackle Levi Brown once again remained an active community participant in Arizona last year.

He joined Cardinals Owner Bill Bidwill and President Michael Bidwill at the Salvation Army Kroc Community Center last November for a field groundbreaking on behalf of the NFL's Grassroots program. Brown also joined Cardinals teammates and the Bidwills to serve dinner to the less fortunate at the Phoenix Rescue Mission as part of the team's annual "Feed the Hungry" event last Thanksgiving.

He stayed busy during the season as a regular participant at the SRP Milk and Cookies program and by helping out at Cardinals kids camps around the Valley. Brown has previously participated in "Pros Vs. G.I. Joes," where Cardinals players competed in video games with soldiers who are based in Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO. He also visited 30 teenagers at the UMO New Day Shelter and spoke to the group about the importance of education. Brown also joined teammates and visited the Wellness Community Center to help support teenagers that are struggling with cancer. The program is funded by Cardinals Charities and the teenagers gather once a month to play video games and take part in other activities.

CARDINALS, SAGICOR LIFE INSURANCE AND UNITED WAY PARTICIPATE IN 12TH ANNUAL HOMETOWN HUDDLE

Last December, the Arizona Cardinals and Sagicor Life Insurance teamed with Valley of the Sun United Way at UMOM New Day Center in Phoenix for the 12th annual NFL & United Way Hometown Huddle.

Cardinals LB Daryl Washington, G Rex Hadnot, TE Jim Dray, S Rashad Johnson, and LB Cyril Oboizor joined team mascot Big Red, Cardinals Cheerleaders and employee volunteers from Sagicor Life Insurance at the New Day Center to assist with a beautification project as well as host a kids camp featuring 60 children for fitness activities and drills.

The Cardinals players, cheerleaders and volunteers joined youth from the UMOM center to stain picnic tables, plant flowers and install tile in the teen room at the facility. Sagicor Life Insurance Company donated $5,000 to UMOM to pay for the supplies for the beautification project at the New Day Center.

UMOM New Day Centers is a nonprofit organization serving homeless and low-income families. They are the largest homeless shelter for families in the state of Arizona and have served the Greater Phoenix area for more than 40 years. UMOM serves more than 550 individuals each day through a continuum of services that include: shelter, food, case management, transportation assistance, child development, teen programs, education, housing, job search, relocation assistance and medical care.

The NFL's Hometown Huddle program focuses on volunteerism and volunteer recruitment. Each year the Cardinals and the NFL take part in an event to give back to the community and underprivileged children. The Hometown Huddle event provides the organization an opportunity to help children from high risk communities throughout the Valley.

The NFL/United Way "Hometown Huddle" is a NFL-wide day of service that provides NFL players and coaches from each team the opportunity to take part in a variety of community-service activities, including building homes for low-income families and visiting local military bases. Started in 1999 by the NFL and United Way, Hometown Huddle continues to help make a difference in communities across the country.

Valley of the Sun United Way is working to advance the common good by focusing on education, income and health. Their goal is to create long-lasting and measurable changes that improve the quality of life for struggling individuals, families and children throughout Maricopa Country. CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Calais Campbell donated a lot of time and energy to the Arizona community in his third season with the Cardinals. In 2010, he founded the "CRC Foundation," named after his late father, Charles. The foundation is committed to the enhancement of the community by teaching life skills to assist with the development of young people. Through sports, the enrichment of creative talents, vocational skills, guidance of positive financial skills, and quality health and nutrition, the foundation seeks to empower and provide self-awareness for future leaders.

Over the Thanksgiving holiday, Campbell joined representatives from Albertsons and distributed 50 meals to current and former residents of the Chicanos Por La Causa Shelter. The CLPC shelter provides safe, temporary housing for women and their children who have been forced to leave their homes due to domestic violence. He also distributed 40 turkey dinners to families in the Chandler school district at Hamilton High School and Hancock Elementary to help brighten the holidays of those in need.

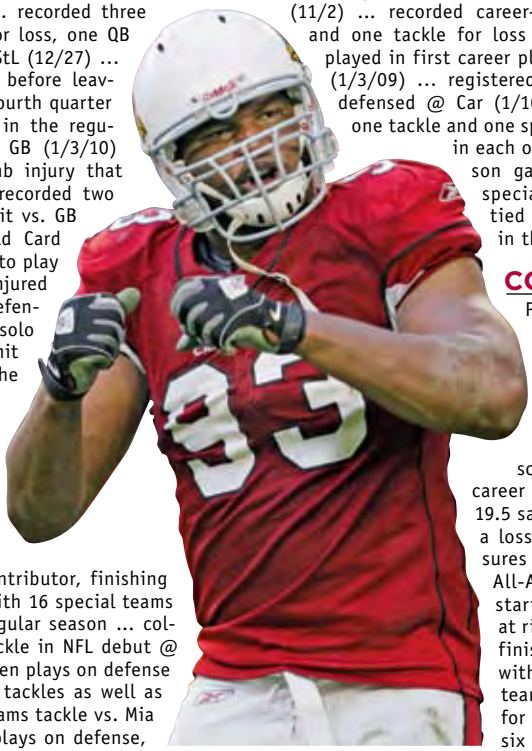

Campbell served as a keynote speaker for the 2010 Spotlight Dinner through the Chandler Youth Football League. The dinner recognized student athletes earning scholarships to four year colleges and universities. He also took 200 kids from various Valley charities to the Cardinals-Rams home game in December.

At Christmas time, Campbell, along with his Cardinals teammates, hosted his first "Shop with a Jock" at Wal-Mart to shop with 50 children from the UMOM New Day Center. The event provided homeless children from the Phoenix area with a $100 shopping spree along with food and games.

CARDS DEBUT ALTERNATE UNIFORM

The Arizona Cardinals Football Club unveiled its third uniform option in the team's preseason finale vs. the Washington Redskins on August 2, 2010.

The uniforms - which debuted in April of 2010 at the team's draft day party – feature a design consistent with the team's current uniforms but have a predominantly black jersey that is complemented by white game pants with a black stripe and red accent as well as black socks.

Under NFL rules, teams are permitted to wear their alternate uniform as many as three times per season – once in the preseason and twice in the regular season (not permitted in the postseason). The Cardinals went on to wear the alternate black jersey against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and San Francisco 49ers last season.

- Dating back to 2007, his 25.0 sacks are more than any other DT in the NFL.
- Has displayed a nose for the ball, notching four INTs, 11 fumble recoveries and seven forced fumbles in his seven NFL seasons. Has scored two TDs on fumble recoveries, the most recent coming on 12/12/10 vs. Denver.
- With 5.0 sacks in '10, now has 31.0 sacks for his career, the ninth-best total in franchise history.
- Voted a team captain for both the 2009 and 2010 seasons.
- Named to the Sporting News All-Pro team and the Associated Press All-Pro second team in 2009 after recording a career-high 15 tackles for loss.
- With 3.0 sacks in Super Bowl XLIII against the Steelers, he tied the NFL record for sacks in a Super Bowl (Reggie White, SB XXXI).
- Has started 110 of 111 games played and has missed just one game during his first seven NFL seasons. The only game he missed came on 11/14/10 vs. Seattle when a shoulder injury held him out, snapping a streak of 104 consecutive games played.
- On 9/1/10, signed a four-year contract extension that will keep him under contract with the Cardinals through 2016, his second contract extension since being selected by the Cardinals in the third round (64th overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft. Previously, he signed a five-year extension on 10/13/06.

PRO CAREER:

AN UNCLE'S INSPIRATION

Faced with unspeakable tragedy at an early age, Darnell Dockett remembers a time when he thought he was more likely to end up in prison or dead than in the NFL. He credits his uncle, Kevin, as the one individual responsible for turning his life around.

At the age of 13, Darnell arrived home to find the body of his mother, Cheryl Hambrick, who had been killed by a gunshot to the head. Shortly thereafter, Darnell moved from Decatur, GA to Maryland to be with his father, Darnell Sr., who was dying of pancreatic cancer.

Only a few months after moving in with his father, Darnell Sr. passed away and Darnell became an orphan. That's when Kevin Dockett, his father's brother, took him into his Burtonsville, MD home and probably saved his life. Additional challenges would follow but he credits his uncle with providing a foundation and instilling a sense of perspective that enabled him to meet and move past each of them.

Tattooed on Darnell's right forearm is a poem of gratitude to his uncle:

For believing in me
when no one else would.
When the odds were against me,
beside me you stood.
For being my friend,
brother, confidant and father.
Because of you I know blood is thicker than water.
Words can't express my gratitude,
nor any amount of money.
From the bottom of my heart,
thank you and I love you
Donny

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Pro Bowl defensive tackle Darnell Dockett's impact in the community was evident this past year as he was very visible throughout the Valley at various charitable appearances.

Dockett's second annual "Happy Holidays with Nine-O" allowed the defensive tackle and 10 of his teammates to host 100 kids from South Phoenix to a holiday party and shopping spree at Toys "R" Us. Each child was given money to shop for themselves and for their family to provide a happy holiday season.

In 2009, he joined Minnesota Vikings tight end Visanthe Shiancoe to host a free football camp for 300 high school students in his home state of Maryland. In June of 2010, Dockett and Shiancoe hosted the all-day camp which included a Q&A session with the players as well as lunch and football fundamentals broken down by position.

Dockett also joined former Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld and wounded soldiers from Walter Reed Army Medical Center for a lunch cruise along the Potomac River aboard the USS Sequoia in 2010. He was able to visit with the soldiers and thank them for their service. His connection to the veterans also extends to the season as he donates tickets to each Cardinals home game to those who have returned from combat.

was 3.5 in his rookie year of 2004 … recorded one sack and two QB hits vs. Car (10/14) … led defensive line with 10 tackles and career-high nine unassisted tackles as well as two sacks and three QB pressures @ TB (11/4) … recorded three QB hits and recovered a Jon Kitna fumble at the end of the third quarter that would lead to a Cards TD to make it 31-14 vs. Det (11/11); helped hold Lions to -18 rushing yards, the lowest total in the modern era … recorded one QB pressure, one QB hit and one sack vs. StL (12/30).

2006: A 16-game starter for the second consecutive season … recovered a TE Vernon Davis fumble in the first quarter of the season opener vs. SF (9/10) which set up a TD that gave the Cards a 21-7 lead … had a career and game-high 12 tackles @ Sea (9/17); sacked Matt Hasselbeck on the first snap of the game, his fifth career sack, and added a tackle for loss @ Sea (9/17) … paced all defensive linemen with five tackles, including one for a loss vs. StL (9/24) while helping to hold RB Steven Jackson to a 2.6-yard rushing average … signed a five-year contract extension on 10/13 … had an outstanding performance vs. Chi (10/16) on Monday Night Football, recording three tackles, an INT and a fumble recovery while helping to hold the Bears to 34 yards rushing … paced the defensive line for the fifth time in '06 with a solid effort vs. Sea (12/10) when he totaled seven tackles, one tackle for a loss and a Matt Hasselbeck sack

NOBODY BETTER

All-Pro DT Darnell Dockett had another standout season for the Cardinals in 2010, recording 51 tackles, five sacks, eight tackles for loss, a pass defensed, a forced fumble, three fumble recoveries, five QB pressures and 11 QB hits. For his efforts, Dockett earned his third career trip to the Pro Bowl (2007, '09), becoming the first defensive lineman in franchise history to appear in three Pro Bowls.

2010 Highlights

- Against the Raiders in week three, recorded his first sack of the season and finished the game with seven tackles, a sack, two tackles for loss and two QB hits.
- Against the Saints in week five, Dockett forced a Ladell Betts fumble in the fourth quarter that was picked up by Kerry Rhodes and returned 27 yards for a TD, giving the Cards a 23-13 lead.
- In week seven against the Seahawks, recovered his first fumble since the '08 season.
- In week 14 vs. Denver, Dockett jumped on a Daryl Washington fumble in the end zone for a TD. Washington intercepted a Kyle Orton pass and returned it 39 yards before being stripped from behind by a trailing Denver player. The TD was the second score of Dockett's career and first since 12/7/08 vs. St. Louis when he returned a fumble 11 yards.
- Against the Cowboys in week 16, recorded two sacks, marking the fifth time in his career (including postseason) that Dockett has recorded at least two sacks in a game. In addition to his sack total, Dockett added five tackles, a tackle for loss and two QB hits.
- Recorded three tackles and a sack in the season finale at San Francisco, giving him three sacks over the final two games.

Dockett has led the NFL in sacks among DTs twice in his career, recording 9.0 sacks in 2007 and 7.0 sacks in 2009.

NOTE CARDS

- Since entering the NFL in 2001, has scored 1,120 points, the second-highest total in the league in that time period behind only 49ers kicker David Akers (1,191).
- Totaled 107 points in 2010, his seventh career 100-point season and third in a row. Has reached the 100-point plateau in seven of his 10 NFL seasons and led all NFL kickers in points during the 2002 (138) and 2005 (148) seasons.
- Against the Denver Broncos in Week 14 of the '10 season, earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors after totaling 25 points in the Cardinals victory, the second-highest point total by a kicker in NFL history (Rob Bironas, 26 pts, 10/21/07 vs. Houston). Feely scored his first career TD in the win vs. Denver on a five-yard run off a fake FG attempt, becoming the first kicker in franchise history to score a TD. The TD was the first by a kicker since Dallas' Tim Seder scored on an 8-yard run on 10/7/01 at Oakland.
- In the 25-point performance vs. Denver, Feely scored 22 consecutive points in the game (5 FG, TD, PAT) after the Broncos took an early 3-0 lead. It represented the most consecutive points scored in a game by an individual player in the Super Bowl era (post 1967).
- In addition to his TD against the Broncos, Feely also kicked five FGs vs. Denver, one of which was a 55-yarder that tied his career-high and tied for the longest FG in franchise history. He became the first NFL player in 46 years to score a TD and kick a FG of 50+ yards (Gino Cappelletti, 11/20/64, 25-yard TD reception and 51-yard FG).
- Has successfully converted 264 consecutive PATs dating back to 11/9/03 at the NY Giants as a member of the Atlanta Falcons, the longest active streak in the NFL.
- Between weeks three and 14 of 2010 season, connected on 18 consecutive FG attempts, the second-longest streak in Cardinals history (Neil Rackers, 31, 2005). As a member of the NY Jets, connected on 24 consecutive FG attempts between 2008-09, establishing a franchise record. Also had a streak of 22 consecutive successful FG attempts between 2006-07 with the Giants and Dolphins.
- After hitting 24 of 27 FG attempts in 2010 (.888), has reached or topped the 80-percent mark for FG accuracy in seven of his 10 NFL seasons, including each of the last six.
- Has successfully converted six onside kicks during his career.
- In 10 NFL seasons, has appeared in 159 of 160 possible games during the regular season, missing his only career game at the beginning of the 2008 season when he signed with the Jets after the season opener. Played in 112 consecutive games to start his career before missing the '08 opener.
- Has appeared in the playoffs five times with three different teams: Atlanta (2002, 2004), NY Giants (2005, 2006) and NY Jets (2009).
- Majored in Education at the University of Michigan. After graduating in 1998, worked as a financial consultant prior to entering the NFL in 2001.
- A major contributor to various community efforts, is a longtime volunteer with the Muscular Dystrophy Association and Special Olympics. He was named the Atlanta Falcons 2002 Man of the Year, was the United Way's Hometown Hero Award recipient with the NY Giants and was named the Muscular Dystrophy Man of the Year in 2010.

PRO CAREER:

Originally signed by the Atlanta Falcons as a rookie free agent on 4/12/01 and played four seasons with the Falcons before signing with the Giants as an unrestricted free agent on 3/8/05. Played two seasons with the Giants before signing with the Dolphins as an unrestricted free agent on 3/8/07. Released by the Dolphins on 8/12/08. Signed with the Jets on 9/10/08. Played two seasons with the Jets before signing a two-year contract with the Cardinals on 4/2/10 as a free agent.

2010: Played in all 16 games in first season in Arizona ... his 88.9 FG percentage (24-27) was the second highest of his career (91.3, 2007) and the fourth best in franchise history ... scored the second most points by a kicker in NFL history (25) in week 14 against Denver, becoming the first kicker in franchise history to score a TD ...

ONE OF SEVEN OVER 1,000

Jay Feely is one of seven NFL players who have eclipsed 1,000 points since 2001, the year he entered the league. In that time, Feely has tallied 1,120 points, the second-highest total in the league dating back to '01 behind only San Francisco kicker David Akers (1,191).

Feely joins Akers, former Broncos and Falcons kicker Jason Elam, Minnesota's Ryan Longwell, Indy's Adam Vinatieri, Buffalo's Rian Lindell and Oakland's Sebastian Janikowski as the only NFL players with 1,000+ points in that span.

A HISTORIC DAY

Jay Feely scored his first career TD on a 5-yard run off a fake FG attempt in week 14's 43-13 win vs. Denver in '10. It was the first-ever TD by a Cardinals kicker. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, prior to Feely's 5-yard TD run, the last NFL placekicker to score a TD of any kind was Tim Seder of Dallas with an 8-yard run on 10/7/01 at the Raiders.

Feely became just the 4th kicker since the 1970 merger to score a rushing TD: Dallas' Seder (10/7/01 & 11/12/00); Cleveland's Phil Dawson (10/10/99); NY Giant's Jess Atkinson (10/13/85).

In addition to his TD, Feely tied a career-high with five FGs and four PATs, giving him 25 points for the game. That total represents the second-highest point total by a kicker in NFL history, trailing only the 26 points posted by Tennessee's Rob Bironas on 10/21/07 vs. Houston (8 FGs, 2 PATs). Feely became the first player in NFL history to score a TD and kick five FGs in a game.

Most Points By Kicker—NFL Record

22 STRAIGHT POINTS

After Broncos K Steven Hauschka's 32-yard FG gave Denver a 3-0 lead with 10:36 remaining in the first quarter, Feely accounted for all of the game's next six scores and all 22 points in the next 44:16. It wasn't until Hauschka's 30-yard FG with 11:20 remaining in the fourth quarter that Denver got back on the scoreboard, with Arizona leading 22-6. Feely's run of 22 points looked like this:

- 36-yard FG (3-3 Tie)
- 48-yard FG (6-3 Arizona)
- 5-yard run on fake FG, followed by PAT (13-3 Arizona)
- 55-yard FG (16-3 Arizona)
- 23-yard FG (19-3 Arizona)
- 49-yard FG (22-3 Arizona)

Feely's 22 consecutive points marked the most consecutive points scored in a game by an individual player in the Super Bowl era (post 1967). Prior to that the last player to score more than 22 uninterrupted points was Green Bay's Paul Hornung, who totaled 24 consecutive points in a 45-7 win vs. Baltimore on 10/8/61. In that game, Hornung kicked a 38-yard FG, then scored three consecutive TDs (and PATs) on a 1-yard run, an 8-yard reception and another 1-yard run.

FEELY FOR 50 and 7

Feely's third FG of the day was a 55-yarder that tied for the longest FG of his career and tied for the longest FG in franchise history. It was the fourth 55-yard FG he has made and the first since 11/1/09 vs. Miami as a member of the Jets. With the 55-yard FG, Feely became the first player in 46 years to kick a 50+ yard FG and score a TD in the same game. The last player to do so was the Boston Patriots' Gino Cappelletti on 11/20/64 vs. Denver. In that game, Cappelletti caught a 25-yard TD pass and kicked a 51-yard FG.

SEVEN YEARS SINCE HE MISSED

Jay Feely has successfully converted 264 consecutive PATs dating back to 11/9/03. His 264 consecutive PATs rank as the longest active streak in the NFL.

NOTE CARDS

- Signed an eight-year contract on 8/20/11 that will keep him in a Cardinals uniform through the 2018 season.
- Selected to his fourth consecutive (fifth overall) Pro Bowl in 2010. Became the first Cardinals player since Aeneas Williams (1994-99) to go to the Pro Bowl four consecutive seasons and established a franchise record for Pro Bowl appearances by a wide receiver. Earned MVP honors in the 2008 Pro Bowl in the NFC's 30-21 victory over the AFC.
- After hauling in 90 passes in 2010, reached 613 career receptions and passed WR Anquan Boldin (586) to become the franchise all-time receptions leader.
- Became the first player in NFL history to record 90+ receptions five times in their first seven seasons and became just one of four players in NFL history (Torry Holt, Jerry Rice and Marvin Harrison) to record 90+ receptions in at least four consecutive seasons.
- With 1,137 receiving yards in 2010, became the first player in franchise history to reach 1,000 yards receiving in four consecutive seasons. Joined Randy Moss, Chad Ochocinco and Anquan Boldin as the only active receivers to reach 1,000 yards at least five times in their first seven NFL seasons. Joined Boldin as the only players in franchise history with five career 1,000-yard seasons.
- Against the Panthers in Week 15 of the '10 season, reached 600 career receptions. At 27 years, 110 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the career milestone.
- With 8,204 career receiving yards, enters the 2011 season needing just 294 yards to pass Roy Green (8,497) and become the franchise all-time receiving yardage leader.
- With 65 career TD receptions, needs just two TD receptions to pass Roy Green (66) and become the franchise leader in that category. Needs five TDs to pass Green for the most overall TDs in franchise history.
- Dating back to 2008, his 31 TD receptions are more than any other player in the NFL.
- Led the NFL in receiving TDs in both 2008 (12) and 2009 (13), becoming the first player to lead the NFL in receiving TDs in back-to-back seasons since Terrell Owens accomplished the feat in 2001-02.
- With 13 TD receptions in 2009, 12 TD receptions in '08 and 10 TD receptions in '07, became the first player in franchise history to record 10+ TDs in three consecutive seasons.
- Against the Lions in Week 15 of the '09 season, reached 7,000 receiving yards for his career. At 26 years, 111 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the career milestone, surpassing the previous record held by Randy Moss (26 years, 220 days old).
- Has 705 receiving yards in his first six postseason games, second in NFL history behind Carolina's Steve Smith (706).
- With his two TD receptions in the Wild Card contest vs. Green Bay in 2009, recorded at least one TD reception in his first five consecutive postseason games, tying the third-longest streak in NFL postseaon history. Only John Stallworth (8) and David Givens (7) had longer streaks. The two receiving TDs against Green Bay gave him multiple TD receptions in three consecutive postseason games, joining Ernest Givens (1989-91) as the only players in history to accomplish that feat.
- Has nine TD receptions in six career postseason games, an NFL record for a player in his first six postseason games.
- Had one of the best postseasons of any player in NFL history during the Cardinals run to Super Bowl XLIII in 2008, shattering the NFL single postseason record for receptions (30), receiving yards (546), and receiving TDs (7). His 30 receptions surpassed the previous record of 27, shared by Carolina's Steve Smith (2005) and New England's Wes Welker (2007). His 546 receiving yards surpassed Jerry Rice's 1988 total of 409 yards and his seven TD receptions topped Rice's 1988 total of six.
- With 100 yards receiving in each of the team's four postseason games in '08, set the NFL record for most consecutive playoff games with 100 yards receiving.
- Has started 107 of the 108 games in which he has appeared since being selected by Arizona with the third overall pick in the 2004 Draft. Only players taken ahead of him were QB Eli Manning (#1 to San Diego) and OT Robert Gallery (#2 to Oakland).
- Led the NFC in both receptions and receiving yards in 2007 and 2008, hauling in 96 receptions for a career-high 1,431 yards in '08, also tying Detroit's Calvin Johnson for the NFL lead with 12 TD receptions. In 2007, totaled 100 receptions for 1,409 yards and 10 TDs.
- With 1,431 receiving yards in 2008, joined Jerry Rice, Marvin Harrison and Randy Moss as the only receivers in NFL history to record at least 1,400 yards receiving in three or more seasons.
- With 96 receptions for 1,431 yards in 2008, joined wide receivers Boldin (89-1,038) and Steve Breaston (77-1,006) to mark the fifth time in NFL history that a team had three players all reach 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.
- His 103 receptions in 2005 set a franchise single-season mark, breaking Boldin's previous mark of 101 set in 2003.
- In 2005, Fitzgerald and Boldin became only the second tandem in NFL history to top 100 receptions and 1,400 receiving yards in the same season (Detroit's Herman Moore and Brett Perriman in 1995).
- At 22 years, 123 days became the youngest receiver in NFL history to record a 100-catch campaign when he reached the milestone @ Indy on 1/1/06.

2007: Started all 15 games played and was selected as a starter for second career Pro Bowl (2005) after finishing the season atop the NFC in receptions (100) and receiving yards (1,409); receiving yards tied his own career best set in 2005 for the fourth-most in franchise history; along with Anquan Boldin became the first teammates in NFL history to record performances of 11+ catches and 160+ receiving yards in consecutive weeks (Boldin, 13 for 162 and 2 TDs vs. Atl 12/23; Fitzgerald 11 for 171 and 2 TDs vs. StL 12/30) ... recorded first 100-yard receiving game of the season and 10th of his career, catching a game-high 10 passes for 120 yards and recovering a Jeff Reed onside kick vs. Pit (9/30) ... for the eighth straight week led team in receptions with nine for a season-high 156 yards and two TDs including a 48-yard hail mary to end the first half vs. SF (11/25); surpassed 1,000 receiving yards on the season for the second time in his career (1,409 in 2005); by doing it in 11 games became the second-fastest Cardinal receiver to reach the mark; passed Larry Centers (29, 1990-98) to record the most TDs by a Cardinal (30) since the team moved to Arizona in 1988 ... after being limited in practice for second straight week recorded an 18-yard TD reception @ NO (12/16) to give him at least one in each of the last five games ... set franchise record with 136 receiving yards in the first half and went on to register a season-best

THE TD MACHINE

Dating back to the beginning of the '08 season, and including postseason, no player in the NFL has more TD receptions than WR Larry Fitzgerald, and it is not close. Fitzgerald has hauled in 40 TD receptions in that time, including nine TD receptions in just six postseason games.

TD Receptions since 2008 Including Postseason

TDs	Player
40	Larry Fitzgerald
29	Calvin Johnson
	Antonio Gates

Even if you discount his historic postseason TD haul, Fitzgerald's 31 regular season TD receptions since 2008 are more than any other NFL player. Calvin Johnson and Randy Moss are tied for second at 29 TD receptions apiece.

POSTSEASON PERFORMER

During the 2008 postseason, Larry Fitzgerald was unstoppable, breaking virtually every postseason receiving record imaginable. He shattered the NFL records for receiving yards in a single postseason (546), receptions (30) and TDs (7). Fitzgerald recorded four 100-yard games in the postseason as well, a new NFL record for consecutive games with 100-yards receiving.

Fitzgerald added to his status as a force in the playoffs with his performance in the team's two postseason matchups in 2009. With 159 receiving yards in the '09 postseason, Fitzgerald had 705 receiving yards in his first six postseason games, second in NFL history behind Steve Smith (706).

587	Tom Fears, LA Rams, 1949-55
582	Anthony Carter, Minnesota, 1987-89

Fitzgerald had more receiving yards (628) through his first five postseason games, than any receiver in NFL history through their first six games, outside of Smith.

With his two TD receptions in the Wild Card contest vs. Green Bay, Fitzgerald recorded at least one TD reception in his first five consecutive postseason games, tying the third-longest streak in NFL postseaon history. Only John Stallworth (8) and David Givens (7) had longer streaks than Fitzgerald.

from Kurt Warner … recorded four receptions for 41 yards and fell one-yard shy of breaking 1,000 yards on the season vs. Jax (11/27); added a five-yard TD reception from Warner to put the Cardinals within seven points with just under three minutes remaining in the game … surpassed 1,000 yards on his first reception of the day @ SF (12/4) and finished the afternoon with eight receptions for 129 yards … totaled six catches for 85 yards and one TD @ Hou (12/18) and became only the sixth player in team history to record more than 90 receptions in a single season … set a new team record for receptions in a season with 103 for 1,409 yards after posting six receptions for 80 yards @ Ind (1/1) … along with Boldin, the duo became only the third pair of teammates in NFL history to post 1,400+ receiving yards in a season and the third set to record over 100 receptions in the same season.

2004: The Cardinals first overall selection in the 2004 Draft (third overall), led the team and finished second among NFL rookies in receiving with 58 receptions for 780 yards and eight TDs … in his first career start @ StL (9/12), caught nine passes for a team-high 70 receiving yards; opened the game with a 37-yard flea flicker reception from Josh McCown which was the longest offensive play

Pro Bowl wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald's impact on the Arizona community was evident again this past year as he participated at various community events and appearances while also supporting the Carol Fitzgerald Memorial fund. The fund was established in honor of his late mother who passed away from breast cancer in 2003. It helps support causes that his mother held close to her heart, such as the education of urban youth on HIV/AIDS and breast cancer issues. In 2004, Fitzgerald also established the "Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund" to support children and their families. The First Down Fund has given money for computer equipment, vision care, and other activities to support youth.

Fitzgerald held his second annual "Morton's Celebrity Servers Night" at Morton's Steakhouse in Phoenix last August. Joined by Cardinals teammates as well as Phoenix sports celebrities, Fitzgerald and his friends served dinner to guests and also hosted a silent auction to help raise money for the Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund and the First Down Fund.

This past spring, Larry partnered with the Partners in Malawi charitable fund and held the first "Larry Fitzgerald Double Play Celebrity Softball Game and Comedy Night" in Scottsdale. Joined by various Cardinals teammates and other NFL players, the event benefited Partners in Malawi along with the Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund. Also this past offseason, Fitzgerald and other celebrity guests hosted the seventh annual "Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund Community Weekend." A silent auction and benefit were held to help raise money for each of the highlighted causes.

As part of Black History Month in February, Fitzgerald visited students at Freedom Elementary School in Buckeye, AZ after the school painted a mural of him. He also joined other NFL players and medical professionals to travel to Africa last March to deliver more than 22,000 state-of-art hearing devices to children and adults across the continent in partnership with the Starkey Hearing Foundation.

For Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October, Fitzgerald pledged $1,000 for every catch and $5,000 for every touchdown. He donated $33,000 to breast cancer awareness through this pledge last season. In 2009, Fitzgerald served as the national spokesperson for the NFL's "Crucial Catch" screening campaign to support Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October. He wore pink gloves, cleats and wristbands that were auctioned off with proceeds benefitting the American Cancer Society to help draw attention to the cause.

Along with teammates Beanie Wells and Tim Hightower, Fitzgerald was a guest at the Muhammad Ali Celebrity Fight Night in Phoenix in March, 2009. The event helped to raise money for multiple charities.

Fitzgerald has previously taken part in the NFL's "Take a Player to School" program presented by JC Penney. In 2008, Fitzgerald visited second grade student Jacob Galindo and took him to Gateway Elementary School where the pair visited the principal's office and spoke to students about the importance of good health. Fitzgerald also led the kids in fitness activities as part of the NFL's PLAY 60 program helping to promote 60 minutes of exercise a day.

The Pro Bowler's "Merry Fitzgerald Christmas" allowed him to host 200 kids from the Phoenix area in coordination with Black Family and Child Services to a dinner, and an autograph session while distributing holiday gifts.

FITZGERALD GIVES FANS TRIP TO PRO BOWL

After Cardinals wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald was named to his fifth Pro Bowl, he showed appreciation for the fans by staging a Twitter contest to giveaway an all-expense paid trip to Hawaii.

Fitzgerald told his Twitter followers that he would be somewhere in Scottsdale between 5:00-6:00 p.m. and whoever showed up first wearing Arizona Cardinals jerseys would win an the free trip to the Pro Bowl. He later posted that he was at the Sandbar, where he and his brother Marcus waited in the parking lot to see who would show up first.

Cardinals fans Raoul Encinas and Monique Connor were the first to arrive wearing Cardinals jerseys. Soon after, a rush of people showed up. Fitzgerald shook hands and took pictures of those fans who didn't make it in time, and Encinas and Connor – after giving Marcus their contact information – left. About 20 minutes later, Encinas' phone rang and Larry invited the couple to dinner.

After sitting down with the winning couple, Encinas told the Fitzgerald brothers he had just finished a course of chemotherapy seven months earlier to battle a rare form of non-Hodgkin's lymphoma. Fitzgerald's "random" winner had battled cancer – just like his mother, who passed away from breast cancer.

"I was touched after he told me how much weight he lost and the battle to stay alive and how his wife was there every step of the way helping him to get back to health," Larry said. "That's how we supported my mother as a family."

The couple not only got to fly out to Hawaii for the Pro Bowl but also got to hang out with Larry again on the Saturday before the game.

"Finding (Raoul's story) out was the highlight of the night for me," Larry said. "I'm proud to know I could touch someone's life who had overcome a disease like cancer."

Fitzgerald also rewarded two other breast cancer survivors in honor of his late mother with a trip to Hawaii for the Pro Bowl – Liz Dodson and Maureen Hanna.

"I obviously have a real interest in rewarding breast cancer survivors. It hit close to home when I lost my mom to the disease, and it's truly an honor to continue to raise awareness in the fight against breast cancer. I was happy to bring these survivors to Hawaii with me and I hope they had a great time."

NOTE CARDS

- Selected as a special teams captain by his teammates for the 2010 season. Marked the second time in his career he had been named a captain (NY Jets, 2006).
- His 44.8 yards per punt average as a member of the Cardinals (200 for 8,964 yards) ranks as the second-best average in franchise history behind Jerry Norton (44.9 avg., 1959-61, 183 for 8,219 yards).
- In 200 punts as a member of the Cardinals, has landed 78 inside the 20-yard line, with only 12 resulting in touchbacks.
- In 2009, tied the NFL single season record with 42 punts landed inside the 20-yard line. He now shares the record with San Francisco's Andy Lee (2007) and NY Jets Steve Weatherford (2010).
- Established a franchise record by averaging 47.0 yards per punt in 2009.
- Tied the franchise single-game record with five punts landed inside the 20-yard line against the Titans in week 12 of '09. Three of those five punts were downed inside the 5-yard line.
- Earned first-ever NFC Special Teams Player of the Week award after punting seven times for 352 yards (50.3 gross avg.) with three punts landing inside the 20-yard line in Week 15 at Detroit in '09. Had a long punt of 64 yards and had four of seven punts travel at least 50 yards (64, 52, 57 and 57).
- Finished the 2009 regular season with a streak of 72 consecutive punts without allowing a touchback over a span of 13 games dating back to the week four contest vs. Houston. In that same span, landed 37 punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line.
- A former star in Australian Rules Football before coming to the NFL in 2005, Graham played 12 years for his hometown team of Geelong before signing with the Jets in 2005.
- At 31 years and 13 days old, became the second oldest player to make his debut in an NFL game since the NFL-AFL merger. Only fellow Australian punter Sav Rocca was older when he made his NFL debut with Philadelphia (33 years, 293 days).
- With his appearance for the Cardinals in week 14 of the '08 season, became the third player in NFL history to punt for three different teams in the same season (Steve Weatherford-NO, KC, Jax-2008; Tom Rouen-Den, NYG, Pit-2002). Had previously punted for the New York Jets and New Orleans Saints before signing with the Cardinals on 12/1/08.
- Became the first Australian to ever appear in the Super Bowl when he handled the punting duties for the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.
- During the 2010 offseason, was recognized as an "Ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary" for the city of Geelong, becoming just the third person ever awarded the honor.

PRO CAREER:

Originally entered the NFL with the NY Jets as a 31-year old rookie in 2005 after playing 12 years in Australia with the Geelong Football Club (G.F.C.) where he played in 219 games from 1993-2004. Signed by the Jets as a free agent on 1/12/05 and played three full seasons. Waived by the Jets on 9/17/08 and re-signed on 9/22/08 before being waived again on 9/29/08. He was signed by the Saints on 10/20/08 and punted for the team when they faced the Chargers in London. Released by the Saints on 10/28/08 and signed by the Cardinals as a free agent on 12/1/08. Signed a two-year contract with the Cardinals on 3/2/09. Re-signed with the Cardinals on 7/29/11, agreeing to a two-year contract as an unrestricted free agent.

NOTE CARDS

- Now entering his 14th NFL season, was acquired by the Cardinals in a trade with the Washington Redskins on 7/31/11 for RB Tim Hightower and an undisclosed 2012 draft pick.
- Has played in 182 career games with 146 starts and has also started in six career postseason games.
- Won division titles with three different teams – the NFC North with the Green Bay Packers in 2002, the AFC West with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2003 and the AFC East with the Miami Dolphins in 2008.
- Ranks 15th among all active players with 62.5 career sacks. Has recorded five or more sacks nine times in 13 NFL seasons.
- Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance vs. Buf (12/22/02) after he set the Packers' single-game sack record with five takedowns of QB Drew Bledsoe; also had seven total tackles and also forced three fumbles in the game. Since sacks became an official stat in 1982, is one of just 13 players in league history to record five or more sacks in a game.
- In 1998, finished second to Raiders CB Charles Woodson for AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors after posting 39 tackles and a Packers rookie record 8.0 sacks.
- First-round selection (19th overall) by the Packers in the 1998 NFL Draft, and was named to the All-Rookie Team in 1998.
- Cousin of Cardinals second-year LB O'Brien Schofield.

PRO CAREER:

Began his NFL career with the Green Bay Packers, who selected him in the first round (19th overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft. After spending his first five seasons with the Packers, signed with Kansas City Chiefs as an unrestricted free agent on 4/8/03. Played two seasons with the Chiefs before signing with the Dolphins as an unrestricted free agent on 3/7/05. CARDINALS CHEERLEADERS VISIT JAPAN

The Cardinals Cheerleaders "Show Team" got the opportunity to make a difference beyond the boundaries of America during Super Bowl week when they visited troops in Japan.

The Cardinals Cheerleaders "Show Team" is a group of select Cardinals Cheerleaders who travel throughout the United States and also overseas to provide entertainment to our armed forces. The Show Team has spanned the globe, traveling to military bases in foreign lands such as Hong Kong, Kosovo, Bahrain and Iraq.

The group of 12 Cardinals Cheerleaders traveled Japan to visit with U.S. troops and help them enjoy the Super Bowl. The group departed on their week long journey from San Francisco, flying across the Pacific Ocean and arriving on the southern coast of Japan, in Yokosuka. Yokosuka has a U.S. naval base that is home to over 8,000 troops and supports the USS George Washington, a nuclear aircraft carrier.

Throughout their weeklong journey in Japan, the Show Team partook in many activities with U.S. troops and their families. The girls were taken on a tour of the USS George Washington, performed various dance routines, signed autographs, posed for pictures with the troops and hosted a kids cheer clinic. The highlight of the trip was the opportunity to enjoy the Super Bowl with the stationed troops as it was shown on live TV in Japan on Monday morning.

CARDINALS VISIT ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL FOR BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

Arizona Cardinals tackle Jeremy Bridges, safety Rashad Johnson, wide receiver Stephen Williams, and linebacker O'Brien Schofield joined team mascot Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders to visit patients at St. Joseph's Hospital on October 5 to help recognize Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

In partnership with the American Cancer Society, the group from the Cardinals assisted in the Patient Navigator program.

The American Cancer Society has partnered with nine hospitals in the Valley through the Patient Navigator Program. Patient Navigators work one-on-one within the hospital, connecting directly with cancer patients and their caregivers, to provide information, services, programs and other requests based on the patients' needs. One of the partners in this program is the Comprehensive Cancer Center at St. Joseph's Hospital.

2009: Started all 16 games and both postseason contests at RG for the second straight season ... member of a line that allowed 26 sacks, the second lowest regular season total by a Cardinals o-line (24-2007) since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 ... helped clear the way for 182 yards rushing @ Chi (11/8) ... part of line that, despite 38 pass attempts, did not allow a sack for the second time in '09 and cleared the way for 122 rushing yards vs. Sea (11/15) ... helped clear the way for 183 rushing yards on 30 carries @ StL (11/22) ... part of line that didn't allow a sack and cleared the way for 113 rushing yards vs. Min (12/6); broke Vikings streak of recording at least one sack in 23 consecutive games ... part of line that led the way for 110 yards rushing vs. StL (12/27); marked the sixth time in eight games that Arizona recorded 100+ yards on the ground ... part of line that did not allow a sack for the fourth time in '09 vs. GB (1/3/10) ... cleared the way for 156 rushing yards against the NFLs number one ranked rush defense in the Wild Card matchup vs. GB (1/10/10); marked the highest rushing total against a GB defense that only gave up 83.3 yards per game.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Guard Deuce Lutui, a Mesa, AZ native, always told himself that when he became a professional football player in the NFL he would give back to the community in which he was raised. Aside from being a regular visitor at Gatorade Junior Training Camps, school visits as part of the "SRP Milk and Cookies" program and Cardinals kids camps, Lutui has taken part in numerous community visits through a variety of programs over the past few years.

This past summer, Lutui hosted his annual "Deuce Lutui Kids Camps" in Queen Creek and Flagstaff. Lutui instructed 200 kids from the Boys & Girls Club for the East Valley Queen Creek camp, while also hosting kids from Northern Arizona at the Flagstaff camp. Each participant received on-field football instruction while also getting lunch following the camp. The free camps were funded through the NFL Youth Football Fund. He joined teammate Darnell Dockett at his "Happy Holidays with Nine-O" holiday party to take part in a shopping spree for South Phoenix children in December, 2010.

In 2009, Lutui, along with Cardinals teammates, took part in the second annual "Pros Vs. G.I. Joes" program at the Cardinals training facility. The players competed in video games with soldiers who are based in Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO. He also took part in the dedication of the Cardinals Academy building that season and spoke to the students at the academy.

In 2008, he joined 200 local students to watch the movie "The Express." He spoke with the kids about the values and positive messages that could be learned from the movie. Lutui also participated in an annual Gatorade Jr. Training Camp with 200 special needs students from Gilbert, AZ.

In the 2008 offseason, Lutui stayed busy by joining teammates to visit children at Phoenix Children's Hospital for "Child Life Week." The Cardinals 2007 "Walter Payton Man of the Year" spoke to a group of rehab patients at "Inspiration Day" at HealthSouth in Glendale about the importance of being mentally strong while facing challenges as well as hosting a kids camp at the team's facility for a group of children from Mexico as part of the "Hands Across the Border" Foundation. He signed autographs at the annual "Phoenix American Heart Walk and One Mile Stroke" walk in Tempe. During that summer, Lutui took part in "Operation Backpack" to pass out 2,500 backpacks to benefit less fortunate kids in the Valley.

During the 2007 season, Lutui joined teammates in the annual NFL and United Way "Hometown Huddle" event to host 100 students and 25 kids from the Special Olympics of Arizona for a kids camp at the Cardinals training facility.

SUPPORTING THE MLK MEMORIAL

In August of 2011, the Martin Luther King, Jr. National Memorial Project Foundation's leadership announced a $1 million gift from the National Football League and NFL Charities. The gift goes to support the memorial on the National Mall in Washington, D.C. honoring Dr. King, which will be officially dedicated this fall.

The $1M contribution was approved by the NFL Charities board, on which Cardinals President Michael Bidwill serves.

"We are extremely humbled by the million dollar gift from the NFL, including Cardinals owner Bill Bidwill," said Harry E. Johnson, Sr., president and CEO of the Memorial Foundation. "This NFL gift moves us one step closer to our $120 million fundraising goal. The NFL has been a close ally of our Project in Washington, DC as well as a strong supporter for more than two decades of the national holiday in Dr. King's honor on the third Monday each January. We are proud the NFL and the Cardinals have joined with us to create the first memorial on the National Mall celebrating a man of hope, a man of peace, and a man of color."

"We are pleased to join our fellow Americans in saluting Dr. King, his legacy and his vision of America," says NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell. "The Memorial is a fitting tribute to an extraordinary man who dedicated his life to ensure freedom, equality and opportunity for all. We in the NFL believe that professional football is the ultimate meritocracy. NFL players are measured strictly by their performance on the field regardless of race, religion or economic background. Our league offers more than 2,500 job opportunities on the field each season to young men as players, coaches and game officials. We also employ thousands more men and women in our NFL offices and at the 32 clubs. In the spirit of Dr. King, we work vigorously to maintain an inclusive environment where everyone can reach their fullest potential. We are proud to have our name associated with Dr. King."

NOTE CARDS

- Established a career-high with 111 tackles in 2010 in his first season with the Cardinals.
- Recorded two fumble recoveries for TDs in '10, tying the NFL single-season record and becoming only the 36th player in NFL history to accomplish the feat. Joined Leo Sugar (1957) as the only Cardinals players to do so.
- Returned fumbles for TDs against the Chargers in week four (42 yards) and against the Saints in week five (27 yards) of the '10 season, becoming the first player with a 25+ yard opponent's fumble return for TD in back-to-back games since 1997 (Tennessee's Marcus Robertson).
- Piled up 174 returns yards on four INTs, the second-highest yardage total in the NFL in '10 behind Baltimore's Ed Reed (183).
- Was the only player in the NFL with at least four INTs and four fumble recoveries in '10, becoming the first player to accomplish the feat since 2004 (Donovin Darius, Jacksonville).
- Has started 94 of 96 career regular season games in his first six NFL seasons and has never missed a contest. Has also started all four postseason contests he appeared in.
- Streak of 96 consecutive games played ranks as the third longest streak among active NFL safeties behind Donnie Nickey (111) and Deon Grant (160).
- Earned second-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press after recording four INTs and 5.0 sacks in 2006. His 5.0 sacks were the most ever by a Jets defensive back in a single-season.
- Acquired by the Cardinals in a trade with the NY Jets on March 6, 2010.
- During the 2011 offseason, was inducted into the Kentucky Pro Football Hall of Fame, joining the ninth HOF class that also included former Super Bowl MVP Phil Simms. Kentucky is the only state with its own Pro Football Hall of Fame.

PRO CAREER:

Originally selected by the Jets in the fourth round (123rd overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft. Appeared in 80 games (78 starts) in five seasons with New York. Signed a five-year contract extension with the Jets on 4/10/08 and was traded to the Cardinals on 3/6/10 in exchange for Arizona's fourth-round selection in 2010 and seventh-round selection in 2011.

2010: Recorded one of the best seasons of his career in his first year in Arizona, setting career-highs with 111 tackles, 174 INT return yards (second most in the NFL) and four fumble recoveries, two of which he returned for TDs to lead the NFL, while starting all 16 games … ranked second in the NFL with four fumble recoveries, which tied for the second-highest single-season total in franchise history and the highest total since Michael Bankston (5) in 1993 … surpassed 100 tackles for the second time in his career … started first game as a member of the Cardinals, registering one QB hit, one tackle for loss and a 65-yard INT return in the fourth quarter @ StL (9/12) … finished with seven tackles before being disqualified for grabbing an official with four minutes left in the game @ Atl (9/19) … recorded team-highs with 11 tackles and three passes defensed as well as one tackle for loss and one QB pressure vs. Oak (9/26) … returned a fumble 42 yards for a TD in the second quarter to tie the game at seven @ SD (10/3); marked second career TD (11-yard fumble return @ NYG 10/7/07) and first as a member of the Cardinals … registered five tackles and for the second consecutive week returned a fumble 27 yards for a TD to give Arizona a 23-13 lead in the fourth quarter vs. NO (10/10); marked third career fumble return for a TD and second as a Cardinal; became the first player in franchise history with fumble returns for TDs in back-to-back games; two fumble returns for TDs tied for second most in franchise history (Leo Sugar, 3) … finished with a team-high nine tackles vs. TB (10/31), as well as first blocked FG of career; blocked kick kept AZ within three points with 3:16 to play in the game and gave the Cards the ball at the AZ 43-yard line … finished second on the team with nine tackles @ Min (11/7) and returned an INT for a career-long 66 yards before being stripped on the MN one-yard line and the ball going out of the back of the end zone for a touchback … recorded seven tackles, one sack, one INT and one pass defensed vs. StL (12/5); marked first career game with a sack and INT; first sack since 10/26/08 vs. KC … recorded eight tackles, one fumble recovery, and one INT vs. Den (12/12); returned INT 33 yards to the Denver 24-yard line, setting up a TD on the ensuing drive to put AZ up 13-3; marked the second time

RHODES PICKS IT UP IN 2010

In his first season in Arizona, FS Kerry Rhodes served as a consistent playmaker in the Cardinals secondary. In addition to posting a career-high 111 tackles in 2010, Rhodes was the only player in the NFL to record at least four INTs and four fumble recoveries, becoming the first NFL player to do so since Jacksonville's Donovin Darius in 2004.

Fumble Recoveries

- Rhodes returned two of his four fumble recoveries for TDs in '10, tying the NFL single-season record and becoming just the 36th player in league history to accomplish the feat. He joined Leo Sugar (1957) as the only Cardinals players to record two fumble returns for TDs in a season.
- Rhodes' fumble return TDs came in back-to-back weeks (42 yards at San Diego in Week 4 and 27 yards vs. New Orleans in Week 5) and he became the first NFL player with a 25+ yard opponent's fumble recovery for TD in back-to-back games since Tennessee's Marcus Robertson in 1997.
- Having played just 16 games with the Cardinals, Rhodes' two fumble returns for TDs rank as the second-highest total among any player in franchise history. The only person with more career fumble returns for TDs is Leo Sugar, who totaled three from 1954-60.

Franchise Record
Career Fumble Returns for TDs

TDs	Player, Years
3	Leo Sugar, 1954, '57 (2)
2	Kerry Rhodes, 2010 (2)
	Adrian Wilson, 2004, '06
	Aeneas Williams, 1993, '00
	Rod Saddler, 1989, '91
	Larry Stallings, 1965, '69
	Larry Wilson, 1963, '69
	Don Brumm, 1965, '68

- Rhodes' four fumble recoveries ranked as the second-highest total in the NFL in '10 and he joined Giants DE Justin Tuck (5) as the only NFL defenders to record at least four fumble recoveries on the season.
- In franchise history, only Michael Bankston (5, 1993), Chuck Walker (5, 1969) and Tom Wham (5, 1950) recorded more fumble recoveries than Rhodes in a single season.

Additional Season Highlights

- In week eight against the Buccaneers, Rhodes blocked his first career FG attempt, getting a hand on Connor Barth's 53-yard attempt in the fourth quarter that kept the game at 38-35 and kept the Cards within three points with just 3:16 remaining in the game.
- In week 13 vs. the Rams, Rhodes recorded an INT and a sack in the same game for the first time in his career.
- In week 14 vs. the Broncos, Rhodes recorded his team-leading fourth INT in the victory over Denver and his second INT in as many games. Rhodes stepped in front of a Kyle Orton pass in the second quarter and returned it 33 yards to the Denver 24-yard line. The 33-yard return gave Rhodes 174 INT return yards in 2010, the second-highest total in the NFL.
- In addition to his INT against Denver, Rhodes also recovered WR Eric Decker's fumble in the second quarter. Just one week after recording a sack and INT in the same game (vs. StL, 12/5), Rhodes recovered a fumble and recorded an INT in the same game for just the second time in his career (11/9/08 vs. StL).

in his career he recorded an INT and fumble recovery in the same game (11/9/08 vs. StL); surpassed 500 career tackles … recorded a team-high 11 tackles, one pass defensed and one fumble recovery vs. Dal (12/25).

2009: Part of Jets defensive unit that finished the season ranked No. 1 in the NFL in total defense for the first time in franchise history … started 14 of 16 regular season games and all three postseason contests … led the team with nine tackles and posted two QB hits and one pass defensed vs. NE (9/20); part of a defensive unit that did not allow an offensive TD for the second consecutive game … had seven tackles, a QB hit and a pass defensed while holding the Saints top ranked offense to just 10 points @ NO (10/4) … served as a game captain, recording two tackles and a QB hit while helping hold the Dolphins offense to just 104 net yards, the fourth-lowest total in franchise history vs. Mia (11/1) … for the first time in his career, did not start, but saw action at safety and recorded his first multi-INT game vs. Car (11/29), intercepting Jake Delhomme twice … returned to the starting lineup and recorded his third INT in three games @ TB (12/13) while also tallying three tackles and a pass defensed … recovered a fumble and returned it 44 yards, setting up a Jets TD on the ensuing drive in the regular season finale vs. Cin (1/3/10) … in his second career postseason game, totaled four tackles in the Wild Card matchup @ Cin (1/9/10) … recorded a postseason career-high seven tackles and sacked QB Philip Rivers in the fourth quarter of the Divisional matchup @ SD (1/17/10); recovered a SD onside kick attempt with 2:12 left in the game … served as game captain and recorded five tackles in the AFC Championship Game @ IND (1/24/10).

SAFETY SACK LEADERS

Dating back to 2005, Adrian Wilson and Kerry Rhodes have more sacks than any safeties in the NFL. Wilson easily leads the category with 19.5 sacks over that period while Rhodes comes in second with 10.0 sacks.

Sack Leaders—NFL Safeties (2005-present)

Sacks	Player	Team
19.5	Adrian Wilson	Arizona
10.0	Kerry Rhodes	Arizona
9.5	Brian Dawkins	Denver
9.5	Roman Harper	New Orleans
9.0	Yeremiah Bell	Miami

2008: Started all 16 games for the Jets for the fourth consecutive season, finishing third on the team with 81 tackles … recorded two INTs, a sack, five passes defensed and two fumble recoveries … recorded seven tackles and a sack vs. KC (10/26) … recovered his first fumble of the season and returned it 18 yards, setting up a Jay Feely FG vs. StL (11/9); followed that play by intercepting QB Marc Bulger and returning it 50 yards, setting up a Jets TD on the ensuing drive … recovered his second fumble of the season @ NE (11/13) … registered a season-high nine tackles vs. Den (11/30) … sealed the Jets win with an INT of J.P. Losman with 10 seconds remaining in regulation vs. Buf (12/14).

NO COMPARISON

FS Kerry Rhodes had perhaps the best season of his career in his first campaign with the Cardinals in 2010, making plays and putting up defensive numbers that matched the output of his first five seasons combined.

In the 2009 regular season finale with the Jets, Rhodes recovered a Bengals fumble and returned it 44 yards (1/3/10), setting up a Jets TD on the ensuing possession. In 2010 with the Cardinals, Rhodes was the only NFL player to record at least four INTs and four fumble recoveries, also tying the NFL record for fumble recovery TDs in a single season. Below is a look at Rhodes performance over his last 17 regular season games, including the '09 finale with the Jets and his 16 games with Arizona in 2010, compared to his first 79 career regular season games:

Rhodes in Last 17 Regular Season Games
Fumble Recoveries: 5
Fumbles Returned for TDs: 2
Fumble Return Yards: 113
INT Return Yds: 174
Combined Return Yards (Fumble, INT): 287

Rhodes in First 79 Career Games Played
Fumble Recoveries: 4
Fumbles Returned for TDs: 1
Fumble Return Yards: 44
INT Return Yds: 189

SCORING ON DEFENSE

FS Kerry Rhodes and CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie tied for the NFL lead with two defensive TDs apiece in 2010.

TDs	Player (Team)	Type
2	Kerry Rhodes (Ari)	2 Fumble returns
	D. Rodgers-Cromartie (Ari)	2 INT returns
	David Bowns (Cle)	2 INT returns
	DeAngelo Hall (Was)	INT, Fumble
	Kelvin Hayden (Ind)	2 INT returns
	Drayton Florence (Buf)	INT, Fumble
	Gary Guyton (NE)	INT, Fumble
	Dwight Lowery (NYJ)	2 INT returns

Rhodes was the only player in the NFL with two fumble recoveries for TDs in '10.

2007: Led the Jets with five INTs after starting all 16 games for the third consecutive season … also totaled 68 tackles, two sacks, three passes defensed, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery that he returned for his first career TD … recorded his first INT of the season when he stepped in front of a Trent Green pass vs. Mia (9/23) … forced a Brandon Jacobs fumble in the first quarter and returned the fumble 11 yards for his first career TD @ NYG (10/7); also tallied a season-high nine tackles in the game … took down Donovan McNabb for his first sack of the season vs. Phi (10/14) … intercepted a Ben Roethlisberger pass in the Jets OT win vs. Pit (11/18) … picked off a Tony Romo pass and returned it 22 yards @ Dal (11/22) … had four tackles, two passes defensed and intercepted a John Beck pass and returned it 36 yards @ Mia (12/2) … stepped in front of a Derek Anderson pass at the end of the first quarter vs. Cle (12/9), becoming the first Jet since Otis Smith (1995) to record an INT in four consecutive games … sacked Brodie Croyle for an eight-yard loss in an OT victory vs. KC (12/30).

2006: Started all 16 regular season games and the postseason matchup for the Jets, recording a team-high four INTs, 92 tackles, 13 passes defensed and five sacks … five sacks were the most by a Jets DB in franchise history … picked off a Kerry Collins pass on the first play from scrimmage in the second half of the season opener @ Ten (9/10) … recorded a strip-sack of Tom Brady that was recovered by the Jets and led to a TD on the ensuing possession vs. NE (9/17) … named AFC Defensive Player of the Week after recording 10 tackles and two strip sacks that led to turnovers, one of which was returned for a TD by LB Victor Hobson @ Buf (9/24) … led the team with two special teams tackles and recovered an onside kick attempt to help preserve the victory vs. Det (10/22) … tied for the team lead with 11 tackles and picked off a David Carr pass vs. Hou (11/26) … recorded a team-high seven tackles vs. Buf (12/10) … recorded six tackles and a pass defensed in the Wild Card loss @ NE (1/7/07).

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Kerry R.H.O.D.E.S. Foundation (Reaffirming Hopes of Dream Endearing Scholars Foundation) was created in 2006 to encourage today's youth to reach for their dreams while also providing young ambitious men and women with the tools to conquer adversity.

The foundation's focus is to provide resources that enable young minds to pursue goals through well equipped educational facilities which provide their students with choices, opportunities and inspiration. One of the primary missions of the foundation is to provide high schools located in financially depressed areas with resources, equipment, programs and activities that will assist with the academic, athletic, and social development of their students. The other primary mission of the foundation is to provide financial assistance to these high schools to enable them to furnish scholarships to certain talented young men and women for the continuation of their academic careers beyond high school.

Rhodes hosted his second annual Holiday Mixer at Barney's of Scottsdale last December. Along with Cardinals teammates and Miss Arizona Brittany Bell, Rhodes hosted the holiday dinner and shopping mixer to help raise money for his foundation.

He established an annual charity basketball game at Lanier High School (Bessemer, AL) that takes place each offseason to help raise money for the foundation. Rhodes hosted the 4th annual Kentucky Derby youth football camp and celebrity all-star basketball game at his alma mater (University of Louisville) this past May to benefit local youth programs in Kentucky. In addition, he partnered with former Jets teammate Jerricho Cotchery for a Skills and Drills Football Clinic at Legion Field in Birmingham, AL last June.

In addition to Rhodes' work with his foundation, he participated at the Cardinals annual "Pros vs. G.I. Joes" event at the team's training facility last fall. The players competed in video games with soldiers who are based in Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO. He is also an active participant with the NFL's Play 60 campaign to promote 60 minutes of daily exercise for children. He partnered with the NBC Show "The Biggest Loser" and spoke to a group about the importance of working out and proper health and nutrition in May of 2010 in Arizona.

FILLING IN NICELY

One of the big questions heading into the 2010 season was how the Cardinals were going to fill the gap after FS Antrel Rolle left via free agency in the offseason. The answer to that question was provided in the form of Kerry Rhodes. In his first season in Arizona, Rhodes put up career-type numbers after coming to the Cardinals from the NY Jets.

Kerry Rhodes and Antrel Rolle in 2010

- The Cardinals third round selection (88th overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft, Roberts appeared in 15 games (two starts) as a rookie, hauling in 24 receptions for 307 yards and two TDs. Also served as the team's primary punt returner, totaling 263 yards on 35 returns (7.5 avg.).
- In the Christmas Day matchup against the Dallas Cowboys, hauled in five receptions for 110 yards and a TD, becoming the first Cardinals rookie to post a 100-yard receiving game since Anquan Boldin totaled 122 yards on 12/21/03 at Seattle.
- Roberts' 74-yard TD reception against the Cowboys was the longest TD reception by a Cardinals rookie since WR Ernie Jones' 93-yard TD reception on 12/10/88 vs. Philadelphia
- Three-time All-America selection at The Citadel where he broke virtually every school record as both a receiver and a punt returner. Scored 41 career TDs (37 TD receptions, 3 punt returns and a rushing TD) as his 246 career points rank second in school history. His 37 TD receptions rank as the second-highest total in Southern Conference history and tied for 16th in NCAA Football Championship Subdivision history.
- Led the nation with a 19.2-yard punt return average in 2008, the 17th-best single season average in NCAA history.
- Became the 12th player ever drafted from The Citadel and the second-highest draft pick in school history. Only LB John Small, selected 12th overall by the Falcons in the 1970 NFL Draft, was selected higher. He also became the first receiver from the school ever selected in the draft. Before Roberts, the last player drafted from the school was FB Nehemiah Broughton, who was selected by the Redskins in the seventh round (222nd overall) in 2005.

NOTE CARDS

- Arizona entered the fourth round of the 2010 Draft with the 123rd overall selection but traded the pick to the Saints for their fourth-round (130th) and sixth round (201st) selections. They used the 130th overall selection to choose the first-team All-Big Ten defensive end from Wisconsin.
- Spent the first seven weeks of last season rehabbing from a torn ACL in his left knee, suffered during preparation for the 2010 Senior Bowl. After just six days of practice, appeared in his first NFL game in Week eight vs. Tampa Bay and went on to appear in the final 10 games.
- Recorded a sack in each of the final two games of his rookie campaign, filling in for the injured Joey Porter.
- Had a stellar senior season at Wisconsin, in which he earned first-team All-Big Ten honors and was a semi-finalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award (nation's top defensive player) after recording 62 tackles, 24.5 for loss and 12 sacks. His 24.5 tackles for a loss ranked as the second-highest total in the nation.
- Is the cousin of Cardinals defensive end Vonnie Holliday and former NFL wide receiver Bobby Engram and his uncle, Andre Carter, played football at Clemson.
- Full name is Alacce (pronounced a-LAY-see-a) O'Brien Schofield but has gone by his middle name since age 10 when he tired of people mispronouncing his name.

PRO CAREER:

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Scottsdale native Lyle Sendlein returned to his home state of Arizona in 2007 and since that time has been very visible in the Valley community. The fifth-year player was one of the most active participants in the Cardinals and SRP "Milk and Cookies" program throughout the entire 2010 season. Sendlein made sure that on Tuesday's, he was spending his time reading to children in the community.

He also hosted the first "Lyle Sendlein" football camp at the Boys & Girls Club-East Valley Guadalupe branch last October. The camp was free and funded by the NFL Youth Football Fund. Sendlein visited students at Whitman Elementary School in Mesa, AZ last November and led the kids in fitness activities as part of the NFL's Play 60 program. Whitman was selected as a Super School and won a $10,000 grant from the NFL for health and wellness programming and equipment. He also took part in the team's annual "Feed the Hungry" event to serve Thanksgiving dinner to the less fortunate at the Phoenix Rescue Mission.

In previous years, Sendlein was a regular participant at the annual "Making the Cut" event to benefit Cardinals Charities. He has also taken part in "Pros vs. G.I. Joes" where he competed in video games with soldiers who are based in Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO. He joined teammate Mike Leach to take part in the team's Christmas Angels program in 2009 as the team adopted 70 families from the Friendly House to help ensure a happy holiday season. Sendlein also joined teammates that year and visited the Wellness Community Center to help support teenagers that are struggling with cancer, a program that is funded by Cardinals Charities.

Those numerous community activities follow up his past work as he participated at the Cardinals and United Way "Hometown Huddle" in 2007, coaching 100 students as well as 25 kids from the Special Olympics of Arizona at a kids camp. In the spring of 2008, Sendlein also volunteered for the "Read Across America" program at the Cardinals Preparatory Academy to help promote reading.

- Arizona entered the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft without a pick but traded their first selection of the sixth round (195th overall) and CB Bryant McFadden to the Steelers in exchange for the 155th overall selection, which they used to draft Skelton.
- Made first career start in Week 14 of the 2010 season against Denver and at 22 years, 270 days old, became the second-youngest QB to start a game for the Cardinals. Sammy Garza started against the 49ers on 10/18/87 when he was 22 years, 100 days old.
- In beating both Dallas and Denver in his first two career home starts, Skelton joined Neil Lomax (1981) as the only Cardinals rookie QBs to win their first two home starts in the Super Bowl era.
- Dating back to 1960, Skelton joined Max Hall (2010), George Izo (1960), and Gary Keithley (1973) as the only Cardinals rookie QBs to win their first career start.
- Became the first rookie from Fordham to start an NFL game since DB Kenny Parker started six games for the NY Giants in 1970.
- His 74-yard TD pass to rookie WR Andre Roberts against Dallas in Week 16 was the longest TD pass by a Cardinals rookie QB since Gary Keithley connected on an 80-yard TD pass to Mel Gray on 11/18/73 at NY Giants.
- Skelton was the highest draft pick for Fordham since 1955 and the first QB ever drafted from the school.
- His uncle, Javier Loya, is a minority owner of the Houston Texans and a former QB at Columbia. After Skelton was overlooked for scholarships within the state of Texas, Loya took him on a tour of schools in the Northeast, dropping off tapes at a handful of schools, with Fordham being one of them.

PRO CAREER:

The Cardinals fifth-round pick (155th overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft, Skelton appeared in five games (four starts) during his rookie season.

CARDINALS PARTICIPATE IN PROS VS. G.I. JOES PROGRAM

Arizona Cardinals safety Kerry Rhodes, tight end Stephen Spach, and wide receivers Stephen Williams and Max Komar competed for the third consecutive year in a video game competition with Arizona National Guard soldiers, airmen from Luke Air Force Base and troops overseas as part of the Pros vs. G.I. Joes program last September at the Cardinals Training Facility.

Presented by UHaul, the Pros vs. G.I Joes program had the Cardinals players and soldiers playing Madden 2011, Guitar Hero, and Call of Duty via an XBox Live gaming tag. While they were playing the games, the competitors were able to see and hear each other through a webcam set-up using SiteSpeed. Likewise, the crowd on both sides of the competition was able to see the live action as well.

The soldiers, playing from USO centers in Baghdad and Basrah, Iraq, Kuwait, Qatar, and Fort Drum, NY competed with professional athletes on an even playing field. Following the matches, the soldiers, their families, and fellow Arizona National Guard and Luke AFB troops were able to reconnect via the webcam.

THE RETURN MAN

RB LaRod Stephens-Howling made franchise history with his 96-yard KOR TD in Week nine against Minnesota, his second KOR TD of the season and third of his career. Combined with his 102-yard KOR TD in Week three against the Raiders, Stephens-Howling joined Ollie Matson and Les Goble as the only three players in franchise history with multiple KOR TDs in a single season.

His three career KOR TDs represent the second-highest total in franchise history behind Ollie Matson (6).

TO THE HOUSE FOR A HOUSE

In returning the opening kickoff for a TD against the Raiders in Week three, Stephens-Howling won Cards fan and Surprise, AZ resident Dave Johnson a new home as part of the Lennar Homes "Take it to the House" Kickoff promotion.

The first Cardinals kickoff return of every home game in 2010 was billed as the "Lennar Take it the House Kickoff." If the Cards returned that kickoff for a TD, one selected registrant won a brand new home, courtesy of Lennar. Johnson, along with numerous Lennar representatives, were at the Cards facility on Wednesday, Sept. 29 for a meet-and-greet with Stephens-Howling.

"I wish I could win a house for somebody every time I touched the ball, but that is great," Stephens-Howling said after making Johnson the first-ever winner of the contest. "That is amazing."

BIG CONTRIBUTIONS

RB LaRod Stephens Howling was one of the league's most dynamic special teams performers as a rookie in 2009. In 2010, in addition to his role on special teams, the 5-7, 185-pound back also played a bigger role in the Cards offense.

In 13 games, (missed three due to injury), Stephens-Howling totaled 23 carries for 113 yards (4.9-yard avg.) and a TD. He also added 16 receptions for 111 yards. That marked a significant jump in production on offense compared to his rookie campaign in '09. That season, Stephens-Howling totaled six rushing attempts for 15 yards and had 10 receptions for 83 yards on the year.

Against the Buccaneers in Week eight, Stephens-Howling had his career-best game as a RB. He totaled four carries for 41 yards (10.3-yard avg.), including a 30-yard TD run in the third quarter. The 30-yard run marked his first career rushing TD and the longest run of his career.

CARDINALS POPULARITY GROWS

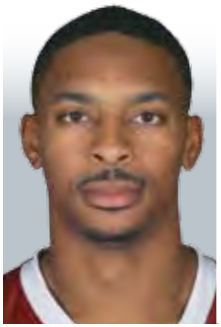

On the strength of back-to-back division titles, their first-ever conference title and their appearance in Super Bowl XLIII, the Cardinals made another jump in popularity and now rank as the 11th most popular franchise in the NFL according to the most recent Harris Poll.

The results were based on a national survey of 2,600 sports fans and the Cardinals 11th overall ranking is the best-ever for the franchise. Arizona has made a steady climb over the last few seasons, finishing 16th overall in 2009 after finishing 29th in 2007 and 32nd in 2004.

Since 2006, when the Cardinals moved into University of Phoenix Stadium, the team has gone from 29th overall to their current position at number 11. In that time, only the New Orleans Saints made a bigger jump (31st to 5th).

NOTE CARDS

- The Cardinals first-round selection in the 2009 NFL Draft and the 31st overall pick; was the third running back taken in the draft after Georgia's Knowshon Moreno (14th overall) went to Denver and Connecticut's Donald Brown (27th overall) went to Indianapolis.
- In '09, was named to the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie team after rushing for 793 yards and seven TDs on 176 carries (4.5 avg.). That total was good for second among NFL rookies in yards (Knowshon Moreno) and tied for first in TDs.
- His 793 yards in '09 led Cardinals rushers and was fourth-best rushing total in franchise history among rookie RBs.
- Comes from family of 11 children—six boys and five girls. It was his older brother Ray who gave Wells the nickname Beanie, a reference to his smaller frame as a child that his brother said reminded him of a string bean.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Running back Beanie Wells established the "Beanie's Babies Foundation" in 2009 to create and support after-school programs and extend learning opportunities for all kids. The inspiration for the foundation came from Wells' involvement in afterschool programs as a child. He credits these experiences for helping shape the type of player and person he is today.

Outside of his foundation, Wells also stayed active in the Arizona community through a variety of appearances. He joined forces with Sagicor Life Insurance to serve as the spokesperson for the Cardinals annual holiday food drive this past fall that benefitted St. Mary's Food Bank. He made the first donation in the drive that resulted in over 75,000 meals.

Wells also joined Cardinals teammates and participated in Darnell Dockett's annual "Happy Holidays with Nine-O" party and shopping spree for children from South Phoenix last December. He was a guest at Marshall Ranch Elementary School in Glendale last February to help promote the NFL's Fuel Up/Play 60 NFL program. Wells participated at an assembly at the school and spoke to the students about the importance of getting 60 minutes of exercise a day.

Wells had two main events in 2010 to help support his foundation's efforts. In April of 2010, he hosted a free football camp for over 300 kids, ages 7-14. The players were taught the basic fundamentals of football from Wells, a few of his teammates and a team of coaches. The program was made possible through corporate sponsorship with the proceeds benefiting the foundation and the Boys and Girls Clubs of the East Valley.

Wells also joined over 20 former college teammates, the OSU coaching staff and 320 participants for the first "Bowling with Beanie" event in Columbus, OH in the summer of 2010. In addition to bowling, the event feature a memorabilia signing, VIP Reception, silent auction and raffles.

NOTE CARDS

- The longest-tenured Cardinal, the 2011 season will be his 11th with the team. Opted not to become an unrestricted free agent following the 2004 season and instead signed a five-year extension on 12/22/04. Signed his second extension on 6/4/09, another five-year deal that will keep him with the Cardinals through the 2013 season.
- In 2010, was voted to his third consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter and fourth overall appearance, joining Hall of Famer Larry Wilson as the only safeties in team history to be named to at least four Pro Bowls.
- Finished the 2010 season with a career-high 118 tackles, his third career 100-tackle season and first since 2005 (112). Had 110 tackles in 2002 in his second NFL season.
- Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his Week 1 performance against the St. Louis Rams in '10. Against the Rams, Wilson recorded two INTs, a sack and a blocked FG, becoming the first NFL player to record an INT, sack and blocked FG in a game since Julius Peppers (11/28/04 vs. TB). It was his franchise-record fourth Player of the Week award, also earning the honor in Week 7 of the '09 season, Week 4 of the 2004 season and Week 7 of the 2002 season.
- In 2009, recorded 2.0 sacks and five INTs and became the just the 10th player in NFL history with 20 sacks and 20 INTs in their career. After recording 2.0 sacks and two INTs in 2010, now has 22.5 sacks and 25 tackles for his career. His 25 INTs represent the sixth-highest total in franchise history.
- In 150 career games with the Cardinals, has recorded 849 tackles, 22.5 sacks, 25 INTs and scored four TDs.
- In 2006, returned both an INT and a fumble 99 yards for TDs, becoming the first defensive player in NFL history with two TDs of 99+ yards in the same season; also only NFL player ever with multiple 99-yarders without the benefit of a kickoff return.
- Dating back to 2005, his 19.5 sacks are more than any other safety in the NFL, with teammate Kerry Rhodes coming in second with 10.0 sacks in that span.
- His team-high 8.0 sacks in 2005 were the most in NFL history by a defensive back since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. The previous record belonged to Chicago's Dave Duerson (7.0 in 1986).
- Earned first-team All-Pro honors in '09, the first time he received first-team honors. Earned second-team All-Pro honors in 2006 and '08.

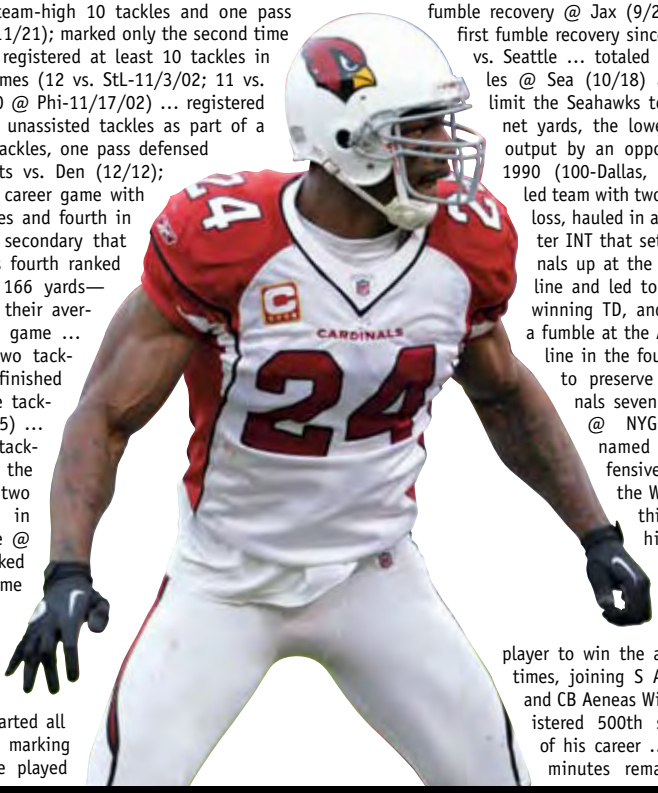

PRO CAREER:

The Cardinals third-round selection in the 2001 NFL Draft (64th overall), Wilson, the longest tenured player on the Arizona roster, emerged as a defensive leader and signed a five-year contract extension on 12/22/04. THE 20-20 MAN

SS Adrian Wilson has a long list of individual accomplishments during his first 10 seasons with the Cardinals, including four Pro Bowl appearances and numerous NFL single-season records.

One of the most significant is his inclusion on an exclusive list of NFL players who have recorded at least 20 INTs and 20 sacks in their career. In 2009, Wilson reached the career milestone, becoming just the 10th player in NFL history with at least 20 sacks and 20 interceptions. With two sacks and two INTs in 2010, he added to those numbers.

AGENT 99

Entering 2006, Pro Bowl safety Adrian Wilson had two TDs in his previous five NFL seasons – a 61-yard INT return at Washington on 1/6/02 and a 35-yard fumble return vs. New Orleans on 10/3/04.

He not only matched that figure in 2006, but nearly went the length of the field on each.

The second of those two TDs came at Minnesota on 11/26 when he scooped up a fourth quarter fumble by Chester Taylor and raced 99 yards for a TD. Wilson also had a franchise record 99-yard INT return for a TD off Michael Vick in Arizona's game at Atlanta on 10/1/06.

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Wilson became first player in NFL history to record two TDs of 99+ yards in the same season without the benefit of a kickoff return TD.

Wilson became just the fifth player since the 1970 NFL merger to score two TD's of 99+ yards in the same season, of the nine players who have accomplished the feat (four have done so since '06), Wilson is the only one to do so without the benefit of a kickoff return.

PLAYERS WITH TWO 99+ YARD TDS IN ONE SEASON (SINCE 1970 MERGER)

Jacoby Ford, Oak.	2010	Both kickoff returns (101 & 99)
Leon Washington, Sea.	2010	Both kickoff returns (101 & 99)
Josh Cribbs, Cle.	2009	Both kickoff returns (101 & 103)
Ted Ginn Jr., Mia.	2009	Both kickoff returns (100 & 101)
Josh Cribbs, Cle.	2007	Both kickoff returns (100 & 99)
Adrian Wilson, Ariz.	2006	INT return (99) & fumble return (99)
Justin Miller, NYJ	2006	Both kickoff returns (103 & 99)
Terry Fair, Det.	1998	Both kickoff returns (105 & 101)
Roell Preston, G.B.	1998	Both kickoff returns (101 & 100)
Raymond Clayburn, N.E.	1977	Both kickoff returns (101 & 100)

Wilson's 99-yard fumble return at Minnesota also ranked among the longest in NFL history.

LONGEST FUMBLE RETURNS IN NFL HISTORY

104	Jack Tatum,	Oak. vs. GB	9/24/72
	Aeneas Williams	Ariz. vs. Wash.	11/5/00
102	Travis Davis	Pit. vs. Car.	12/26/99
100	Chris Martin	K.C. vs. Mia.	10/13/91
99	Don Griffin	S.F. vs. Chi.	12/23/91
	Adrian Wilson	Ariz. vs. Min.	11/26/06

The Vikings game began when J.J. Arrington returned the opening kickoff 99 yards for a TD. When Wilson later scored on his 99-yard fumble return, it marked just the second time in NFL history that teammates scored TDs of 99+ yards. According to Elias, the other time was a Cowboys-Eagles game on 10/14/62 when Dallas' Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter had a 100-yard INT return.

second on the team with seven tackles, one sack, one pass defensed, one forced fumble and one QB hit @ Sea (11/16); forced RB Julius Jones to fumble at AZ 32 yard-line and was recovered by DT Darnell Dockett and resulted in a FG on ensuing drive ... before leaving the game in the fourth quarter due to a sprained shoulder registered nine tackles and one tackle for loss vs. NYG (11/23) ... recorded two tackles for loss as well as a season-high 10 tackles vs. Min (12/14) ... started his 100th career game vs. Sea (12/28) ... started first career playoff game and registered five tackles, one forced fumble and one QB hit vs. Atl (1/3/09); part of defense that held the Falcons, the second best rushing team in the NFL during the regular season with 152.7 yards per game average, to just 60 yards on 24 carries (2.5 avg.) ... registered two sacks and forced a fumble on one that was recovered by DE Bertrand Berry vs. Phi (1/18/09); marked the fourth multi-sack game of his career and first since 9/17/06 vs. Sea ... led team with seven solo tackles vs. Pit (2/1/09) in Super Bowl XLIII.

2007: Started first nine games, registering 54 tackles with two INTs before suffering season ending heel injury vs. Det (11/11) ... second on the team with season-high 10 total tackles and eight unassisted tackles as well as one tackle for loss @ Bal (9/23) ... registered five total tackles (three solos) and two tackles for loss while intercepting Ben Roethlisberger in end zone in a critical play following a Cardinals fumble that gave the Steelers the ball at the AZ 4-yard line with the score tied in the third quarter vs. Pit (9/30) ... recorded five tackles, an INT and one pass defensed @ StL (10/7); marked the first time in his career with an INT in consecutive games ... registered six tackles @ Was (10/21) as part of defense that held Washington to 160 total net yards, the lowest output by a Cardinals opponent since the L.A. Rams had 152 yards on 9/4/94 ... recorded a tackle for loss and one QB pressure that resulted in a Karlos Dansby INT before leaving the game in the third quarter due to a heel injury vs. Det (11/11) ... had made 59 consecutive starts while appearing in 73 straight games before being inactive with a right heel injury @ Cin (11/18) ... inactive vs. SF (11/25) and placed on injured reserve on 12/1.

2006: Selected to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 16 games, returning both an INT and fumble 99 yards for TDs ... had seven tackles, two sacks and an INT of QB Matt Hasselbeck @ Sea (9/17); the two sacks gave Wilson, who set an NFL record for DBs with eight sacks in 2005, eight sacks in his last nine games ... intercepted a Michael Vick pass near the Cardinals endzone and returned it a franchise record 99 yards for a TD in the second quarter @ Atl (10/1); also recorded five tackles ... on MNF vs. Chi (10/16) recorded six tackles, a sack of Rex Grossman, one pass defensed and a forced fumble ... totaled nine tackles and recovered a fourth quarter Chester Taylor fumble at the Cardinals one-yard line and ran in back 99 yards for a TD @ Min (11/26) ... came up with another big game, tying for the team-high with nine tackles while adding an INT, two passes defensed and a forced fumble @ StL (12/3); the INT, his fourth of the season which tied his career-high, came as the Rams were driving in Arizona territory minutes before halftime helping to set up a Neil Rackers 23-yard FG ... continued his push for the Pro Bowl with six tackles and a fumble recovery vs. Sea (12/10); fumble recovery came after Robert Griffith knocked the ball loose from Seattle RB Shawn Alexander and led to a Cardinals TD on the ensuing possession; also made the key tackle on fourth down that stopped Seattle's potential game winning drive.

ADRIAN DOES IT ALL

SS Adrian Wilson recorded two INTs, a sack, and a blocked FG in the 2010 week one win over St. Louis, becoming the first NFL player to record an INT, sack and blocked FG in a game since Julius Peppers accomplished the feat on 11/28/04 vs. Tampa Bay. Wilson also became the first Cardinals player in history to record two INTs, a sack and a blocked FG in the same game.

Wilson's block of Josh Brown's 34-yard FG attempt was the first FG block of his career. He also has one career blocked punt (10/26/03 vs. SF).

Wilson has 25 INTs for his career, the sixth-highest total in franchise history.

Franchise Interception Leaders

INTs	Player (Years)
52	Larry Wilson (1960-72)
46	Aeneas Williams (1991-2000)
40	Roger Wehrli (1969-82)

2003: Started all but one contest … produced the Cards first blocked punt since 1997 … recorded eight stops and a pass deflection vs. Bal (10/12) … had three tackles from scrimmage vs. SF (10/26) and blocked punt in the third quarter which rolled out of bounds at the 49er 11-yard line; Cards converted the possession into a FG in eventual 18–17 victory; whistled for two personal fouls in fourth quarter and ejected from the game … did not start vs. Car (12/14) due to an illness but came off bench to provide three tackles.

2002: Vaulted over 100-total tackle plateau in first season as a starter … recorded three INTs in 9–6 win vs. Dal (10/20); earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors, most INTs by a Cardinal since Kwamie Lassiter made four INTs in 1998 season finale vs. SD … inactive for season-opener @ Was (9/8) while still on mend from preseason right-shoulder dislocation vs. Den (8/24) … posted three INTs and a thundering sack of Quincy Carter on opening play of game vs. Dal (10/20) … season-best 12 combined tackles vs. StL (11/3) … set the table for both Cardinal TDs @ Phi (11/17); on

Established in 2008, the "Adrian Wilson Foundation" is dedicated to giving back and giving children a chance. The foundation's goal is to tackle the adversities facing children and Wilson has helped try to achieve that goal with a variety of activities.

Last September, Wilson partnered with Cold Stone creamery for an ice cream social to benefit the foundation. Adrian's "Big Red Blitz" ice cream with Oreo crème filling and red sprinkles was sold at Cold Stone's headquarters in Scottsdale and an autograph session and raffle took place to help raise money.

In 2009, Wilson worked with local Papa John's stores for the "AZ Anyway Combo." A portion of each pizza ordered during the season was donated to the foundation and approximately $20,000 was raised.

Through Wilson's "High Points Shoes" over the past two seasons, he donated over $50,000 worth of footwear and clothing to the needy over the holiday season.

Wilson and the foundation helped raise $10,000 as part of "Team Wilson" at the PF Chang's Rock and Roll Marathon benefitting the Make a Wish Foundation which helped send a young girl and her family on a vacation to Disney Land. He also partnered with the W Hotel in Scottsdale for the "Suits and Sneakers" event to donate 500 pairs of shoes to sports teams in Phoenix that didn't have proper footwear.

In April of 2010, Wilson hosted the "Shave-Off For Jack" event to raise money for two-year old Jack Morton, a close family friend. Wilson joined teammate Steve Breaston to shave the head of any willing participant for a donation. All of the money raised at the event went to offset Morton's medical costs.

PRO CAREER:

Originally drafted by Seattle in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft … signed by Cleveland as an unrestricted free agent on 3/16/09. After two seasons with the Browns, signed with the Cardinals as an unrestricted free agent on 7/30/11.

2010: Played in all 16 games with 15 starts, including 12 at RG and three at RT … part of an offensive line that led the way for five individual 100-yard rushing performances and a running game that averaged 4.0 yards per rush attempt … helped Peyton Hillis rush for 1,177 rushing yards and 11 TDs, which tied for the fourth-highest total in the AFC and sixth in the NFL … offensive line allowed either zero or only one sack seven times over the course of the season.

2009: Played in 13 games with nine starts in his first season with the Browns … opened seven games at RG before filling in as the starter at RT early in the first quarter following an injury to John St. Clair at Kansas City (12/20) … key part of a running game that averaged 4.2 yards per carry and 130.4 rushing yards per game, including a club-record 286 yards rushing by Jerome Harrison, @ KC (12/20) … unit also allowed just 30 sacks, including only seven over the final seven games … the 30 total sacks allowed tied for the 10th-lowest total in the NFL in '09 … helped the team record four consecutive contests with more than 160 yards rushing, becoming the first Browns team to accomplish that feat since 1968 … helped the running game rack up 351 yards, the second-highest total in franchise annals, as it averaged 7.2 yards per attempt at Kansas City (12/20) … appeared in his 100th career regular season game, @ Cin (11/29).

2008: Saw action in 15 games with 14 starts in his final season with the Seahawks … started eight contests at RG and the final six at LG … part of a line that yielded a total of just 36 sacks and contributed to a running game that averaged 4.2 yards per carry.

2007: Played in 14 games with one start during the regular season and appeared in both postseason games, playing at LG and on special teams @ GB (1/12/08) … member of a line that allowed only 36 sacks on the year.

2006: Started in nine games at both the left (8) and right (1) guard positions … Seahawks averaged 141 rushing yards per game and had a 7-2 record while he was in the starting lineup … inactive for NFC Wild Card Game vs. Dal (1/6/07) … dressed but did not play in Divisional Playoff Game @ Chi (1/14/07).

NOTE CARDS

- Signed a two-year contract with the Cardinals as an unrestricted free agent on 7/30/11 after spending the previous two seasons with the Cleveland Browns. Played his first eight NFL seasons with the Seattle Seahawks after the team selected him in the fourth-round (128th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.
- Has played in 107 regular season games with 61 starts at both guard and tackle in addition to seven postseason contests with two starts.
- Nicknamed "Pork Chop" by his mother who thought Floyd resembled Pork Chop Cash, a local pro wrestler, when Floyd was a baby.

2005: Played in 11 games with one start … spent time at every position on the offensive line except center … also saw time on the FG unit … member of a line that helped Shaun Alexander rush for a franchise-record and league-best 1,880 yards … o-line allowed just 27 sacks on the season and led the way for a running game that averaged 4.7 yards per carry … part of the jumbo package when Alexander tied the NFL record with his 27th total score of season, @ GB (1/1/06) … made an appearance in all three postseason contests, including Super Bowl XL vs. Pittsburgh (2/5/06).

2004: Saw action in all 16 games with eight starts … member of a line that paved the way for Shaun Alexander to rush for 1,696 yards, a figure which ranked second in NFL.

2003: Played in 11 games with four starts at RT (3) and RG (1) … also spent time at TE in jumbo packages and on special teams.

2001: Saw action in five contests as a reserve during his rookie season.

NFL AND NFLPA DONATE TO 9/11 MEMORIAL FUNDS

The first Sunday of the NFL regular season falls on the 10th anniversary of September 11, 2001 and the National Football League and the NFL Players Association will contribute $1 million to three 9/11 memorials and two charities.

The NFL and NFLPA will contribute $500,000 to the 9/11 Museum & Memorial in Lower Manhattan, and $250,000 to be divided between the Flight 93 National Memorial in Shanksville, PA and the Pentagon Memorial Fund in Washington, D.C.

In addition, the NFL and NFLPA will donate all proceeds from the sale of auction items from games played on Sunday, September 11. These items, which fans can bid on at www.NFL.com/Auction, will include game-worn autographed player jerseys, coaches and player hats, and commemorative game coins used during those games.

NFL Auction proceeds will be divided equally between Tuesday's Children and MyGoodDeed. Tuesday's Children is a leading organization providing support and services to those who lost a loved one on 9/11, as well as to rescue and recovery workers who responded to the events. As the principle organizer of the September 11 National Day of Service and Remembrance, MyGoodDeed is providing a positive, forward-looking way for Americans to honor and remember 9/11 victims, survivors, and first-responders.

NFL Auction proceeds from 9/11/11 are expected to total at least $250,000. Including the $750,000 in charitable donations to the national 9/11 memorials, total NFL-NFLPA donations will reach $1 million.

The NFL-NFLPA contributions complement donations made to the 9/11 Museum and Memorial by the New York Giants through the Tisch Family Foundation and the New York Jets.

5th Overall

21 | CORNERBACK

- The Cardinals first round selection in the 2011 draft and the 5th overall pick; was the first cornerback taken in draft.
- One of the nation's most decorated players following his junior season in 2010, winning both the Bednarik Award (nation's top defender) and the Thorpe Award (nation's top defensive back). Was the first LSU player to win either award and became the first defensive back to win the Bednarik Award since Michigan's Charles Woodson in 1997.
- In addition to being one of the nation's top defenders in 2010, Peterson also earned first-team All-SEC honors returning punts and kickoffs for the Tigers. Returned 26 punts for 418 yards and two TDs, with his 16.1-yard average ranking first in the SEC and fourth in the nation. Returned 32 kickoffs for 932 yards, an average of 29.1 yards per return, which led the SEC and ranked ninth nationally.
- Is a cousin of former Cardinals (and current Steelers) CB Bryant McFadden, Oakland DB Walter McFadden and WRs Santana Moss (Washington) and Sinorice Moss (Philadelphia).
- At the 2011 NFL Combine, ran the 40-yard dash in 4.34 seconds, the second fastest time among any player at the event behind Miami DB DeMarcus Van Dyke (4.28).

PHOENIX AREA YOUTH EARN EQUIPMENT GRANTS FROM USA FOOTBALL & ARIZONA CARDINALS

Last September, USA Football, the sport's national governing body on youth and amateur levels, and the Arizona Cardinals awarded football equipment grants to youth and high school football programs throughout the Phoenix area based on merit and need.

USA Football partners with the Cardinals and all NFL clubs to award equipment grants to youth and high school football programs across the United States. The program has awarded more than $3 million in football equipment through the NFL Youth Football Fund since 2006.

Each selected youth league received a $1,000 package that offered a variety of football equipment and uniform options to choose from. High schools received similar packages valued at $1,500. All equipment grants are fulfilled by Riddell, the official helmet and protective equipment partner of USA Football.

USA Football is the official youth football development partner of the Cardinals, the NFL, each of the league's other 31 teams and the NFL Players Association. The NFL Youth Football Fund, a joint partnership between the NFL and the NFL Players Association, provided financial support for approximately 800 football programs to earn equipment grants from USA Football and NFL teams during the 2010 season.

CARDINALS PARTICIPATE IN NFL GRASSROOTS FIELD GROUNDBREAKING

Arizona Cardinals owner Bill Bidwill, team President Michael Bidwill, along with tackle Levi Brown, team mascot Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders were at the Salvation Army Phoenix Kroc Community Center on November 23, 2010 for a field groundbreaking on behalf of the NFL's Grassroots program.

The Salvation Army received a $100,000 grant from the Arizona Cardinals, the NFL Youth Football Fund and Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC) to construct a multipurpose athletic field at the Kroc Community Center. The project included installation of irrigation, drainage, sod replacement and piped utilities. The grant is part of $2.5 million in field refurbishment awards allocated in 2010.

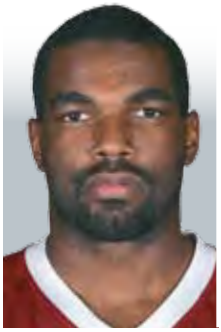

In addition, the Cardinals and Brown hosted a Gatorade Jr. Training Camp at Rose Linda Elementary School in Phoenix following the field groundbreaking.

The NFL Grassroots Program, a partnership between the NFL Youth Football Fund and LISC, the nation's leading community development support corporation, has resulted in the construction or renovation of 225 football fields nationwide in the past 12 years. During that time, the NFL Youth Football Fund has granted more than $28 million to revitalize playing fields in underserved neighborhoods.

Established in 1998 by the NFL and the NFL Players Association, the NFL Youth Football Fund seeks to use football as a catalyst to promote positive youth development, support youth and high school football needs nationwide and also ensure the health of grassroots football in future generations.

LISC combines corporate, government and philanthropic resources to help nonprofit community development corporations revitalize distressed neighborhoods. Since 1980, LISC has raised more than $9.7 billion to build or rehab more than 271,000 affordable homes and develop 40 million square feet of retail, community and educational space nationwide.

2010 INDIVIDUAL MILESTONES

Head Coach Ken Whisenhunt

- Reached 36 victories (regular and postseason) as the Cardinals head coach, the third-highest win total in franchise history behind Jim Hanifan (39) and Don Coryell (42).
- With a 4-4 record at University of Phoenix Stadium in 2010, Whisenhunt joined Don Coryell as the only coaches in franchise history to post four consecutive seasons with a .500 record or better while playing at home.

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- After hauling in 90 receptions on the season, reached 613 career catches and passed Anquan Boldin (586) to become the franchise all-time receptions leader.
- Became the first player in NFL history to record 90+ receptions five times in their first seven seasons and became just one of five players in NFL history to record 90+ receptions in at least four consecutive seasons.
- With 1,137 receiving yards, became the first player in franchise history to reach 1,000 yards receiving in four consecutive seasons. Joined Anquan Boldin as the only players in franchise history with five career 1,000-yard seasons.
- At 27 years, 110 days old, became the youngest player in NFL history to reach 600 career receptions.

K Jay Feely

- Totaled 107 points on the season, marking his seventh career 100-point campaign and third in a row.
- In week 14 vs. Denver totaled 25 points (TD, 5 FGs, 4 PATs), the second-highest point total in NFL history by a kicker (Rob Bironas, 26, 10/21/07).
- In the 25-point outing, Feely's scored 22 consecutive points, the most consecutive points scored in a game by an individual player in the Super Bowl era (post 1967).
- Connected on 29 of 29 PATs on the season, giving him a streak of 264 consecutive PATs without a miss dating back to 2003, the longest active streak in the NFL.
- Between weeks three and 14, connected on 18 consecutive FG attempts, the second-longest streak in franchise history behind Neil Rackers (31, 2005).

SS Adrian Wilson

- In his 10th season, established a career-high with 118 tackles and was named to his fourth career (third consecutive) Pro Bowl. Joined Hall of Famer Larry Wilson as the only safeties in team history to be named to at least four Pro Bowls.

FS Kerry Rhodes

- In his first season with the Cards, totaled a career-high 111 tackles, four INTs, and a career-high four fumble recoveries, becoming the only player in the NFL in 2010 to record at least four INTs and four fumble recoveries.
- Tied an NFL record by returning two fumble recoveries for TDs and became the first player in franchise history with fumble recoveries for TDs in back-to-back games.

RB LaRod Stephens-Howling

- Despite missing three games, led the NFL with 1,548 kickoff return yards, averaging 27.2 yards per return, the fourth-best total in the NFL.
- With two KOR TDs on the season, joined Les Goble (1954) and Ollie Matson (1952, '58) as the only players in franchise history with two KOR TDs in a single season.

RB Tim Hightower

- Rushed for a career-high 736 yards on 153 attempts and his 4.8 yards per carry were the highest for a Cardinals RB (min. 100 attempts) since Stump Mitchell averaged 5.5 yards per carry in 1985 (183 for 1,006).
- His 80-yard TD run in week two at Atlanta tied for the third-longest run in franchise history and was the longest run for the Cardinals in 42 years (John David Crow, 83-yard TD run, 10/4/58). His 80-yard TD run tied Minnesota's Adrian Peterson and Kansas City's Jamaal Charles for the longest run in the NFL in 2010.

CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie

- Returned two INTs for TDs on the season, tying the second-highest total in a single season in franchise history behind Antrel Rolle (3, 2007) and Robert Massey (3, 1992).
- Two INT returns for TDs in 2010 gave him four INT returns for TDs in his career, tying Antrel Rolle for the third-most in franchise history behind Larry Wilson (5) and Aeneas Williams (6).

LB Paris Lenon

- Recorded a team-high 127 tackles in his first year with the Cardinals, his third career 100-tackle season and third in the last four years. Lenon established a career high with two INTs and tied his previous career high with two sacks on the season as well. Prior to 2010, Lenon had two career INTs in his first eight NFL seasons.

2010 GAME SUMMARIES

CARDINALS 17, RAMS 13

EDWARD JONES DOME – (52,440)

The Cards opened the NFL season on the road for the 18th time in 23 years with a week 1 date at St. Louis against 2010's top pick Sam Bradford. Arizona also featured many new faces but it was a pair of vets who led the team to its 8th straight win over the Rams and 6th straight in St. Louis. All-Pro safety Adrian Wilson – the longest-tenured Cardinal – had 2 INTs, a sack and a blocked FG. Just as critical was the play of 4th-year WR Steve Breaston, who not only recorded a career-high 132 receiving yards on 7 catches but made a pair of TD-saving plays after Cardinal turnovers. WR Larry Fitzgerald returned from a knee injury suffered in the preseason opener. He and new QB Derek Anderson struggled at times with their timing but the pair clicked when it counted, connecting on a 21-yard go-ahead TD with 6:13 to play.

Arizona's opening drive reached the SL22 but Tim Hightower fumbled on a hit by O.J. Otogwe and Bradley Fletcher returned it 43 yards before Breaston chased him down at the AZ32. Josh Brown's subsequent 34-yard FG try was blocked by Wilson. Adrian then halted the Rams' next drive with a pick off of Bradford. Early in the 2nd quarter, Anderson led a 10-play drive that ended with Jay Feely's 22-yard FG and a 3-0 AZ lead. Later in the 2nd, a 36-yard Bradford pass to Danny Amendola set-up a 46-yard Brown FG that tied it with 5:28 left in the first half. The Cards then pulled ahead with a 5-play 76-yard TD drive entirely on the ground. After consecutive LaRod Stephens-Howling runs of 21 and 15 yards, Hightower gained 19 and 20 and then punched it in from a yard out. Just before intermission, though, the Rams moved deep into AZ territory thanks mostly to Mark Clayton's 39-yard catch to the 9. On the final play of the half, Bradford converted a 4th-n-goal at the 1 with a TD pass to WR Laurent Robinson that tied it at 10.

Midway thru the 3rd, Brown's 25-yard FG put the Rams up 13-10. They were poised to add to it a short time later when DE C.J. Ah You sacked Anderson, forcing a fumble that DT Clifton Ryan scooped up at the 28. He was racing toward the goal-line before a hustling Breaston stripped him at the 4 and the fumble was recovered in the end zone for a touchback by C Lyle Sendlein. Early in the 4th, the Cards were deep in STL territory but rookie WR Max Komar fumbled at the 4 and the Rams recovered. The Cards then went ahead with 6:13 to play when Anderson ended a 7-play, 86-yard drive with a 21-yard TD pass to Larry Fitzgerald. The QB was 6-7 for 101 yards on the drive with 2-38 to Breaston. Bradford and the Rams would not go quietly and moved to the AZ21 at the 2:00 warning. Facing a 4th-n-10 from that spot with 1:47 left, new FS Kerry Rhodes INT'd Bradford and returned the pick 65 yards to the SL29 to presumably ice the game. However, on the next play Hightower fumbled after a 4-yard gain. The Rams advanced to the AZ36 with :05 left but Bradford's final toss into the end zone was INT'd by Wilson to end the game.

GEORGIA DOME – (66,824)

The Cardinals were one of just 3 NFL teams to open the season with back-to-back road games and emerged with a split after a decisive week 2 defeat at the Georgia Dome. Arizona was 0-8 on 3rd downs, lost the turnover battle 3-1, and was hampered by a rash of penalties from referee Jerome Boger's crew, who flagged the Cards 10 times for 109 yards. Falcons QB Matt Ryan tied a career-high with 3 TD passes but it was 3rd string RB Jason Snelling who stole the show. He was pressed into action after Michael Turner & Jerrious Norwood went down with injuries and finished with 129 rushing yards and 3 TDs (2 rush/1 rec.).

Atlanta scored on 4 of its first 5 drives en route to a 24-7 halftime lead. The Falcons moved 70 yards in 9 plays on the game's opening series and capped it with a 7-yard Ryan TD pass to WR Roddy White. The Cards appeared to answer quickly with LaRod Stephens-Howling's 98-yard TD on the ensuing kickoff but it was wiped out by a holding call. After the teams traded punts, AZ had it at the ATL37 but Derek Anderson's 3rd-n-6 pass was INT'd by CB Christopher Owens and returned to the AZ43. That led to a 24-yard Matt Bryant FG and 10-0 lead. This time the Cards had a quick response that held up. After a touchback, Tim Hightower raced 80 yards on the next play for the 3rd longest TD run in franchise history and longest since John David Crow's 83-yarder in 1958. The Falcons answered with a 72-yard scoring drive and went up 17-7 when Ryan beat a Cards blitz on 3rd-n-3 from the AZ19 with a TD pass to Snelling out of the backfield. A pass interference foul in the EZ on Atlanta's next series set-up a 1-yard Snelling TD that made it 24-7 at intermission.

On the 2nd play after halftime, Anderson's pass went off the hands of WR Stephen Williams and right to S William Moore whose return to the AZ 14 set up a 12-yard TD pass to Brian Finneran. After a 35-yard Bryant FG made it 34-7, Snelling's third score of the day came on a 7-yard TD run late in the 4th that provided the game's final points. Max Hall came on in relief of Anderson with 3:00 left but his 2nd attempt of the day was INT'd.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (62,439)

After opening with 2 straight on the road, the Cards faced Oakland in the home opener and held on for a 1-point win thanks to a missed FG on the game's final play from one of the league's most reliable kickers. Arizona's LaRod Stephens-Howling opened the game with a 102-yard kickoff return TD. The lead then changed hands 4 times and appeared as if it would once more when Sebastian Janikowski lined up for a 32-yard game-winner with :04 left. But after making 19 straight between 30-39 yards over the previous 2+ years, he missed left and the Cards improved to 2-1.

Arizona was bolstered by the return of RB Beanie Wells, who missed the first 2 games (knee) and for the first time since '04 the team won when gaining more rushing yards than passing. QB Derek Anderson did connect on passing TDs to Steve Breaston and Larry Fitzgerald; the latter came with 1:01 remaining in the 3rd and proved to be the game-winner. After Stephens-Howling's TD – the 7th game-opening kickoff TD in team history – the Raiders answered with a 22-yard TD pass to TE Zach Miller from new starting QB Bruce Gradkowski. Janikowski put Oakland up 10-7 with a 22-yard FG that was set up by an AZ special teams turnover, the first of 2 times the Raiders recovered a punt that deflected off a Cardinals blocker. Jay Feely then tied it with a 42-yard FG on a drive highlighted by Wells' 24-yard run on his first carry and a 27-yard Raider pass interference call. After Janikowski put Oakland up 13-10 with a 54-yard FG, Anderson put AZ ahead 17-13 with his 2-yard TD pass to Breaston. New Cards LB Paris Lenon ended a 2nd quarter Raider drive with an INT but the Cards gave it back when a shovel pass was picked off by Oakland on the ensuing possession. That turnover set up a 2-yard Darren McFadden TD run just before the half.

Midway through the 3rd, a 70-yard catch and run by WR Louis Murphy moved Oakland to the AZ13 but that drive ended with Janikowski's miss from 41. Anderson then moved the Cards 69 yards in 7 plays with 3-3 passing for 41 yards and ended it with an 8-yard TD to Fitzgerald. Midway thru the 4th, the Raiders had a 1st-n-goal at the AZ1 thanks to a pass interference penalty but had to settle for a 23-yard FG when the Cards defense kept them out of the end zone. With 4:36 to play, Janikowski tried a 58-yard go-ahead FG that was long enough but right. AZ took over near midfield and on 3rd-n-5 with 3:40 to go, Breaston was open but couldn't hold on to the tipped pass from Anderson. The Raiders converted a 3rd-n-9 and then a 4th-n-10; on the next play FJ Buddy Horton flagged Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie for pass interference, a 39-yard penalty to the AZ13 with 0:55 left. The Raiders took the clock down to :04 before sending out Janikowski for the ill-fated final FG try.

CHARGERS 41, CARDINALS 10

QUALCOMM STADIUM – (63,189)

In a week 4 game at San Diego, Arizona squared off against the only NFL team ranked in the top 5 both offensively and defensively. The Chargers proved worthy of the distinction. Their top ranked offense had 419 total yards and TDs on its first 3 possessions including two to TE Antonio Gates. The #4 ranked defense held AZ to 124 yards, had 9 sacks and forced 3 turnovers; one they returned for a TD and another set one up. It all added up to a loss that dropped the Cardinals to 2-2. They remained in a 3-way tie for first place in the NFC West with the Rams & Seahawks and two ahead of 0-4 San Fran.

Playing without #2 WR Steve Breaston and #3 WR Early Doucet, the Cards opened the game by moving deep into SD territory thanks to 3 catches by Larry Fitzgerald and a pair of key 3rd down conversions. An apparent 22-yard run by Tim Hightower was wiped out by a holding call and on the next play SS Steve Gregory INT'd a Derek Anderson pass intended for Fitzgerald at the SD 11. The Chargers then moved 89 yards in 8 plays and took a 7-0 lead on Philip Rivers' 33-yard TD pass to TE Antonio Gates. The next AZ drive stalled after reaching the SD35 but the Cards defense made a big play on the ensuing series. On 2nd down from the SD 43, Darren Sproles took a pitch but after 2 yards was hit by CB Greg Toler, forcing a fumble. FS Kerry Rhodes scooped it up near the right sideline and raced 42 yards for a game-tying TD. The Chargers quickly surged back ahead with a 5-play drive that ended on Mike Tolbert's 5-yard scoring run. They went up 21-7 on their next possession when Gates' second TD of the day – a 26-yarder from Rivers – capped a 9-play, 65-yard drive. Things went from bad to worse for the Cards on the 3rd play of the next series when Anderson's 3rd-n-13 pass was INT'd by LB Shaun Phillips and returned 31 yards for a TD. When the AZ offense returned to the field with 2:30 to play in the half, rookie Max Hall had replaced Anderson at QB.

With Hall at the helm in the 2nd half and San Diego holding a sizable lead, the Cards offense continued to find the going tough. San Diego provided the only points of the 3rd quarter on a 48-yard Nate Kaeding FG and rookie Ryan Mathews first career TD run. That 15-yard TD came one play after LB Kevin Burnett sacked Hall, forcing a fumble that DT Luis Castillo recovered. Late in the 4th, Hall led a drive that culminated in a 53-yard Jay Feely FG that provided the game's final points.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (62,621)

In a week 5 home game against the Super Bowl champs, few gave the Cardinals a chance at victory with undrafted rookie Max Hall making his first career start at QB. But with a gritty effort from Hall and a superb performance from the defense and special teams Arizona earned a 10-point win that moved them to 3-2 heading into the bye. The defense forced 4 turnovers - 2 of which were returned for TDs – and allowed the Saints just one TD in 4 red zone trips. The Cards became just the 2nd NFL team (Bears '93) to score 30 points without a rushing or passing TD.

The game did not begin well for Hall, who was picked off by CB Jabari Greer on the 3rd play from scrimmage. The Saints capitalized on the takeaway with a 31-yard John Carney FG and on their next series went up 10-0 when Drew Brees' 1-yard TD pass to Jeremy Shockey capped an 11-play drive. LaRod Stephens-Howling returned the ensuing kickoff 48 yards to midfield which led to a 37-yard Feely FG. The next AZ drive ended with a punt from Ben Graham that Michael Adams downed at the 1, backing the Saints up to their own goal line. On the next play, Brees' pass glanced off the hands of RB Ladell Betts and into the hands of LB Paris Lenon at the 4. On 3rd-n-goal at the 1, Hall scrambled and dove toward the end zone but was separated from the ball (and his helmet) on a hard hit from Anthony Hargrove. LT Levi Brown scooped it up and lunged into the end zone for his first career TD at any level. With the game tied at 10, the Saints went up just before the half on a 32-yard Carney FG. Following the goal-line hit, Hall sat out the final series of the 2nd quarter but returned after intermission.

After sending the Saints 3-n-out to start the 3rd quarter, the Cards tied the game at 13 on Feely's 44-yard FG. New Orleans then marched deep into AZ territory and had it 1st-n-goal at the 5 but was forced to settle for a 29-yard FG try that Carney missed wide left. The Cards responded with another sustained drive and took their first lead of the day with Feely's 29-yard FG early in the 4th. On the 2nd play of the next drive, Darnell Dockett hit Betts in the backfield, forcing a fumble that Kerry Rhodes returned 27 yards for his 2nd fumble recovery TD in as many weeks. With AZ now up 10, Greg Toler ended the next Saints drive with an INT off of Brees. The teams then traded punts but with 1:55 left, Brees made it 23-20 with his 35-yard TD pass to Robert Meachem. Larry Fitzgerald recovered the Saints onside kick attempt but a punt gave the Saints one last chance when they took over at their own 9 with 0:24 left. Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie then snuffed out that chance on the next play when he INT'd Brees and returned it 28 yards for the final score.

QWEST FIELD – (67,038)

In a week 7 match-up of 3-2 teams battling for first place in the NFC West, the Seahawks took advantage of 5 Cardinals turnovers to claim a 22-10 win. That gave them sole possession of first place in the division on a day when the Rams and 49ers both lost. Only a strong showing from the AZ defense kept the game close. Despite frequent short fields due to turnovers (3 of which set Seattle up inside the AZ 20) the Cards D surrendered just one TD and forced Seattle to settle for Olindo Mare FGs on 5 other occasions. The lone TD came when Seattle took over at the AZ 2 following a muffed punt. After recording 8 sacks in the season's first 5 games, the Cardinals defense recorded 5 of Matt Hasselbeck on this day.

On the first drive of the game, Seahawks RB Marshawn Lynch's 39-yard run helped move the Hawks to the AZ 1 but tackles for losses backed them into a 20-yard Mare FG. On the 5th play of the next AZ series, Earl Thomas had an INT near midfield off Max Hall, the undrafted rookie QB who was making his 2nd career start and first on the road. However Alan Branch sacked Hasselbeck 3 plays later forcing a fumble that Darnell Dockett recovered at the SEA 45. The Cards were not able to capitalize and went 3-n-out. After trading punts, Tim Hightower ripped off a 24-yard run to the SEA 41 but at the end of a 13-yard rush on the next play he turned the ball over on a fumble. The Cards defense forced a 3-n-out but rookie Andre Roberts muffed the ensuing punt and after a mad scrum, the Seahawks recovered at the AZ 2. A Mike Williams TD pass from Hasselbeck made it 10-0 heading into the half.

On the 3rd play after intermission, Hall was sacked and fumbled, turning it over at the AZ11. A Joey Porter sack helped to force Seattle into another FG. RB Jason Wright then mishandled the ensuing kickoff and the Seahawks took over at the AZ 16. The Cards defense again kept them out of the end zone and held Seattle to just 3 points. When the AZ offense returned to the field down 16-0, it was with Derek Anderson at QB as a hit to the head on the sack/fumble play sidelined Hall. Behind Anderson's passing (3-3, 42 yards) and Beanie Wells running (5-26), Arizona moved 70 yards in 8 plays and got on the scoreboard with Wells' 2-yard TD run. Seattle responded with a long drive of its own (14 plays, 78 yards) that ended with another Mare FG (24). LaRod Stephens-Howling's 71-yard kickoff return to the SEA 33 set-up a 24-yard Jay Feely FG early in the 4th. The next Seattle drive ended with yet another Mare FG midway thru the 4th that made it 22-10.

BUCCANEERS 38, CARDINALS 35

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (61,857)

In a wild back-n-forth game, the Cards erased a 17-point 2nd half deficit but were done in by 4 costly INTs and a handful of big plays by the Bucs. Starter Max Hall threw two picks that were returned for TDs before exiting in favor of Derek Anderson. He led the comeback effort but a costly INT in the closing minutes sealed Arizona's fate. WR Steve Breaston returned from a 3-game absence (knee) and had a career-best 147 yards on 8 catches.

Hall completed passes of 14 and 17 yards on Arizona's 2nd drive and capped it with his first career TD – a 3-yarder to Larry Fitzgerald. The next AZ series ended when LB Geno Hayes INT'd a Hall pass and returned it 41 yards for the game-tying TD. Early in the 2nd a muffed punt by Tampa was recovered by LaRod Stephens-Howling at the TB16. That led to a 1-yard scoring run from second-year RB Beanie Wells, who made his first career start. After going 3-n-out on their first 3 drives, Tampa Bay picked up its first 1st down on a 31-yard Josh Freeman to Mike Williams pass. Two plays later the two connected on a 47-yard TD that tied it at 14. The Bucs surged ahead on the next drive when Aqib Talib returned another Hall INT 45 yards for a TD. Anderson then took over at QB and moved the Cards offense thanks largely to a leaping catch from Breaston that gained 33 yards to the TB 11. The drive produced no points though as the Cards went for it on 4th-n-2 at the 3 and Anderson's pass was incomplete. The Bucs then marched 94 yards in 12 plays and went up 24-14 on Connor Barth's 21-yard FG to close the half.

Tampa went up 17 with 4:35 to go in the 3rd on LeGarrette Blount's 15-yard TD run that capped an 8-play, 80-yard drive. The Cards answered with a long drive (7-76) that ended on Stephens-Howling's 30-yard TD run. On the next play from scrimmage, Blount fumbled and Gerald Hayes was on the spot. The MLB who made his season debut following July back surgery returned the fumble 21 yards for a TD that trimmed the lead to 31-28. A Joey Porter sack killed the next drive and on the first play of the next AZ series Anderson hit Breaston with a 36-yard pass to the 12. On 3rd-n-3 from the 5, Anderson found Fitzgerald with the go-ahead TD. Down 35-31 with just over 7:00 to play Freeman picked up a 1st down on 4th-n-inches at the TB45 and on the next snap he found WR Arrelious Benn for a 53-yard completion to the 1. Blount carried it in a play later. AZ took over at its 19 but on 1st down Stephens-Howling was separated from a pass and LB Barrett Ruud corralled it for an INT. But after 2 stuffed runs and a Will Davis sack that lost 14 yards, Kerry Rhodes tipped Barth's 53-yard FG try and the Cards took over at their own 32 down 3 with 3:16 to go. They reached the TB20 with 2:15 to play but Anderson's 1st down pass to Fitzgerald was INT'd by Talib at the 6.

VIKINGS 27, CARDINALS 24 (OT)

MALL OF AMERICA FIELD – (64,120)

After coming up with key plays in all three phases throughout the game, the Cardinals were on the verge of a key road win at Minnesota and held a 14-point lead with 4 minutes to play. However, Brett Favre, who finished the game with a career-best 446 passing yards, led a pair of TD drives to force OT and the Vikings won it with a FG on their first possession of the extra period. The loss dropped the Cards to 3-5 at midseason but left them just a game off the NFC West lead.

On Minnesota's first possession, Kerry Rhodes picked off a Favre pass and returned it 66 yards to the 3 but was stripped by WR Greg Camarillo, sending the ball out the back of the end zone for a touchback. The game remained scoreless until Adrian Peterson's 12-yard catch-n-run TD made it 7-0 early in the 2nd. LaRod Stephens-Howling then took the ensuing kickoff 96 yards for a game-tying TD. The Vikings responded by marching to the AZ3 but the Cards D stopped Peterson for no gain on 3rd-n-1 forcing a 21-yard Ryan Longwell FG. With 1:19 to go in the half, the Cards took over at their own 19. On 3rd-n-10 from there, Fitzgerald made a diving catch down the left sideline for 30 yards to keep the drive alive. It ended when Anderson hit Andre Roberts with a 5-yard pass that the rookie WR turned into a 30-yard TD that put AZ up 14-10 at intermission.

On the opening kickoff of the 2nd half, returner Percy Harvin fumbled on a hit by O'Brien Schofield and Michael Adams returned the loose ball 30 yards for a TD; it was Arizona's 4th return of an opponent fumble for a TD in '10, tying the NFL single-season record. Later in the 3rd, the Vikes had a 2nd-n-goal play at the 2 but Joey Porter hit Favre as he threw and Rashad Johnson picked the pass in the end zone to kill the drive. On the next drive, the Cardinals reached the MIN4 and came away with a 22-yard Jay Feely FG that made it 24-10 with 12:40 to play. Minnesota then launched a 16-play, 82-yard drive and faced a 4th-n-goal at the AZ1 with about 6:30 to go. However, they turned it over on downs when Favre's pass was knocked down in the end zone by LB Paris Lenon. After taking over at the 1, the Cards could not pick up a 1st down and the Vikes took over at the AZ 40 after the punt. They quickly capitalized as Peterson's 4-yard TD run made it 24-17. When AZ went 3-n-out on the next drive, MIN took over at its own 23 with 3:24 to play. A 33-yard Peterson pass play took it to the AZ 29 and the Vikes tied the game on Favre's 25-yard scoring strike to TE Visanthe Shiancoe with 0:27 left, setting up OT. The Cards won the toss and received but went 3-n-out on their possession. MIN got the ball at its own 31; a 30-yard Peterson run on 1st down moved it to the AZ 39 and a 22-yard completion to Bernard Berrian preceded Longwell's 35-yard FG that won it.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (61,904)

The Cardinals opened the 2nd half of the 2010 season with a key NFC West home game against Seattle; a win over the 4-4 Seahawks would have put Arizona amid the division leaders. However, the Cards struggled to match the Seahawks defensively or offensively and suffered a 36-18 loss; it was their 4th straight defeat and dropped them to 3-6.

It looked promising early for Arizona. LaRod Stephens-Howling returned the opening kickoff 52 yards to the AZ48 and a 33-yard completion from Derek Anderson to Larry Fitzgerald subsequently moved it to the 2. On the next play, Tim Hightower ran it in for Arizona's first opening drive TD of the year. The Seahawks came right back with a 12-play, 77-yard drive that ended on a 1-yard Marshawn Lynch TD run and included 3 catches from Mike Williams to convert 3rd downs. Late in the 1st quarter the Cards couldn't convert after starting at the SEA33 and following a punt, the Seahawks took over at their own 10. A 44-yard completion down the middle to TE Chris Baker set up a 41-yard Olindo Mare FG. Consecutive catches of 21 and 36 yards by Steve Breaston on the next AZ series moved it to the SEA 3 and led to Jay Feely's 23-yard FG that tied the game at 10. However, Seattle surged ahead when Deon Butler and Matt Hasselbeck connected on a 63-yard pass play that made it 17-10. The Seahawks threatened again late in the half. With 1:10 left, they went for it on 4th-n-1 at the AZ16 but the Cards D stopped Hasselbeck short on a QB sneak.

Hasselbeck missed the first two series of the 2nd half with a left wrist injury and Charlie Whitehurst took over. He led SEA to the AZ22 before Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie ended the drive with an INT that he returned 26 yards to the AZ44. After a 3-n-out from the Cards offense, the defense appeared to come up with another takeaway on a Williams fumble recovered by Joey Porter but it was changed to an incompletion after Seattle's challenge. Mare's subsequent 34-yard FG made it 20-10. On the next snap Anderson's pass to Fitzgerald was tipped and INT'd by Kelly Jennings at the AZ32; the takeaway led to a Mare FG (19). Two plays later, Anderson was sacked forcing a fumble that Seattle recovered at the AZ17. The defense again forced them to settle for a Mare FG. Leon Washington's 48-yard punt return following a Cardinals 3-n-out set the Seahawks up at the AZ11 and led to yet another Mare FG, this one a 19-yarder that made it 29-10. Arizona's no-huddle offense then moved 79 yards in 12 plays and produced a TD that trimmed the lead to 29-18 thanks to a 2-yard Anderson pass to Early Doucet and successful 2-point conversion. The Cards on-side kick attempt was unsuccessful and that effectively ended Arizona's comeback hopes.

NEW ARROWHEAD STADIUM – (66,247)

On an unseasonably warm but breezy afternoon at Arrowhead, Arizona fell to 3-7 with a road loss to Kansas City that marked the team's 5th straight defeat. The statistical battle was much closer than the final score. However, the Cardinals were hampered by a lack of efficiency on 3rd down (4-15), penalties (11-96) and a handful of missed opportunities. The Chiefs, who were led by former Cardinals assistant Todd Haley, improved to 6-4 with the victory in a game that featured no turnovers by either team.

Arizona opened the contest by taking the opening drive and moving 51 yards to the KC25 but was forced to settle for a 36-yard Jay Feely FG that gave the visitors a 3-0 lead. After the teams traded a pair of punts, the Chiefs went ahead early in the 2nd quarter when Matt Cassel hit Dwayne Bowe with a TD pass on 3rd-n-goal from the one. The score was set-up when the pair connected on a 37-yard pass to the one-yard line three plays earlier. The KC lead grew to 14-3 on the next Chiefs possession when RB Thomas Jones capped a 5 play, 69-yard drive with his 1-yard scoring run. It remained that way at intermission.

Kansas City opened the 2nd half with another long scoring drive (9 plays, 80 yards) and Jones picked up his 2nd rushing TD of the afternoon with a 3-yard run. Arizona's next drive reached the KC11 but again resulted in a Feely FG, this one a 29-yarder that made it 21-6 with 4:55 remaining in the 3rd quarter. The AZ defense sent the Chiefs 3-n-out on the next two drives but offensively the Cards could not cut into the lead. With 8:12 to play, Ryan Succop's 23-yard FG extended the KC advantage to 24-6. The next drive saw the Cards turn it over on downs when they couldn't convert a 4th-n-1 from their own 43 but the defense appeared to have the game's first takeway on a Jamaal Charles fumble. However, KC successfully challenged that he was down by contact. On the next play after the reversal, Cassel hit Bowe with a 38-yard scoring pass. Arizona did not give up and closed the game with a 14-play, 83-yard drive that culminated in a Derek Anderson 3-yard TD pass to Larry Fitzgerald.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (63,208)

In a Monday night match-up of 3-7 teams that would see the winner pull to within a game of the NFC West lead, the visiting Niners controlled the line of scrimmage and outplayed the Cardinals in all three phases of the game to earn a 27-6 win. It marked Arizona's 6th straight defeat. Despite losing RB Frank Gore in the 1st quarter with a hip injury, San Fran was able to gain 261 yards on the ground. The majority of those yards came from veteran Brian Westbrook, who finished with 136 yards on 23 carries with a touchdown.

The 49ers began the game by taking the opening kickoff and marching to the AZ20 but Shane Andrus' FG try missed wide right. However, on Arizona's first offensive play QB Derek Anderson and RB Beanie Wells mishandled an exchange and the 49ers recovered at the AZ38. On the very next snap, 49ers QB Troy Smith tossed a deep pass down the middle that WR Michael Crabtree hauled in for a 38-yard TD. Arizona responded by moving to the SF13, thanks mostly to a 43-yard Anderson pass to Wells down the right sideline. The Cards did not find the end zone but came away with a 31-yard Jay Feely FG that made it 7-3. San Fran's Ted Ginn then returned the ensuing kickoff 41 yards to the Niners 45 to start a possession that ended on Anthony Dixon's 1-yard scoring run. The score capped a 10-play drive that put SF up 14-3 late in the first. After a 3-n-out from the Cardinals, Ginn's 42-yard punt return set the Niners up at the AZ42. Six plays later, Westbrook scored from 8 yards out to make it 21-3 midway thru the second. It looked like the Cards had cut into the lead on the next drive when they marched to the SF18 and Larry Fitzgerald came down in the end zone with an Anderson pass but the receiver lost control as he hit the ground. Instead the Cardinals came away with a 39-yard Feely FG that made it 21-6 late in the first half. With just over a minute remaining in the half, CB Michael Adams picked off a Smith pass that had deflected off Crabtree's hands and the Cards took over at the SF42 with 1:13 left but could not capitalize.

LaRod Stephens-Howling appeared to spark the Cards with an 83-yard return of the 2nd half's opening kickoff but it was wiped out by a holding penalty. The Niners opening drive ended with a 27-yard FG try from Andrus but Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie blocked it. He could not block a 38-yarder on the next drive and the 49ers led 24-6 after three quarters. The only points of the fourth came on a 26-yard Andrus FG that was set-up by LB Takeo Spikes INT of Anderson.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (61,874)

The Rams ended an 8-game losing streak in their series with the Cardinals thanks to a 19-6 victory that improved their record to 6-6. The win kept them in a first place tie with Seattle atop the NFC West. RB Steven Jackson rushed for 102 yards including a 27-yard score midway through the 3rd quarter that represented the game's only TD. Cards kicker Jay Feely hit FGs of 45 and 41 yards to give AZ a 6-0 lead in the first quarter but St. Louis scored 19 unanswered thanks to four Josh Brown FGs (28, 52, 20 and 43 yards) and Jackson's TD run. The loss was Arizona's 7th straight and dropped the Cardinals to 3-8 for the season.

Arizona started the game with promise offensively. They took the opening kickoff and moved 44 yards thanks to a 20-yard Tim Hightower run and a pair of Larry Fitzgerald receptions good for 27 yards. Feely's 45-yarder gave the hosts a 3-0 lead. After a 3-n-out from the Rams, Hightower ripped of a 34-yard run to set up another Feely FG, this one a 41-yarder that gave him 14 straight FGs without a miss. The next St. Louis series resulted in a 28-yard Brown FG that made it a 6-3 game after one quarter. Danny Amendola's 39-yard punt return set the Rams up near midfield on the next drive and that one ended with Brown's 52-yard game-tying FG. Late in the half, the Cards had it at the Rams 31 when Derek Anderson's 3rd-n-10 pass to Fitzgerald was INT'd by S Craig Dahl, who returned it 23 yards to the STL 33. The Rams would move deep into AZ territory but the Cardinals defense sent them away with just a 20-yard FG that made it 9-6 at the half.

St. Louis got the ball first in the 2nd half but on the 3rd play, FS Kerry Rhodes intercepted a Sam Bradford pass; it was just the rookie's 2nd INT in the last 7 games. The Cards however failed to capitalize on the takeaway and the next series went 3-n-out. The Rams then moved 85 yards in 10 plays on a drive that produced the Jackson TD. When the next AZ series also ended in a 3-n-out, Anderson exited the game in favor of rookie Max Hall. He fared no better and CB Bradley Fletcher INT'd him on his 3rd snap. That pick set-up a 43-yard Brown FG. Hall's afternoon ended shortly thereafter when he dislocated his left shoulder on a sack. Fellow rookie QB John Skelton came on in relief and finished the game.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (62,223)

The Cards snapped a 7-game losing streak and posted the franchise's first-ever win over Denver (previously 0-7-1) thanks to a dominant home performance over the Broncos. It was the team's largest margin of victory since a 36-6 win over the Redskins on 10/17/93. Rookie John Skelton, a 5th round draft pick out of Fordham, became the 3rd different QB to start for AZ in 2010 and turned in an efficient, mistake-free performance with no sacks or INTs. RB Tim Hightower had a career-high 148 rushing yards with 100 and 2 TDs in the 4th quarter. WR Larry Fitzgerald became the franchise's all-time receptions leader and moved into the #2 spot in receiving yards. The defense took the ball away 6 times (3 on INTs of Kyle Orton) and scored once itself. However, the star of the game was clearly kicker Jay Feely who accounted for Arizona's first 22 points and 25 overall. He made FGs of 36, 48, 55, 23 and 49 (his miss from 49 was just his 2nd of the year; his 55-yarder tied a career-long). Most memorable though was his 5-yard rushing TD on a 2nd quarter fake FG. With the Cards leading 6-3, their drive stalled at the 5. From FG formation, holder Ben Graham flipped it to Feely who outraced the defense to the near pylon. It was the first ever TD by a Cards kicker and he became just the 4th kicker since the 1970 merger with a rushing score. His 25 total points scored were the 2nd most ever by an NFL kicker (TEN's Rob Bironas, 26).

Playing 6 days after the firing of head coach Josh McDaniels, the Broncos, took a 3-0 lead when replacement kicker Steven Hauschka knocked it in off the left upright to cap the game's first drive. But Feely put AZ up with FGs of 36 and 48 and then further with his TD run. With 0:02 left in the half his career-best 55-yarder made it 16-3. Feely's 23-yarder provided the 3rd quarter's only points and on the first play of the 4th, his 49-yarder put AZ up 22-3. With 6:07 remaining, Hightower capped a 79-yard drive with his 8-yard scoring run. Knowshon Moreno's 1-yard run narrowed the lead to 29-13 but after the Cards recovered a Denver on-side kick, Hightower scored again on a 35-yard scamper. Arizona's final points came when rookie LB Daryl Washington picked off an Orton pass. He returned it 39 yards but was stripped at the 1 and DT Darnell Dockett recovered in the end zone for a TD. It was Arizona's 6th TD of the year on a fumble recovery, establishing an NFL single-season record.

PANTHERS 19, CARDINALS 12

BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM – (71,849)

In a week 15 match-up of rookie starting QBs, the 4-9 Cardinals were led by John Skelton (5th round, Fordham) in his 2nd start while the 1-12 Panthers had Jimmy Clausen (2nd round, Notre Dame) looking for his first win in his 8th start. Carolina RB Jonathan Stewart gained 137 yards on 27 rushes, John Kasay was 4-4 on FGs and the Panthers defense held Arizona to 218 total yards of offense. Most of those yards came from WR Larry Fitzgerald who had a game-high 125 yards on 9 catches. He reached two career milestones with the performance, becoming the youngest player in NFL history to record 600 career receptions and the 2nd-youngest to 8,000 career receiving yards (27 years, 111 days).

Each of Carolina's first 2 drives went deep into AZ territory and netted short John Kasay FGs. The Panthers moved 52 yards on their first 2 plays from scrimmage moving to the AZ 15 but were forced to settle for a 28-yard Kasay FG. Their next drive reached the AZ11 and ended with Kasay's 29-yarder that made it 6-0 after one. Midway thru the 2nd quarter the Panthers came up with one of the game's key plays. With the Cardinals facing a 3rd-n-4 at their own 27, Skelton's pass was intercepted at midfield by S Sherrod Martin who returned it 34 yards to the AZ16. On the next play, Jimmy Clausen found TE Jeff King open in the left flat for Carolina's lone TD of the afternoon. Late in the first half, AZ moved 46 yards to the CAR4 with most of the drives yardage coming via on a pair of Fitzgerald catches covering 35 and that set-up Jay Feely's 23-yard FG.

With Carolina leading 13-3 and getting the ball first after intermission, the Cards started the 2nd half with an on-side kick attempt but Feely's try did not go 10 yards and the Panthers took over at the AZ37. They came away with a 24-yard Kasay FG that made it 16-3. The Cards offense failed to record a first down in the 3rd quarter and the only other points came on Kasay's 43-yard FG with 0:27 left in the period. Two of their drives ended in 3-n-outs and the other when Skelton was stripped in the pocket by DE Greg Hardy with the recovery by DE Tyler Brayton. With 4:41 to go, the Cards found the end zone at the end of a 7-play, 74-yard drive. RB Tim Hightower caught a pass out of the backfield but fumbled at the 5. The ball went into to end zone where WR Steve Breaston recovered for Arizona's 10th return TD of the year and NFL-record 7th on fumble returns (previous record: 5). Down 19-9 after the 2-point try failed, the Cards got the back at their own 28 with 1:49 left. A 41-yard Fitzgerald catch took it to the CAR12 and Feely's 30-yard FG with 0:54 left made it a 7-point game. Arizona's comeback hopes were dashed however when the on-side kick attempt was unsuccessful.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (63,971)

The Cards closed their 2010 home slate with a thrilling Christmas night game against the Cowboys. Arizona jumped out to an early lead thanks to INT touchdowns on its first two defensive series and led 21-3 early in the 2nd. The Cowboys then stormed back from 18 down and took their first lead with 1:41 to play. However AZ rookie QB John Skelton, making his 3rd career start, led the offense into position for Jay Feely's game-winning FG with 5 ticks on the clock.

On Dallas' 2nd offensive snap, CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie picked off a Jon Kitna pass intended for Miles Austin and returned it 32 yards for a TD. The next Cowboys series reached the AZ39 but Kitna's 1st down pass bounced off Roy Williams and right to CB Greg Toler who raced 66 yards down the left sideline to make it 14-0. It was Arizona's 12th return TD of the season, one shy of the NFL record. After a 3-n-out from Dallas, Feely had a chance to up the lead but his 49-yard FG try was wide right. Cowboys K David Buehler then put Dallas on the board with a 42-yarder. On the 2nd play of the next Arizona series, Skelton found a wide-open Roberts down the left sideline for a 74-yard TD that made it 21-3. Dallas then moved 81 yards in 13 plays and found the end zone on 4th-n-goal at the 2 on a Kitna TD pass to TE Jason Witten. Just before the score, Kitna injured his hip and was replaced for a snap by 2nd year man Stephen McGee in his first NFL action. When the injury kept Kitna from returning after intermission, McGee finished the game.

The 2nd half was largely a struggle for the Cardinals offense, which failed to pick up a first down until midway thru the 4th. In the meantime, Buehler made a 53-yard FG and Marion Barber scored on a 24-yard run that cut the AZ lead to 21-20 after 3 quarters. Arizona dodged a bullet late in the quarter when LB Bradie James nearly had an INT but it was ruled incomplete both on the field and after a Dallas challenge. With 8:50 to go, the Cards took over at their own 20 clinging to a 1-point lead. A 21-yard catch by Roberts on 3rd-n-7 gave AZ its initial first down of the 2nd half and was followed by 2 strong Beanie Wells runs. The efforts led to a 49-yard FG from Feely that made it 24-20 with 3:45 to go. On the ensuing drive, Dallas reached the AZ 45 with 1:51 left and the game appeared to be sealed when McGee's 4th-n-5 pass fell incomplete but a late interference flag kept the drive alive. On the next play, Austin somehow snared a McGee pass over a pair of AZ defenders that was good for a 37-yard go-ahead TD. However, the Dallas lead was just 2 after Buehler's PAT hit the left upright. With one timeout and 1:36 remaining, AZ took over at its own 24 but after a pair of incompletions and a sack, faced a 4th-n-15 at the 19. With the game on the line, Larry Fitzgerald's first catch of the day was a critical 26-yarder to the AZ45. Skelton ran for 5 yards before completions to Tim Hightower (6) and Max Komar (19) moved it to the 25. An illegal formation penalty backed it up 5 yards making Feely's game-winner a 48-yarder.

CANDLESTICK PARK – (69,732)

In a season-ending match-up of 5-10 teams at Candlestick Park, the 49ers scored a decisive 38-7 victory thanks largely to a 21-point third quarter explosion. San Francisco was led by interim head coach Jim Tomsula, who earlier in the week was tabbed to take over for the regular season finale after the dismissal of Mike Singletary. The win gave San Fran its second consecutive season sweep of Arizona.

The 49ers led 10-7 at halftime, though neither team was necessarily a model of offensive efficiency. The Cards had minus-14 total net yards after one quarter while the Niners were 1-7 on 3rd downs in the first half and QB Alex Smith was sacked twice. Smith did open the game's scoring in the first quarter when the Niners took over at the Cards 37 with 4:52 to go after Arizona's 3rd punt of the day. On the first play from scrimmage, Smith went deep to WR Ted Ginn who hauled in the pass for a 37-yard touchdown. The 49ers upped their lead to 10-0 on their next possession when Jeff Reed connected on a 39-yard FG. Midway through the second, the Cards took over at the SF37 following a Niner punt and rookie QB John Skelton – making his 4th straight start – led a 7-play, 37-yard drive that ended with a 10-yard TD pass to Larry Fitzgerald. Twice the Cards converted key 3rd downs when Skelton found rookie WR Max Komar on 3rd-n-3 (8 yards) and Fitzgerald on 3rd-n-8 (10 yards).

After intermission, the Niners came out fast. They took the opening drive 75 yards in 5 plays, the largest chunk of which came on Smith's 59-yard TD pass to TE Vernon Davis. After a Cards punt, RB Brian Westbrook ripped off a 30-yard run on the next drive, helping to set-up his own 6-yard scoring run that quickly made it 24-7. Skelton moved the Cards on their next drive but then had a pass tipped at the line by Ray McDonald and INT'd by LB Ahmad Brooks who returned it to the AZ8. Two plays later, Westbrook scored on another 6-yard run to give San Fran a comfortable 31-7 lead. With 3:29 remaining in the 3rd quarter, Richard Bartel took over at QB for Skelton and his opening drive reached the SF 1 but the Cards ultimately turned it over on downs. The game's only remaining score came with 4:01 to play when San Fran CB Tarell Brown stepped in front of a Bartel pass and returned the INT 62 yards for a TD.

WR Larry Fitzgerald led all receivers with 11 catches for 125 yards and a TD and finished the year with 90 total receptions. It was his 5th career season with 90+ catches and 4th consecutive. Among all-time NFL players only Torry Holt (6) and Marvin Harrison (5) have had more consecutive 90-catch season and Fitzgerald became the first player ever with five 90-catch seasons in his first 7 years.

HISTORY

FRANCHISE HISTORY

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 and in 1920 became a charter member of the National Football League, then known as the American Professional Football Association. The club holds the distinction of being the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence.

THE EARLY DAYS

The team boasts a colorful history. Fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club.

The franchise began as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's South Side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born.

Early owner Chris O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time following World War I.

The jersey color and the location of the field (61st and Racine) led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team disbanded.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations again in 1918. Following Armistice Day that officially ended World War I in November of 1918, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football landscape in America.

The Cardinals and Chicago Bears are the only two of the 11 charter members of the NFL still in existence. The Bears were originally based in Decatur, IL and known as the Decatur Staleys (after their sponsor, the Staley Starch Company). The team moved to Chicago in 1921 and was known as the Chicago Staleys for a year before becoming the Chicago Bears in 1922.

The colorful history of the Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League and the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation, began humbly in 1898 as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football as the Morgan Athletic Club in Chicago's South Side.

POST WORLD WAR I

Shortly after the Cardinals joined the American Professional Football League in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee, O'Brien lured great halfback John "Paddy" Driscoll to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football. He would coach the team from 1921–22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921–22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career in the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park, which they would share with baseball's White Sox for 37 years.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record (the NFL did not begin postseason play until 1933).

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed legendary running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40–6 victory over the cross-town Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 combined record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and in 1932, the franchise began a continuous period of family ownership that continues to this day.

The team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field and the Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals lost their top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—to military service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, failing to win an outing in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

THE 1947 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

The 1947 Cardinals captured the Western Division title and took the NFL championship in a season that was bittersweet for the organization. Owner Charles Bidwill had been the club's leader since taking over as owner in 1933 and helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression." However his death in April of '47, deprived him of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

Still, Bidwill earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was his unprecedented signing of University of Georgia All-America running back Charley Trippi, for the then-unheard of sum of $100,000 that finally put the Cardinals over the top.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Paul Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding Wisconsin fullback Pat Harder, Elmer Angsman of Notre Dame, and end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46. Another great end, Bill Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s, versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football and the "dean" of the "Million-Dollar Backfield." Also a running back, Goldberg had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, including a 31–7 trouncing of the hated cross-town rival Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles to face the Rams. There they incurred their first loss of the season, 27–7 and afterwards tragically lost rookie punter Jeff Burkett. He missed the game as well as the flight back to Chicago because of an emergency appendectomy. After several days recuperating, the United Airlines DC-6 taking him home crashed in Bryce Canyon, Utah, killing the young star who was the NFL's leading punter at the time of the tragedy.

Under that pall, the Cardinals climbed to 7–3 but were in the throes of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7–3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns, including two by Trippi, and held the powerful Steve Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45–21 road win.

The victory deadlocked the Cards with the Bears, who stood as the only remaining obstacle between the Cardinals and their first Western Division crown. A showdown loomed for the regular season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field on Chicago's North Side.

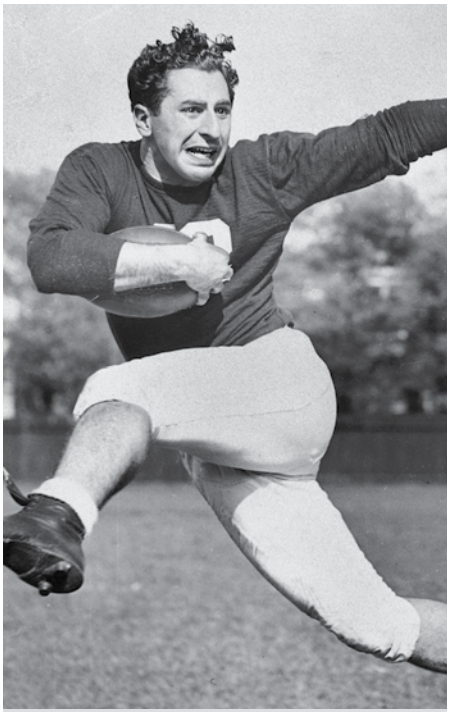

The biggest play of the game came on the first snap. Conzelman designed a pass play that would isolate Bears' linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with speedster Boris "Babe" Dimancheff. Because his wife was expecting, Dimancheff missed the entire week of practice and did not rejoin the team until the day before the game. Despite never running it in advance, the play worked to perfection as Dimancheff raced down the center of the field and caught Christman's perfect pass in stride for a TD. The Cardinals also intercepted four passes off legendary Bear quarterback Sid Luckman, converting two into touchdowns en route to a 30–21 win. The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later (12/28/47) against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

At a bitterly cold Comiskey Park, pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles attempted to get better gripping on the concrete-like playing surface by sharpening and filing their cleats. A succession of penalties opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale. Meanwhile the Cardinals quietly had slipped into tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi. In the third quarter, Trippi circled under a high Joe Muha punt, taking it on his own 25-yard line before racing 75 yards for a touchdown, getting hit three times along the way. Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159. But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with one-eyed quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards. The Cardinals' 28–21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

The 1947 Cardinals won the NFL Championship with a 10-3 overall record. They defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21 at Chicago's Comiskey Park in the NFL's 15th title contest.

ON TO ST. LOUIS

Following her husband's passing in April of 1947, Violet Bidwill assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7–0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first division title to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10–4 regular season record. The Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30–14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948. Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis a division crown but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35-23, ended the Cards' postseason dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41–16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC Eastern Division title—with a 9–7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5–11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

ARIZONA

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7–4 record and a share of the NFC Eastern Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first postseason berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records (since broken) in the team's first autumn in Arizona. All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles. All of those attendance marks, however, have been eclipsed since the team moved into University of Phoenix Stadium.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals and it was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

The 1995 season marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought. Under head coach Vince Tobin and led by former ASU quarterback Jake Plummer, the '98 Cardinals earned a Wild Card berth by winning their last three games in dramatic fashion and each by a field goal or less – a 20-17 overtime win at Philadelphia, a 19-17 home win vs. New Orleans, and a playoff-clinching 16-13 home win over San Diego. The final game ended when Chris Jacke nailed a 52-yard field goal as time expired to win the game before a sold-out crowd at Sun Devil Stadium. The next week saw the team notch its first postseason victory since 1947 with a 20–7 win over the Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The thrilling ride ended with a 41-21 loss at Minnesota in the divisional playoffs the next week.

The 2000 season proved pivotal to the Cardinals' franchise. On Election Day, November 7, 2000, voters in Maricopa County passed Proposition 302, the Tourism and Sports Initiative, to help fund a new stadium for the Cardinals, Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, in addition to providing revenue for Cactus League spring training baseball, tourism, and youth recreation. The 454,785 "yes" votes spelled a plurality of 33,123 votes (51.89 percent).

The attention of the sports world and beyond turned to Arizona safety Pat Tillman in 2002 when he quietly and nobly walked away from a lucrative career in pro football to enlist in the Army. Moved to action by the events of 9/11, Tillman joined the elite Army Rangers and in April of 2004 was killed while serving in Afghanistan. His jersey number 40 became the fifth in team history to be retired.

In 2005, the Cardinals made NFL history by participating in the NFL's first-ever regular season game played outside the United States. On October 2nd, the Cards defeated the 49ers 31-14 before a record crowd of 103,467 in Mexico City's Estadio Azteca, the largest crowd ever to see an NFL regular season game.

The 2006 season marked the team's first at University of Phoenix Stadium, recognized by BusinessWeek as one of the 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world. Since then, the world-class venue has attracted record crowds for the franchise and has allowed the team to sell-out every game played in the venue. On February 3, 2008, the stadium hosted Super Bowl XLII between the New York Giants and the New England Patriots.

The 2008 Cardinals turned in perhaps the most memorable season in franchise history, one that ended with the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance. Arizona qualified for the postseason by clinching its first division title since 1975 and first-ever NFC West crown with a perfect 6-0 divisional record. As the division champs, the Cardinals hosted their first playoff game since 1947 and defeated Atlanta 30-24 in the Wild Card round. Arizona then traveled to Carolina where they faced the heavily favored Panthers but came away with a stunning 33-13 victory. The Cards returned home the following week to host the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFC Championship game and won their first-ever NFC title by defeating the Eagles 32-25. The victory also secured a date with Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLIII from Tampa. Before what was then the largest audience in US television history, the Cardinals fell to the Steelers 27-23. Down 20-7 entering the fourth quarter, Arizona made the biggest comeback in Super Bowl history, a 64-yard TD pass from Kurt Warner to Larry Fitzgerald gave the Cards a 23-20 lead with under 3:00 remaining. Pittsburgh responded with a 78-yard drive that ended with Santonio Holmes' tip-toe TD reception and the game's deciding score in one of the most exciting Super Bowls ever played.

The Cardinals made their first-ever Super Bowl appearance when they met the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLIII.

SAFETY

Professional—Fierce competitor defied odds as seventh-round draft choice in 1998 to become three-year starting safety and establish franchise single-season record with 224 tackles in 2000 … successfully converted from college linebacker to pro defensive back … named All-Pro by Sports Illustrated in 2000 … in 1998 became first rookie starting safety for Cardinals since team relocated to Arizona in 1988 … left the Cardinals prior to 2002 season to enlist in U.S. Army and become member of elite Army Ranger unit, as did his brother, Kevin, who tabled a professional baseball career in the Cleveland Indians organization … admirably declined all media attention throughout tour of duty … killed April 22, 2004 in Afghanistan.

College—Local favorite during college career at Arizona State University … Pac-10 Conference defensive player-of-the-year in 1997 … key member of Sun Devils' 1996 Rose Bowl squad … three-year starting linebacker … selected by Cardinals in seventh round (226th overall) of 1998 NFL Draft.

Etc.—Born Nov. 6, 1976 in Fremont, Calif. … graduated summa cum laude in three and one-half years with marketing degree from ASU with 3.84 grade-point-average with academic all-America honors … outdoors enthusiast also competed in triathlons as part of training regimen.

SAFETY

Professional—One of the greatest defensive backs in NFL history … enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1978 … named to the all-time NFL team in 1994 to commemorate the league's 75th anniversary … played entire career as a Cardinal in St. Louis (1960–72) … played in eight Pro Bowls … all-NFL six times … 52 career interceptions … cat-like defender and exceptional team leader … interceptions in seven consecutive games in 1966 … NFL's top free safety during 13-year career … made the safety blitz famous.

College—Utah … 6–0, 190 … two-way star for Utes from 1957–60 … seventh-round draft pick by St. Louis Cardinals in 1960.

Etc.—Born March 24, 1938 in Rigby, Idaho. … regarded as one of the toughest players in NFL history … once intercepted a pass for a go-ahead touchdown with two broken wrists … retired from the team's front office in 2003, ending 43-year NFL career, all as a Cardinal.

TACKLE

Professional—Tackle for the Chicago Cardinals (1946–48) … opened holes in the line with hard-hitting bulk for the Cardinals' "Million-Dollar Backfield" … member of the Cards' 1947 NFL championship team … died of a heart attack after opening-day victory over the Eagles in 1948.

College—Texas … 6–2, 215 … all-America tackle for the Longhorns … winner of the Outstanding Athlete Trophy in 1942 … one of Texas' "13 Immortals" in 1940.

Etc.—Born December 27, 1920 in Amarillo, Texas … flew bombing missions with the 15th Air Force Division over Italy during World War II.

TIGHT END

Professional—Doubled at tight end and wide receiver for the St. Louis Cardinals (1974–77) … part of Head Coach Don Coryell's messenger service as a rookie wide receiver in 1974 … replaced Hall of Famer Jackie Smith at tight end in mid-1975 … caught passes in 12 of 13 games in 1976 … one-handed touchdown catch in 1977 provided margin of victory in 16–13 win over Chicago … died after collapsing from a heart condition at training camp in 1979.

College—Colorado … 6–4, 220 … all-America … two-time all-Big 8 Conference selection … caught 53 passes for 700 yards during junior and senior seasons … first-round draft choice of the Cardinals in 1974.

Etc.—Born July 22, 1951 in Houston, Texas … played in the East-West and Hula Bowl games.

MARSHALL GOLDBERG 99
RUNNING BACK/DEF. BACK

Professional—All-round player who starred as a ball carrier, defensive back, and return specialist for the Chicago Cardinals (1939–43, '46–48) … second team all-pro selection in 1941 … NFL mid-season rushing, punt and kickoff return, and interception leader in 1941 … career statistics included 1,644 yards rushing in 476 attempts for 11 touchdowns, and 60 pass receptions for 776 yards and five touchdowns … member of Cards' 1947 NFL championship team.

College—Pittsburgh … 5–11, 195 … two-time consensus all-America halfback at Pitt.

Etc.—Born October 24, 1917 in Elkins, West Virginia … 1980 inductee into the Jewish Hall of Fame in Tel Aviv, Israel … playing career interrupted for two years (1944–45) during World War II when he served in the Navy … nicknamed "Biggie." … passed away on April 3, 2006.

NOTES

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery … Cards limp to 4–9–1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, fewest since 1954 (183) … defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons … safety Larry Wilson sets team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay Dec. 21 that stands until 2000 … Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51–42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium Nov. 2 … the combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined single-game scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Cards individual and opponent marks.

NOTES

William V. Bidwill gains full ownership of the franchise … assistant coach Chuck Drulis collapses of a heart attack on the team charter airplane returning from a preseason game at Houston … he is pronounced dead following an emergency landing in Little Rock, Ark. … safety Larry Wilson doubles as player and assistant coach, then two weeks before the end of the season he announces his retirement after 13 seasons … quarterback Jim Hart connects with Ahmad Rashad (nee Bobby Moore) for a 98-yard pass play vs. L.A. Rams Dec. 10, the longest non-scoring pass play in NFL history.

NOTES

Former San Diego State University Head Coach Don Coryell, with his fiery disposition and innovative offensive schemes, is named head coach … he hires Joe Gibbs as running backs coach and Jim Hanifan as offensive line coach … running back Terry Metcalf is drafted in third round … Jim Hart is named starting quarterback … despite 4–9–1 record, Card offense improves dramatically, boosting point output from 193 in 1972 to 286, and gains nearly 800 more total yards … Cards complete only two of 10 passes at Atlanta Dec. 9 for single-game franchise low of nine yards as Jim Bakken kicks six field goals in 32–10 win.

NOTES

Despite 10–4 record (6–1 at home), Cards lose tie-breaker with Washington and fail to qualify for playoffs … Cards defeat N.Y. Giants to stay alive in playoff race, needing the division-leading Cowboys to defeat Washington at Dallas later that day … but the Redskins win 27–14 and Cards became first team in seven-year history of the NFC to go 10–4 and not gain a post-season berth … eight Card victories by seven points or less earn "Cardiac Cards" moniker … Cardinals and Chargers play preseason game in Tokyo, Japan, the first NFL game played outside North America … Cards set NFL record with eight lost fumbles at Washington Oct. 25.

NOTES

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama LB E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State QB Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel RB Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards … all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice … Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive times to finish 7–9 … return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and equals two NFL records … Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular-season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to nine. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team post-season Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1–8 based upon their records during the season.

NOTES

The Cards, with the NFC Eastern Division title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23–7 halftime deficit to take a 27–26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field-goal try sails wide as time expires and Redskins escape with a 29–27 win and the division crown … in the torrid comeback at Washington, QB Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half … Cards finish 9–7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points … Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating … WR Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

NOTES

Though a 3–1 start looks promising, the Cards win only two of their final 12 contests to finish 5–11, spelling the end of Jim Hanifan's six-year (1980–85) tenure as head coach … with former all-pro RB Ottis Anderson injured, RB Stump Mitchell averages 96.9 yards rushing in final nine games en route to 1,006 yards and a 5.5-yard average per carry despite starting just eight contests … QB Neil Lomax is sacked NFC-high 61 times … Yugoslavian K Novo Bojovic, signed by the Cards during mid-season, kicks a 40-yard field goal to give the Cards a 3–0 first-quarter lead Nov. 24 vs. N.Y. Giants, chases down the football, spikes it in the end zone, then watches with teammates as Giants score 34 unanswered points in 34–3 defeat at the Meadowlands.

NOTES

Long-time Dallas assistant Gene Stallings named Cards' head coach … injury-riddled squad manages 4–11–1 mark … rookie 10th-round pick and RB Vai Sikahema (return specialist) and FB Ron Wolfley (special teams) voted to Pro Bowl … Sikahema ties NFL record with two punt returns for touchdowns (71 and 60 yards) vs. Tampa Bay Dec. 21 … WR J.T. Smith sets club single-season mark with 80 pass receptions … just eight weeks removed from back surgery, 49ers quarterback Joe Montana makes spectacular return at Cards' expense, completing 13 of 19 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns to Jerry Rice in 43–17 win at San Francisco Nov. 9.

NOTES

Encouragement from 4–0 preseason record and 2–0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4–12, the most losses in franchise history … QB Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery … Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting DT Eric Swann despite no college playing experience … little-known Southern University walk-on CB Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1991 … LB Eric Hill returns a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season-opener at L.A. Rams Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries.

NOTES

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4–12 season … defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) … CB Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) … Pro Bowl P Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

NOTES

A 5–3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7–9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job … rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth … defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 … first-round draft pick RB Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game … Pittsburg (Kan.) State rookie RB Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns … Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) … franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17–10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 … Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17–10 victory Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

NOTES

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4–12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job … defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries … Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) … low light of season at expansion Carolina Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest output in 40 years … FB Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record … Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

NOTES

Improvement from 4–12 to 7–9 record, underscored by an offense that jumps from 24th to 12th and a defense from 26th to 21st, highlight Vince Tobin's first season as head coach … RB LeShon Johnson bursts for runs of 56 and 70 yards Sept. 22 at New Orleans—believed to be the longest touchdown runs on consecutive carries in NFL history—en route to franchise single-game rushing mark of 214 yards … QB Boomer Esiason passes for 522 yards (third most in league history) in 37–34 overtime win at R.F.K. Stadium against Redskins on Nov. 10 … 0–8 N.Y. Jets secure the only victory of their 1–15 season with 31–21 win at Arizona Oct. 27 … first-round draft pick, Illinois DE Simeon Rice, sets Cardinal mark and equals then league rookie record with 12.5 quarterback sacks.

NOTES

Team's first season under head coach Dennis Green was one of transition but also promise and opportunity…team entered week 16 of the regular season with a playoff berth and division title in reach before a three-point road loss at Seattle ended postseason hopes…Cardinals won two games by 24 points (something that they'd not done in over a decade) and also finished 5-3 at home for the first time since last playoff season of 1998…strategic but aggressive approach to free agency yielded several new starters, most notably DE Bertrand Berry who would prove to become the best free agent pick-up in team history by leading the NFC in sacks (14.5) and earning his first career Pro Bowl berth….an outstanding '04 draft class produced four full-time starters in WR Larry Fitzgerald, LB Karlos Dansby, DT Darnell Dockett and C Alex Stepanovich …defense improved its overall rank from 26th at the end of '03 to 12th and didn't allow a touchdown in three games while allowing just one TD in three others… the offense was bitten early by injuries as RB Marcel Shipp suffered a broken leg in training camp that ended his season and all-pro WR Anquan Boldin suffered a training camp knee injury that caused him to miss the regular season's first six games…. in his second season in Arizona, Emmitt Smith led the team with 937 rushing yards and 9 rushing TDs…the offense struggled to find consistency and that led to numerous lineup changes throughout the year including three different starting QBs....S Pat Tillman, who left the Cardinals to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training prior to 2002 season, is killed April 22 in Afghanistan.

NOTES

The team's second season under head coach Dennis Green was marked by close games (six losses by a TD or less) and plagued by injuries (NFL-high 15 players on injured reserve list) … Neil Rackers set the NFL record with 40 field goals in the season en route to a Pro Bowl selection … WR Larry Fitzgerald set the club record for receptions in a season with 103 and also had a team-high 1,409 yards en route to his first Pro Bowl … Anquan Boldin also recorded 102 receptions and 1,402 yards … Boldin and Fitzgerald became only the second pair of teammates in NFL history to record 100+ receptions and 1,400+ yards in a season …in his first year as a Cardinal, Kurt Warner completed 242 of 375 passes to set the club mark for completion percentage with 64.5% … FS Adrian Wilson led the team with 8.0 sacks, the most ever by an NFL defensive back since sacks became an official statistic in 1982…Arizona finished with the league's #1 passing offense (first time in team history) and ranked 8th in both overall offense and defense (the only NFL team in the top 10 in both)…the team played in the NFL's first-ever regular season game outside of the U.S. and defeated the 49ers in Mexico City in front of an NFL record crowd of 103,467…2005 was the team's 18th and final season at Sun Devil Stadium.

CARDINALS AND SAGICOR LIFE INSURANCE HOST ANNUAL HOLIDAY FOOD DRIVE

The Arizona Cardinals Football Club and Sagicor Life Insurance Company teamed up to present a holiday food drive benefiting St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance. The two organizations officially kicked off the 3 ½ week food drive on October 26 at St. Mary's main warehouse in Phoenix. Cardinals running back Beanie Wells, team mascot Big Red and Cardinals cheerleaders were on hand along with Sagicor executives and St. Mary's officials to announce the start of the annual food drive.

As part of the food drive, wives and girlfriends of players and front office personnel teamed with volunteers from St. Mary's Food Bank and Cardinals Cheerleaders at collection points outside all five stadium gates and the Great Lawn to collect non-perishable food items and/or money for donation prior to the Cardinals-Seahawks game at University of Phoenix Stadium on November 14.

St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance, the world's first food bank, is a non-sectarian, nonprofit organization that alleviates hunger by efficiently gathering and distributing food to 675 sites that serve the hungry. Serving 13 of Arizona's 15 counties, the organization is committed to volunteerism, building community relationships, and improving the quality of life for Arizonans in need.

Sagicor Life Insurance Company is a full-service life insurance company licensed in 44 states including Arizona. To learn more about Sagicor, visit www.sagicorlifeusa.com.

OLLIE MATSON PASSES AWAY

Pro Football Hall of Famer and former Chicago Cardinals halfback Ollie Matson passed away on February 19, 2011 in Los Angeles, CA. He was 80 years old.

Matson enjoyed a 14-year NFL playing career with four franchises and was selected to six Pro Bowls while also being chosen as a five-time first-team All-Pro selection. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1972, the College Football Hall of Fame in 1976 and the Cardinals Ring of Honor in 2006.

He began his professional career as a first-round selection by the Cardinals in the 1952 NFL Draft and shared Rookie of the Year honors in his first season. Matson played six years with the Cardinals, earning All-NFL honors from 1954-57 and never missing a game. He appeared in 72 contests and rushed for 3,331 yards and 24 touchdowns while also catching 130 passes for 2,150 yards and 16 touchdowns.

An All-America selection at the University of San Francisco in 1951, Matson was also a U.S. medalist in track in the 1952 Olympic summer games. After being traded for eight players and a draft choice to the Rams in 1959, Matson played three years for Los Angeles, one season for the Detroit Lions and three seasons for the Philadelphia Eagles before finishing his career in 1966.

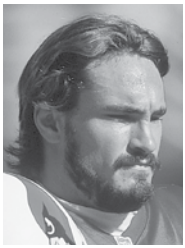

Matson finished his professional career with 12,844 all-purpose yards, 5,173 rushing yards, 222 receptions and 73 total touchdowns in 171 games played.

FLEX SCHEDULING

In 2011, the NFL will play its sixth season under its flexible scheduling format, which provides the best match-ups to fans across the nation for seven of the final eight (Week 16 not affected) Sunday night games on NBC.

For the 2011 season, flexible scheduling will occur in Weeks 10-15 and 17 (Week 16, Christmas weekend unaffected). Please note the schedule and tickets for the effected home games list a start time currently of 2:05 or 2:15 p.m. Arizona time (MST).

Twelve days before each flex week - or as few as six days in Week 17, the NFL will decide and announce the game being moved to 6:30 p.m. MST and also may announce games moving to 2:15 p.m. MST. For the Cardinals, this means that every HOME game after the November 6 contest vs. St. Louis is subject to flexible scheduling.

The Cardinals will post all information regarding game times at www.azcardinals.com. During the season, fans may also call 602/379-0102 for information regarding scheduled game times.

NFL POLICY FOR RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The National Football League's Policy for Retractable Domed Stadiums was developed by the NFL Competition Committee.

The policy dictates that the home team will decide the status of the roof (open or closed) 90 minutes before kickoff. If the game begins with the roof open, it will be closed only if 1) hazardous conditions develop or are anticipated; or 2) it begins to rain.

The roof will not be closed for rain any time after the five-minute mark of the fourth quarter (including overtime). The roof can be closed at any time to address hazardous situations and if the roof is closed, it will not be re-opened.

Below is the excerpt from the 2011 Policy Manual for Member Clubs, Vol. II detailing the league's policy for retractable roofs. At present, University of Phoenix Stadium, Reliant Stadium in Houston, Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis and Cowboys Stadium in Dallas are the only four venues in the NFL with retractable roofs.

General Policy

One and one-half hours prior to kickoff, the home team will have the authority to determine if the roof should be open or closed for the game. The home club may choose to open the roof for some games and not for others. In the event a game is started with the roof in the open position and it is closed pursuant to the procedures set forth below, or if the game starts with the roof in the closed position, the roof must thereafter remain in the closed position for the duration of the game.

Pre-game Procedures

1) In the week prior to a game and on game day, to preserve and protect the field, the League's tarp rule will be in effect, if the roof is open.
2) No later than one and one-half hours prior to kickoff, the home club is required to notify the Referee or the highest-ranking League official working at the game whether the roof shall be open or closed. The opening or closing of the roof as designated by the home club should be completed no later than the time that the teams take the field for pre-game warm-ups. All overhead lighting must be on prior to team warm-ups and must remain on for the duration of the game.
3) If, subsequent to the home club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, a hazardous condition (lightning, severe winds, etc.) develops or is anticipated that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators, as determined by the Referee after receiving input from the Stadium Manager and the highest-ranking League official working at the game, the roof shall be closed immediately. If it begins to rain at any time after the club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, the roof shall be closed immediately, by signal of the Referee to the Stadium Manager.

In-Game Procedures

4) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time due to the development or anticipation of a hazardous condition that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators. The game Referee, in consultation with the highest-ranking League official working at the game, after receiving input from the Stadium Manager, will decide if the roof should be closed. If the roof is closed pursuant to the above, it must remain closed for the duration of the game. Play may continue while the roof is being closed, subject to the Referee suspending play pursuant to the procedures for emergency situations.
5) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time up to the last five minutes of the fourth period if it begins to rain. The decision to close the roof will be made by the Referee, who will signal to the Stadium Manager or otherwise communicate to him or her to begin closing the roof. Play will continue while the roof is closing.
6) If the fourth period ends with the roof in the open position, no change will be made prior to or during an overtime period, unless the roof is closed pursuant to the procedures for hazardous conditions as set forth in No. 4 above.

CARDINALS CHARITIES

Founded in 1990, the mission of Cardinals Charities is to support programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women, and minorities in Arizona.

Cardinals Charities grants are awarded on an annual basis in response to applications from qualified non-profit organizations whose goals and programs meet the mission statement.

Cardinals Charities also continued its involvement with a wide range of organizations focused on women and children's issues in Arizona. Cardinals Charities supported these programs through grants awarded to the Sojourner Center, Helping Hands for Single Moms, the Ronald McDonald House, Communities in Schools, The Wellness Community and UMOM New Day Centers.

Since its inception, Cardinals Charities has distributed more than $5 million to over 400 worthy Arizona charitable organizations on behalf of the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and the National Football League.

In 2010, Cardinals Charities distributed over $450,000 to 80 worthy Arizona charitable organizations. Included in that number were Boys & Girls Clubs across the state, domestic violence shelters, and various educational programs.

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR BENEFICIARIES

- Organizations must be exempt under 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Service code.
- At least 75 percent of funding must be spent in Arizona.
- Grant application will be limited to once each year; however, organizations may reapply each year. Proposals for $5,000 or less are preferred.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Interested organizations must request an application in writing, either by FAX or mail, on their 501 (c) (3) letterhead. Grant notification will be made within 120 days following filing deadline.

Cardinals Charities hosts four signature annual events during the course of each year – the Kickoff Luncheon, Celebrity Golf Classic, the Kingpin Challenge (Dinner and Auction), and the Cardinals Cup (previously known as the NFL Alumni Celebrity Golf Challenge).

KICKOFF LUNCHEON

- Entering its 14th consecutive season.
- The Kickoff Luncheon is a chance for fans and business partners to enjoy lunch and meet the entire Cardinals team and coaching staff prior to the start of each season.
- In 2010, 475 attendees attended the luncheon on the field level at University of Phoenix Stadium in a talk-show style event emceed by Cardinals broadcasters Ron Wolfley and Paul Calvisi.

DINNER AND AUCTION— KINGPIN CHALLENGE

- Entering 18th consecutive season and fourth as the Kingpin Challenge at Chandler's Kyrene Lanes.
- The annual dinner and auction format was once again put to the side in 2010 as the third annual Kingpin Challenge was held at Chandler's Kyrene Lanes.
- In 2010, 175 bowlers were paired with a current Cardinals player or coach for the bowling tournament.

CARDINALS CUP

- Entering 7th consecutive season after previously being called the NFL Alumni Celebrity Golf Challenge.
- A celebrity golf tournament partnering the Arizona Chapter of NFL Alumni with fans, local celebrities and business partners.
- In its sixth year in 2010, the Cardinals Cup had 45 NFL alumni pair up with other Valley sports celebrities and 230 other golfers to raise money through Albertsons to benefit the Ronald McDonald House.

CELEBRITY GOLF CLASSIC

- Entering 23rd consecutive season.
- The longest running Cardinals Charities event, the Golf Classic is held each offseason with participants donating money for the opportunity to play with members of the Cardinals organization.
- Each year, participants play a round of golf with various celebrities and have the opportunity to win various luxury items while also bidding on memorabilia and travel packages through an auction.
- In 2011, over 200 attendees played golf with Cardinals alumni and coaches at the Wigwam Resort.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The 2010 season marked another successful year for the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and its various community-based activities.

Cardinals players, coaches, cheerleaders, mascot Big Red, and front office staff continued the organization's ongoing efforts of being a champion in the community. Throughout the 2010 season, 72 different players took part in 132 different community events and appearances that impacted over 70,000 adults and children throughout Arizona. The Cardinals also donated more than 40,000 pieces of merchandise and memorabilia throughout the past year. During the 2011 offseason, the Cardinals stayed busy by hosting 40 community events involving 30 different current and former players that impacted over 10,000 children and adults.

The Cardinals three signature community programs during the season - the SRP and Safeway Milk and Cookies Program, Gatorade Jr. Training Camps and the NFL Flag Football program – all continued to grow in popularity and attendance last year and will continue to develop in 2011.

SRP/SAFEWAY MILK AND COOKIES PROGRAM

- Entering its 10th consecutive season.
- Each Tuesday during the season, a different Cardinals player along with team mascot Big Red reads to students at various Valley elementary schools and distributes book covers and milk and cookies provided by Safeway.
- 10 players visited eleven different schools and read to over 550 students in 2010.

GATORADE JR. TRAINING CAMPS

- Entering 14th consecutive season. During the 2010 season, the Cardinals put on clinics using Gatorade Jr. Training stations and interactive zones.
- Cardinals players and Big Red provided football instruction and guidance for students while hosting the kids camps at Valley elementary schools or at the Cardinals training facility in Tempe. The players and Big Red helped promote the NFL's Play 60 message to encourage kids to receive 60 minutes of daily exercise.
- 11 players participated in 14 Gatorade camps impacting 1,400 students during the 2010 season.
- During the 2011 offseason, the Cardinals hosted seven camps for over 700 children.

NFL FLAG FOOTBALL PROGRAM

- Entering 9th consecutive season and presented by University of Phoenix and Catholic Healthcare West.
- 5-on-5 non-contact flag football league for boys and girls to provide basic fundamentals of football throughout the southwest with teams in Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah and the Imperial Valley of California.
- The program grew from 8,000 participants in 2004 to 12,400 in 2005 to now having over 15,000 players.
- For the sixth consecutive season, the Cardinals hosted a NFL Flag regional tournament at University of Phoenix Stadium. In 2010 the tournament hosted over 500 athletes from California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Colorado, Utah and Nevada participating throughout the weekend.

The Cardinals also continued their involvement with Arizona high school football with the weekly US Army "High School Coach-of-the-Week" award and Wells Fargo "High School Player-of-the-Week" award during the 2010 season. Both programs are back for the 2011 season.

"HIGH SCHOOL COACH-OF-THE-WEEK"

- Starting its 17th consecutive season.
- Every week during the high school football season, a panel selects a high school coach of the week, awards him with a certificate from team Owner William V. Bidwill and a $2,000 check to the coach's school on behalf of Cardinals Charities and the US Army.
- In 2010, 10 coaches were selected and a total of $20,000 was awarded to Arizona high school football programs.
- A "Coach-of-the-Year" was selected following the 2010 high school season and John Rodriguez from Sandra Day O'Connor H.S. was awarded an additional $4,000 for his school.

"HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK"

- Starting its 9th consecutive season and sixth presented by Wells Fargo.
- Every week during the high school football season, a panel selects a high school player of the week who receives a football trophy acknowledging the award at the players' school during an awards ceremony.
- In 2010, 10 players were selected and each was awarded at their school in front of their peers with team mascot Big Red and an alumni player.
- A "Player-of-the-Year" was selected following the high school season and quarterback Teddy Ruben of Saguaro H.S. was given a customized Cardinals jersey and a football trophy engraved with his season stats. Ruben is the first two-time player of the year in Cardinals history.

The Cardinals also remained busy during the holidays giving back to those less fortunate. Along with hosting a game day toy drive that benefits Chicanos Por La Causa and a game day canned food drive that benefits St. Mary's Food Bank, two of the marquee programs that the Cardinals participate in each season during that time of year are the "Help Feed the Hungry" program and the "Teddy Bear Express."

HELP FEED THE HUNGRY

- Last year, 10 players and their families along with front office personnel, cheerleaders and Big Red helped serve Thanksgiving dinner at the Phoenix Rescue Mission for more than 100 people.
- The 2010 season marked the 9th consecutive year of working with the Phoenix Rescue Mission during Thanksgiving.

TEDDY BEAR EXPRESS

- Each year, a Cardinals caravan with players, wives, front office personnel, Big Red and cheerleaders visit hospitals to deliver uniformed personalized teddy bears to children spending the holidays away from home.

- Last year, 10 players visited 200 children at Phoenix Children's Hospital and St. Joseph's Hospital, passing out teddy bears while signing autographs, taking pictures and spreading holiday joy.
- The 2010 season was the 11th consecutive year of program.

The 2011 offseason once again allowed the Cardinals to focus on hosting bigger and more in-depth kids camps. In May, the Cardinals hosted the annual "Football Skills and Education Camp" presented by Catholic Healthcare West as well as the "Cardinals Kicking, Punting and Long Snapping Camp" presented by Catholic Healthcare West.

"FOOTBALL SKILLS AND EDUCATION CAMP"

- 9th consecutive summertime camp
- Presented by Catholic Healthcare West.
- 550 high school football players from Arizona had the opportunity to receive a full day of classroom and on-field instruction from professionals at University of Phoenix Stadium.
- NFL alumni and junior colleges coaches helped coach and instruct each individual position.

ARIZONA CARDINALS KICKING CAMP

- 6th consecutive summertime camp
- Presented by Catholic Healthcare West
- 120 kickers, punters, and long-snappers from Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico and Utah had the opportunity to gain instruction from Director of Community Relations Luis Zendejas, former Cardinals punter Scott Player, former NFL long snapper Mark Walczak, and current college kickers.

In addition to being active throughout the community with various player appearances and events, the Cardinals also gave back to the people of Arizona with donations of merchandise and memorabilia.

CARDINALS DONATIONS

- The Cardinals donated 20,000 items of signed merchandise (signed footballs, jerseys and hats) to non-profit organizations in 2010 raising over $125,000 for local charities.
- Finally, during a sold out season at University of Phoenix Stadium last year, 7,200 game tickets were distributed to worthwhile organizations throughout the Valley.

Community service is never out of season for the Cardinals. For more information on the community programs, contact Luis Zendejas (602/379-0101).

ABOUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

From the outset, Cardinals owner Bill Bidwill along with son and team President Michael embarked upon the task of building a new stadium for the team with a very clear focus. They were intent on constructing a bold and innovative venue that would set the industry standard for design excellence and provide the ultimate in fan comfort. The result of those efforts is the $450 million University of Phoenix Stadium that opened in August of 2006 on a 165-acre site in Glendale, just west of Phoenix. In addition to hosting Cardinals games, it was also the site of Super Bowl XLII in addition to hosting the annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the Bowl Championship Series title game on a rotating basis.

ARCHITECTURE: World-renowned architect Peter Eisenman, in partnership with HOK Sport and Hunt Construction Group, created a state-of-the-art design that has already become a distinctive Arizona landmark. The stadium's exterior skin takes its design cue from the barrel cactus and features alternating sections of shimmering metal panels intended to reflect the shifting desert light alongside magnificent vertical glass slots allowing fans a spectacular view of the horizon from any level of the interior.

RETRACTABLE FIELD: University of Phoenix Stadium also features a unique rollout natural grass playing field, contained in a single tray weighing 18.9 million-pounds (234 feet wide, 403 feet long). The first completely retractable field in the United States, it is positioned inside the stadium on game days to offer the preferred natural-grass playing surface for football and outside the stadium for the remaining 350+ days of the year to receive sunlight and watering. The field tray is powered by electric motors mounted on steel wheels riding on tracks embedded in the concrete floor and will takes approximately 60 minutes to move completely. The flexibility of this unique design allows University of Phoenix Stadium to serve as a true multipurpose venue featuring a 160,000 square-foot event floor for other events.

RETRACTABLE ROOF: Atop the stadium roof are two large retractable panels that open and close on an arc. The panels and much of the roof are made of a translucent fabric called Birdair that enables light to penetrate and gives the venue an open, airy feel. When closed it also allows for an air conditioned environment during the hot months but the roof can be opened during cooler times of the year to take advantage of Arizona's patented sunshine. The roof takes about 10 minutes to open or close.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY: Thanks to a successful partnership between the Cardinals, Tempe, AZ-based Insight and Cisco Systems the stadium boasts a variety of head-turning technology and innovations that are changing the way fans experience the game. An advanced Internet Protocol (IP) network from Cisco handles all data, voice and video communication traffic pulsing through the stadium, which 1) enables every fan in the stadium to enjoy fantasy football and surf the Internet from their wireless-enabled devices such as PDAs. 2) supports cell phone service for every seat in the house and enables fans to watch instant replay on the stadium's 70 jumbo plasma screens. 3) during a game allows fans in the stadium's luxury lofts to access statistics, scores, and monitor fantasy football activity using Cisco\ IP phones with touch-screen displays.

MULTI-PURPOSE: Because of the truly unique multi-purpose nature of the facility, University of Phoenix Stadium is able to host far more than just Cardinals home games. Since opening in August of 2006, the building has hosted a Super Bowl, the Rolling Stones, U2, high school proms, the first-ever BCS national championship game (Florida-Ohio State), monster truck shows, Fiesta Bowls, international soccer matches, high school football championships, trade shows and conventions, the West Regionals of the NCAA men's basketball tournament, and numerous other events. In a given year, Global Spectrum (the buildings operator) successfully books 225+ event days for gatherings large, small and in between.

OTHER FEATURES: In addition to its high-design architecture and innovative design, the stadium also sets new standards for stadium comfort. Its layout provides for excellent site lines, comfortable seats, abundant restrooms and concession stands, spacious end-zone viewing decks, and wide concourses with an open design allowing for an unobstructed view of the field from both the lower and upper concourses. The stadium showcases two state-of-the-art videoboard/scoreboard displays prominently located in the end zones with excellent site lines from all seating areas. It is also aligned along a slight northwest to southeast axis to offer the maximum sun exposure for the grass field and maximum shade for stadium patrons. University of Phoenix Stadium includes 88 luxury lofts - know elsewhere as "suites" - that are unlike any others in the sports industry. Featuring a bold, modern interior design, loft amenities include preferred parking, an exclusive entrance, private restrooms, multiple televisions, and in-loft catering. In addition to the lofts, a luxurious Club Level features wider seats, preferred parking, private entrances, and a climate controlled Club Lounge with multiple two-story spaces, comfortable lounge seating, plentiful TV monitors, upgraded food and beverage offerings and dedicated restrooms. On-site parking accommodates 14,000 cars as part of an innovative site plan designed to create a truly unique tailgating experience for fans. This 160-acre region, known as Sportsman's Park, features over 20 acres of turf including the eight-acre public area known as the Great Lawn. In addition to the 14,000 on-site spaces, parking for an additional 7,500 vehicles is conveniently located on adjacent parcels and another 3,500 on other nearby parcels. University of Phoenix Stadium is owned by the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority.

900	Length in miles of a sidewalk that could be made from the amount of concrete used on the stadium (roughly the distance from Phoenix to San Francisco)
10,000	Approximate number of individual Crown Coor panels that make up the metallic skin of the stadium's exterior

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM CONTINUES TO BE RECOGNIZED

University of Phoenix Stadium continues to rank as one of the NFL's best stadiums.

In the latest playing surface poll conducted by the NFLPA in the fall of 2010, University of Phoenix Stadium ranked as the number one grass playing surface among players, receiving 788 votes to 530 for Tampa Bay. It marked the second time it has been ranked number one (2008) after finishing third in 2006, the first season the stadium opened.

Below is a list of the top five grass playing surfaces in the NFL according to the NFLPA:

Venue	Team
1.	UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM	ARIZONA CARDINALS
2.	RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM	TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS
3.	QUALCOMM STADIUM	SAN DIEGO CHARGERS
4.	BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM	CAROLINA PANTHERS
5.	LAMBEAU FIELD	GREEN BAY PACKERS

In its series at the end of 2009, ranking the best in sports over the last decade, Sports Illustrated named University of Phoenix Stadium as the Best New Venue.

In selecting the facility #1, Sports Illustrated said: "Named for a college without a football team, this 1.7-million-square-foot stadium has quickly become one of the central venues in the sports world. It's home to the Arizona Cardinals and the Fiesta Bowl and hosted Super Bowl XLII in 2008. The award-winning design features a roof covered by a translucent fabric and exterior walls made of metallic panels to help with cooling inside. The field can be moved outside on rollers, enabling optimal grass growth in the desert setting."

Venue		Team	League	Opened
1.	UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM	ARIZONA CARDINALS	NFL	2006
2.	AT&T PARK	SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS	MLB	2001

SPORTSMAN'S PARK

The area that surrounds and encompasses University of Phoenix Stadium is known as Sportsman's Park. The 160-acre region includes car parks, grass areas and other open space available to the public.

Sportsman's Park features over 20 acres of turf, including an eight-acre public area called the Great Lawn, as well as on-site car parks which will handle over 14,000 vehicles, and an abundance of trees and other landscape appointments native to the area.

A tree-lined expanse of grass covering eight acres, the Great Lawn extends west from 95th Avenue to the Loop 101. The lawn stretches over 1,000 feet and is designed for use by fans while tailgating at games or to use during other activities outside the stadium. Surrounding the Great Lawn is a 50-foot wide promenade. In addition to the uninterrupted expanse of grass, the Great Lawn includes areas for vendors and musicians.

STEVE SCHOENFELD MEMORIAL PRESS BOX

The press box at University of Phoenix Stadium is named in honor of Steve Schoenfeld, who covered the team and the NFL for the Arizona Republic from 1988 until 2000 when he was killed by a hit-and-run driver.

Steve worked in Tulsa and Dallas before coming to Arizona and spent the last few months of his life covering the NFL for CBS SportsLine. A tough, but fair, reporter and an eloquent writer, he was president of the Pro Football Writers Association from 1997-99, and his untimely death stunned the league.

Steve was a loving family man as well. He was devoted to his wife, Robin, and was a loving son, brother and uncle. He cared deeply about his friends, and he seemed to have thousands of them.

Said Republic colleague and current beat writer Kent Somers, "Steve never met a stranger. He not only knew everyone, he had phone numbers for them, too - and didn't hesitate to call them. It's fitting the press box is named in honor of Steve, because to him there was no better place to be on a Sunday afternoon."

CARDINALS PRIMARY HOME STADIUMS

Since the NFL was founded in 1920, the following venues have served as the primary site for Cardinals home games:

1920-1921. . .Normal Park, Chicago *
1922-1925. . .Comiskey Park, Chicago
1926-1928 . .Normal Park, Chicago *
1929-1930 . .Comiskey Park, Chicago
1931-1938. . .Wrigley Field, Chicago
1939-1958. . .Comiskey Park, Chicago **
1959. Soldier Field, Chicago
1960-1965. . .Busch Stadium, St. Louis ***
1966-1987. . .Busch Memorial Stadium, St. Louis
1988-2005 . .Sun Devil Stadium, Tempe
2006 - University of Phoenix Stadium, Glendale

* Normal Park was also known as Normal Field

 In 1944, the Cardinals and Steelers merged during WWII and home games were split between Comiskey Park and Pittsburgh's Forbes Field

 Busch Stadium was known as Sportsman's Park from 1909-1952; the Cardinals moved to the newly-opened Busch Memorial Stadium in 1966

PAT TILLMAN MEMORIAL

The plaza surrounding University of Phoenix Stadium is known as the Pat Tillman Freedom Plaza, in honor of the former Cardinals safety who was killed in action on April 22, 2004 while serving his country as a member of the elite Army Ranger unit.

Fans attending home games can visit the Pat Tillman Memorial located at the northwest side of the plaza. The memorial includes a large white bronze sculpture of Tillman on the eastern side and a circular reflection pond on its western side.

The sculpture is approximately eight-feet tall, weighs over 500 pounds, and took nearly nine months to complete. After an extensive search, the Cardinals selected artists Omri Amrany and Gary Tillery to create the sculpture. The sculptors consulted with the team and Pat's wife, Marie, who worked to select the image of Tillman that would best convey his character and spirit. Serving as a backdrop to the sculpture is a nine-foot tall curved wall made of black concrete that measures 42 feet across, symbolic of Tillman's jersey number at Arizona State.

The brimming pool of water on the western side consists of a large 60-foot circular pond made of black concrete and stainless steel. Intended to create a pool of tranquility, it has a surface area of 2,300 square feet.

To the west of the memorial is a grove of 40 Oak trees that symbolizes the jersey number Tillman wore as an Arizona Cardinal and the entire area is surrounded by a grove of Ash and Oak trees.

ARMY STAFF SERGEANT PATRICK NELSON SELECTED FIRST NFL-TILLMAN MILITARY SCHOLAR

Army Staff Sergeant Patrick Nelson of Dawson, MN was named the inaugural NFL-Tillman Military Scholar. Nelson was recognized before the Arizona Cardinals-Minnesota Vikings game in Minnesota on November 7, 2010 and served as an honorary captain for the Vikings.

In the summer of 2010, the NFL and Pat Tillman Foundation created the NFL-Tillman Military Scholarship to honor each year an individual who exemplifies Pat Tillman's enduring legacy of service. The scholarship is part of the Tillman Military Scholars program established by the Pat Tillman Foundation, which is available to veteran and active service members from all branches of the U.S. military who wish to start, finish, or further their education and to dependents and survivors of service members. The scholarship covers not only direct study-related expenses such as tuition, fees, and books, but also other needs such as room and board and child care.

Nelson, who currently attends Minnesota State University, is a former paratrooper with 39 months of combat experience in Iraq and Afghanistan while serving nearly seven years of active duty in the Army. His motivation to finish his education began shortly after being wounded in Afghanistan in 2005. During two deployments in Afghanistan, Nelson took online classes and graduated with honors earning an Associate of Arts degree from Central Texas College. Nelson also started a nonprofit organization called Real Combat Life, which provides an online place for veterans to share their stories from combat with possible therapeutic results and helps educate the public on what life is like in combat from a first-hand perspective.

The Pat Tillman Foundation supports educational opportunities for veterans and their families. There are currently 111 Tillman Military Scholars pursuing their education at every level, from college freshmen undergraduates to doctoral candidates. All 111 of the Tillman Military Scholars are connected by their desire to improve their own lives while continuing to serve others. The application process, open each spring, includes consideration of unmet financial need, educational and career ambitions, record of personal achievement, essay question responses, and demonstration of service to others.

The NFL has supported the Pat Tillman Foundation since its inception in 2004, donating $700,000 to the foundation. In 2004, the NFL donated $250,000 to the United Service Organizations to build a USO Center in memory of Tillman. The Pat Tillman USO Center, the first USO center in Afghanistan, opened on Bagram Air Base on April 1, 2005 and now serves 135,000 troops annually.

Cardinals president Michael Bidwill sits on the Tillman Foundation's board and Joe Browne, Senior Advisor to NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, was named to the board earlier in 2010. Bidwill and Arizona head coach Ken Whisenhunt were part of a team of 28 people from the Cardinals organization that took part in the 2011 "Pat's Run," a 4.2 mile run/walk that serves as the signature fundraiser for the Pat Tillman Foundation.

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX SECURES STADIUM NAMING RIGHTS

On September 26, 2006 the Cardinals and University of Phoenix announced an exclusive, multi-year agreement with University of Phoenix to become the team's naming rights partner. It marked the first time and only time a National Football League venue has been named after an educational institution.

University of Phoenix, the largest private university in the United States, agreed to invest an average of $7.7 million per year for 20 years in exchange for naming rights, signage and a variety of advertising, marketing and merchandising opportunities. In addition, the alliance enables the University - already international in scope - to reach an even greater number and diversity of potential students, while staying grounded in its hometown community, according to Brian Mueller, president of Apollo Group, the University's parent company.

University of Phoenix was founded over 30 years ago, and serves students both on-line and with 191 campuses and learning centers in 39 states and four foreign nations.

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM GOES GREEN

Since 2008, University of Phoenix has teamed up with hometown energy provider Salt River Project (SRP) to power every Arizona Cardinals home game with 100 percent renewable energy.

The Arizona Cardinals is one of only a few NFL teams to play in a green-powered facility the last two years. For all eight home games and two pre-season home games, 95,000 kilowatt-hours of renewable energy purchased by University of Phoenix offsets electricity used in the stadium -- from the concession stands to the parking lot lighting to the scoreboards. This amount of electricity is comparable to what 60 average homes in Phoenix will use in one month.

"University of Phoenix has a long-term commitment to sustainability and the environment," said Dr. William Pepicello, president of University of Phoenix. "Offsetting the electricity use with clean, renewable energy at University of Phoenix Stadium during every home game in 2011 will have a lasting impact on the environment."

University of Phoenix Stadium's green efforts started in early 2008, with the electricity needed to power Super Bowl XLII and the NFL Experience generated from 100 percent renewable energy resources through SRP's EarthWise Program. Additionally, University of Phoenix purchased renewable energy credits to power the Cardinals home game versus the San Francisco 49ers on November 11, 2008.

"SRP commends the University of Phoenix for their commitment to renewable energy," said Mark Bonsall, General Manager of SRP. "Providing green energy to offset the electricity used to power the games is an excellent opportunity to educate the public about the importance of renewable energy."

Additionally, stadium operator Global Spectrum, in partnership with Sierra Waste, the Arizona Cardinals and Arizona Department of Environmental Quality (ADEQ), implemented a recycling program at University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006, consisting of placing containers to collect products for recycling on every level in the stadium, in club lounges and corporate lofts, and even provides recycling plastic bags for tailgaters.

CARDINALS BRING FANVISION TO UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

FanVision, the handheld device for enhanced viewing of live sporting events, made its University of Phoenix Stadium debut during the 2010 season to provide Cardinals fans with revolutionary technological and viewing access during all home games. It was the first time fans inside the stadium had ever been given the opportunity to control and personalize the viewing experience of an NFL game from the palm of their hand.

"The thing that we heard from our fans is that they want more interaction with the game and things to do here at the stadium," said Cardinals President Michael Bidwill. "So we introduced this new product called FanVision. This gives the fan complete control for them to play producer and be able to produce their own football experience here at University of Phoenix Stadium. We were one of only 12 teams that were doing this in the National Football League last year and we were really excited to be introducing this."

FanVision allowed Cardinals fans to take the game into their own hands and put them in the driver's seat, giving them ultimate control over all facets of the game, including:

- Instant replay from multiple angles, including replays not offered on television or on the in-stadium video screens
- Live out of market games
- Real time stats from the Cardinals game as well as those around the league
- NFL Red Zone
- Live Fantasy Football updates
- The network telecast of the Cardinals game
- On-Demand video featuring team-produced content such as Maximum Cardinals and the Ken Whisenhunt Show
- Highlight reel of the game
- KTAR's radio broadcast

The portable FanVision device made its debut at the Cardinals home opener against the Raiders and will also work in any stadium that supports the program, allowing fans to take the entertainment device with them when attending away games at FanVision enabled stadiums. For more information on FanVision, please visit www.FanVision.com.

CARDINALS CONTINUE TO SELL OUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

The Cardinals sellout streak at University Phoenix Stadium continued last season, selling out all 10 games (including preseason). Entering the 2011 season, the team has now sold out all 53 games played at the stadium. Arizona averaged 62,512 fans per game in 2010, totaling 500,097 fans, the fifth-highest regular season total in franchise history.

Arizona finished last season with a 4-4 record at home and head coach Ken Whisenhunt joined Don Coryell as the only coaches in franchise history to post four consecutive seasons with a .500 record or better at home. The sellout crowds helped the Cardinals finish the season with two wins at their home stadium to improve their record in home games played in the month of December to 9-4 since 2006. A 20-12 record at home over the last four regular seasons is the best in the NFC West. Since 1926, the only other time the Cardinals registered at least 20 regular season wins at home in four years was from 1974-77 (21-7).

Before the opening of University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006 there were only 12 games that sold out in time to be televised locally in 18 years at Sun Devil Stadium.

CARDS SEASON GETS HIGH TV RATINGS

After Cardinals game broadcasts ranked as the week's most-watched TV program in Phoenix every week during the 2009 season, Arizona continued to generate high TV ratings in 2010.

The Cardinals finished the 2010 preseason with an average rating of 12.7, up 39% from a 9.0 average rating the previous season when the team was coming off its Super Bowl XLIII appearance, the most watched Super Bowl, at the time, with 151.6 million viewers.

Arizona continued to gather strong ratings into the regular season, beginning with a 25.3 rating and 46 share locally for the regular season-opening victory over the St. Louis Rams that was seen in 474,000 homes. A couple weeks later the Cardinals dramatic victory over the Oakland Raiders in the home opener had a 26.0 rating and 48 share locally, making it the Valley's most-watched TV program for the week and highest-rated week three broadcast in team history.

The Cardinals continued to break their own records by registering a 24.9 local rating with a 48 share for an early October victory over the Saints that was seen in 468,000 homes, marking the Cardinals highest-rated week five broadcast ever. The team's average local TV ratings were its best-ever after five games.

On Christmas night the Cardinals thrilling victory over the Dallas Cowboys on the NFL Network was watched by an average of 7.8 million viewers (not including over-the-air stations in Dallas and Phoenix), topping all daytime and primetime programming on cable that day. The Cardinals-Cowboys game drew nearly double the viewers of the second most-watched sporting event on cable (Bulls-Knicks on ESPN, 4.0 million viewers) and exceeded the combined viewership of three NBA games on ESPN that day. It was the third most watched game in the five years of Thursday Night Football on NFL Network and the most watched of the 2010 season.

The Cardinals continued success on TV was part of a record setting year for NFL TV ratings. According to The Nielson Company, the 2010 regular season reached 207.7 million unique viewers, the most in history. NFL games were watched by an average of 17.9 million viewers – up 1.3 million viewers per game from 2009 and the NFL's highest viewership average since 1989 (18.0 million).

CARDINALS CHEERLEADERS

Whether it's performing at all Arizona Cardinals home games, community service involvement, appearances at other sporting and civic events, or just signing autographs, the Arizona Cardinals Cheerleaders are recognized throughout the country for their talent, exciting dance routings, and professionalism.

The cheerleaders have performed throughout the United States, Mexico, and Canada. At the invitation of the Pentagon, the cheerleaders also have entertained U.S. military troops in Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Bosnia, Egypt, Greenland, Kosovo, Bahrain, and China.

Through their talent, showmanship, enthusiasm, and dedication to their community and country, the cheerleaders have established themselves as an integral part of the Cardinals organization.

The cheerleaders are available for community service events, civic events, meetings, conventions, or special occasions. Call the Cardinals (602/379–0101) for more information.

ARIZONA STEPS TO FOREFRONT IN CONCUSSION PREVENTION AMONG STUDENT ATHLETES

In August of 2011, the Arizona Cardinals, Barrow Neurological Institute at St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center and The Arizona Interscholastic Association (AIA) announced a major breakthrough in concussion prevention and research that will immediately affect more than 100,000 Arizona student athletes.

On August 16, 2011, Arizona became the first in the United States to mandate all student athletes undergo concussion education and pass a formal test before play through a new program specifically geared toward students. Arizona ranks second in the nation for traumatic brain injury and previously, there had never been a mandated education and testing program designed for student athletes to teach them about the dangerous effects of concussion.

Twenty-eight states, including Arizona, have concussion laws that require concussion education, removal from play and return to play. Arizona becomes the first to define and create the education directly targeting students through a new e-learning module and the AIA is the first to require that every student complete and pass the education module in order to participate in athletics. This program, designed by AIA, Barrow and the Arizona Cardinals, is expected to change the face of high school sports in Arizona.

"The AIA recognizes the seriousness of this debilitating brain injury and is proud to be taking the lead in changing the way athletes are educated about traumatic brain injuries associated in sports," says Harold Slemmer, Ed.D., Executive Director of the AIA.

"There are approximately 3 million sports-related concussions nationally each year," says Javier Cárdenas, MD, neurologist at Barrow, who has taken a state-wide lead in concussion prevention. "Players recognizing the signs and symptoms of concussion can prevent death and disability."

"The NFL and the Arizona Cardinals have very been instrumental in passing concussion legislation," says Michael Bidwill, President of the Arizona Cardinals. "This education module and research program today takes the Arizona legislation passed in February (2011) to the next level. We are very proud to be part of this revolutionary program."

All student athletes through the AIA will receive their concussion education through Brainbook, an interactive online site created by Barrow and Arizona State University. Designed to look like a social media site, the students are taken through a series educational content, activities and videos. At the end of the module, the students are required to pass a formal exam before being cleared to play. The module is the first collaborative educational effort between a pro football team, a hospital, and an interscholastic agency. Brainbook is currently being evaluated for implementation in other states throughout the nation.

In addition to the education program, Barrow has received a $250,000 grant from the Maddock Foundation to develop a research registry which will track concussed student athletes. This will be a powerful tool for Barrow neurologists and researchers to make never-before-known insights into the long-term effects of concussion.

The AIA, Barrow and the Arizona Cardinals have been partnering for the past year to create this milestone program.

CARDINALS PREPARATORY ACADEMY

In November of 2009, representatives from the Arizona Cardinals Football Club, Washington Elementary School District, Cardinals Charities, Communities in Schools of Arizona and University of Phoenix came together to dedicate the newly constructed facilities and campus of the Arizona Cardinals Preparatory Academy (8520 N. 19th Avenue, Phoenix).

ARIZONA CARDINALS Preparatory Academy
University of Phoenix® Founding Partner

Guard Deuce Lutui joined Alice Whisenhunt and team mascot Big Red to represent the Cardinals at the campus dedication.

The Arizona Cardinals Preparatory Academy, in partnership with the Washington Elementary School District, Cardinals Charities, Communities in Schools Arizona and founding partner University of Phoenix, was established in 2007 as a small public middle school (fifth through eighth grades) whose aim is to create a learning environment that will receive all the successful programs, services and resources each organization has to offer.

The academy opened its doors in August 2007 with its first class of 40+ fifth and sixth grade students. Grades seven and eight were added over the next two years. The Cardinals Academy offers a small-school environment with high parental involvement and a community service focus.

Accelerated instruction is provided to focus students on their education and service learning to help them achieve success. The academy promotes small class size with adult mentors, quality teachers, and community resources delivered in an accessible way to reduce or eliminate non-scholastic barriers to staying in school.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING

CARDINALS ON THE RADIO

The Cardinals are pleased to continue their partnership with Bonneville/KTAR in 2011. KTAR has been the flagship radio station for the Cardinals since 2005.

Dave Pasch

Ron Wolfley

Paul Calvisi

GAME-DAY RADIO PROGRAMMING

Cardinals games will simulcast on Arizona Sports 620 KTAR (AM) and News Talk 92.3 KTAR (FM). Arizona Sports 620 KTAR will also air pre-game and post-game programming for every contest as well as non-game day programming including the Big Red Rage.

If there is a scheduling conflict with the Suns or Diamondbacks, all Cardinals game day programming will air on News Radio 92.3 KTAR while the baseball or basketball game will be carried on Arizona Sports 620 KTAR.

Calling the play-by-play for his 10th straight season with the Cardinals is Dave Pasch. He joined the team in 2002 after three seasons as the football and basketball voice of Syracuse University. In addition to Cardinals broadcasts, Pasch can be seen on ESPN calling NBA and college football and basketball.

Joining Pasch for his seventh year as radio analyst is Ron Wolfley, former player and four-time Pro Bowl selection and special teams standout with the Cardinals, who selected him in the fourth round of the 1985 draft. One-half of the "Doug and Wolf Show" on Arizona Sports 620 KTAR, the Buffalo, NY native played collegiately at West Virginia before enjoying a 10-year NFL career with the Cardinals (1985-91), Browns (1992-93) and Rams (1995).

Arizona Sports 620 KTAR Radio talk-show host and Cardinals Reporter Paul Calvisi offers sideline commentary on the game broadcasts.

Game-day programming begins three hours prior to kickoff on Arizona Sports 620 KTAR (AM) and News Talk 92.3 KTAR (FM) with "The NFL Kickoff Show." Hosted by former Cardinals running back Damien Anderson and azcardinals.com beat reporter Darren Urban, the show spotlights the upcoming Cardinals matchup and the latest game day news from around the NFL.

Two hours prior to kickoff, Calvisi will be joined by former Cardinals linebacker Rob Fredrickson, former NFL offensive lineman Glenn Parker and Anderson for the "Pre-Game Huddle." Fredrickson played with the Cardinals from 1999-2002, Parker, a former University of Arizona standout, spent 11 years in the NFL, playing for the Buffalo Bills, Kansas City Chiefs and New York Giants and Anderson played with the Cardinals from 2002-05.

"Cardinal Talk," a post-game fan-interactive program, can be heard immediately following each contest on Arizona Sports 620 KTAR. Cardinal Talk allows fans to give their opinion on each game and hear expert analysis from Fredrickson, Anderson, and Parker.

WEEKDAY RADIO PROGRAMMING

Returning to the airwaves in 2011 is "The Big Red Rage." Live from Majerle's in Chandler for the fourth consecutive season, "The Big Red Rage" is co-hosted by Paul Calvisi and Ron Wolfley, who will be joined by two Cardinals players for each program. The show typically airs from 6:00-7:00 p.m. on Thursday evenings throughout the season on Arizona Sports 620 KTAR. If there is a scheduling conflict with a Diamondbacks or Suns game, check azcardinals.com for date and time changes.

SPANISH RADIO

Over the last 11 years the Arizona Cardinals Football Club has reached out to its Spanish language speaking fans by becoming the first professional team in Arizona to offer all games on Spanish radio (2000), and launching a Spanish language version of the team's web site www.azcardinals.com/espanol (2007).

The broadcast team of Gabriel Trujillo (play-by-play), and former Cardinals offensive lineman Rolando Cantú (analyst) will be back again in 2011. Trujillo returns for his 12th season of play-by-play with the Cardinals. From 2000-2005, he also called the action in Spanish for the Phoenix Suns. Cantú played with the Cardinals for two seasons (2005-06), and during the 2005 season, he became the first Mexican born player non-kicker to ever take the field in an NFL regular season game. In addition to his broadcast duties, Cantú is also the team's Manager of International Business Affairs.

The Cardinals broadcast in Spanish locally on 710 ESPN Deportes Radio in Phoenix. In 2008, the Cardinals expanded the content of their game broadcasts with a one-hour Spanish language pre-game show hosted by Trujillo and Cantú. Spanish speaking Cardinals fans can tune into Primera Y Diez (First and Ten) every Wednesday during the season on 710AM ESPN Deportes. This two hour Spanish language program features a recap of the previous week's game and insight into the next opponent. In addition to 710AM ESPN Deportes, the broadcast will be simulcast on Jose 106.9/107.1 FM.

Gabriel Trujillo

Rolando Cantu

The Spanish broadcast team will be back on the web as they return for "Al Cronómetro" (On The Clock) a Spanish language web-show that recaps the last game and looks ahead at the next opponent.

For the fourth straight season, the Cardinals will bring the Spanish language broadcast to fans in Mexico. The team has partnered with Larsa Comunicaciones (Larsa Communications Group), the leading radio network in northern Mexico to bring the broadcast to 26 stations in 18 cities throughout Mexico, including Guadalajara, Puerto Vallarta, Hermosillo and Mexico City.

CARDINALS ON TELEVISION

PRE-SEASON TV

The Cardinals are back again on ABC 15 (KNXV-TV) for the 2011 preseason in High Definition. Play-by-play announcer Rich Cellini will be joined by Glenn Parker (analyst), and Jody Jackson (sideline).

TEAM SHOWS

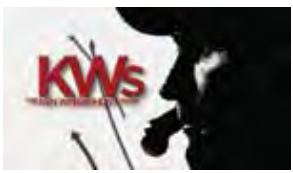

The team will produce three TV programs throughout the 2011 season: "Maximum Cardinals," "The Ken Whisenhunt Show," and "Cardinals Headquarters." The programs can be found on 12 News (KPNX-TV) and Fox Sports Arizona.

"Maximum Cardinals" is a weekly half-hour program, presented by the Roomstore, dedicated to providing an inside look into the team, on and off the field. Each week, segments such as the popular "Wired," as well as "Building the Gameplan" get Cardinals fans ready for the upcoming game. The show features reports from Jackson, Ron Wolfley and Paul Calvisi. "Maximum Cardinals" will typically air at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday afternoon's (or following NBC college football) on 12 News and will re-air Sunday morning's on FSAZ.

"The Ken Whisenhunt Show" is the official TV program of Head Coach Ken Whisenhunt. Hosted by Wolfley, the show will feature an in-depth look at the pivotal play from the previous week's game with an eye on the upcoming opponent and a fan-email segment in which Whisenhunt will answer questions. "The Ken Whisenhunt Show" will air at 12:00 a.m. on Sunday's following "Saturday Night Live" on 12 News and re-air Sunday morning's on FSAZ.

"Cardinals Headquarters," airing exclusively on Fox Sports Arizona, will be shown on Wednesday evenings throughout the season and will re-air throughout the week prior to game-day. "HQ" will focus on any mid-week news surrounding the team including Head Coach Ken Whisenhunt's weekly press conference.

TRAINING FACILITY

While the Cardinals home games moved from the East Valley to the West Valley in 2006, the team continues to train and maintain its corporate headquarters at the South Tempe facility that opened in 1990.

Covering 14.7 acres of land that was formerly a cotton field, the Cardinals facility opened in September of 1990. The 94,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility sports desert building materials, and three and one-half acres of Sonoran desert landscaping.

In the spring of 1996, it served as a location for the filming of "Jerry Maguire" starring Tom Cruise.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The main building is flanked by a two-story attached building that includes a public area, the ticket office, and the media relations department.

Tifway 419 sod, the same hybrid used at University of Phoenix Stadium, covers seven and one-half acres on the east side of the building and includes three laser-leveled side-by-side practice fields. Underneath lies a complex lateral piping, sub-drainage system constructed with drainage tiles that accommodate as much as three inches of rain water that can be drained from all three fields.

The Cardinals' training facility in south Tempe has housed the franchise's day-to-day operations since 1990.

TRAINING CAMP

The Cardinals annually trek 150 miles north of Phoenix to the cool climate of Flagstaff, Arizona, Northern Arizona's largest city located at one of America's highest city elevations. The excellent facilities of Northern Arizona University (N.A.U.) provide the team's preseason training camp home.

While Phoenix temperatures range somewhere between hot and hotter in late July and August, the Cardinals benefit from Flagstaff's 7,200-foot altitude that consistently produces daytime temperatures in the upper 70s and low 80s. On average, summer temperatures in Flagstaff reach 90 degrees only three days per year.

Flagstaff is situated in the Coconino National Forest, the largest continuous stand of ponderosa pines in the world. It also serves as the county seat for Coconino County, the second largest county in the nation with 12 million acres.

Flagstaff's name is derived from a tall pine tree made into a flagpole in 1876 to celebrate the Declaration of Independence Centennial.

The picturesque N.A.U. campus arguably provides the National Football League's most scenic training-camp venue. The Cardinals' three practice fields literally were carved from pine trees with the San Francisco Peaks, the highest points in Arizona at 12,633 feet, serving as an unrivaled backdrop and a photographer's delight.

N.A.U.'s 15,000-seat Walkup Skydome also offers the Cardinals flexibility if the occasional summertime afternoon showers interfere with practice schedules.

2011 TRAINING CAMP SCHEDULE

The Arizona Cardinals Football Club will return to Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff in late July to begin their 2011 training camp.

Players will undergo physicals on Friday, July 29 in Tempe before checking in at Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff later that day. The team will have an afternoon practice on the fields at NAU on the afternoon of Saturday, July 30.

RED & WHITE PRACTICE: On Saturday, August 6 the Cardinals will host a special "Red & White" outdoor practice from 11:35 AM-1:20 PM. Weather permitting, the practice will be preceded by an outdoor full-team autograph session for kids 12 and under (10:45-11:10 AM) and conclude with a live goal-line session.

PRACTICES: The Cardinals will also have a night practice on Tuesday, August 16 from 7:05-9:10 PM. Just like in 2010, the night practice is scheduled to take place at nearby Coconino High School.

All other practices in Flagstaff will be held on the grass fields adjacent to the Walkup Skydome.

Admission and parking are both free. Cardinals players and coaches will be available following each outdoor practice to sign autographs as they come off the field.

IMPORTANT NOTICE ON INCLEMENT WEATHER: In the event of inclement weather, practice will be moved inside to the Skydome. Because of code restrictions and liability issues related to that construction at the Skydome, any Cardinals training camp practices that are moved into the Skydome due to weather will not be open to the public.

Practice times are subject to change and fans are encouraged to check the team's official website www.azcardinals.com for the most up-to-date practice info.

The team's tentative training camp schedule is as follows:

Date	Practice Time	Date	Practice Time
Saturday, 7/30/11	3:05-5:00 PM	Monday, 8/8/11	3:05-5:00 PM
Sunday, 7/31/11	3:05-5:05 PM	Tuesday, 8/9/11	3:05-5:00 PM
